

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

Dec. 22—Daughters of Isabella meeting and Christmas tree.

Dec. 22—Business men's luncheon, Commercial club, noon.

Dec. 24—Kiddies Christmas tree and Santa Claus at Commercial club, 7.30.

Dec. 22-27—6th annual Marion county corn show, Valley Motor company rooms, State and Front streets.

Dec. 30—O. A. C. Salem dance at armory.

Love, the jeweler, 337 State street, Salem. 304*

Walter L. Toose, Jr., formerly an attorney of Dallas and now a member of a McMinnville law firm, was a visitor in Salem Friday.

Rigdon company, leading funeral directors. Superior service. Moderate prices.

Mr. Sc Smoker, just try a Kinamen 5c cigar, the mild Havana short filler smoke of satisfaction. Jacobs & Busick, distributors. 309*

The following members of the company of "The Tailor Made Man" which played at the opera house Friday night were guests at the Marion hotel: C. H. Ellwood, Miss Lillian Martin, William Nelson, J. Warren, Tom Cary, Tom Byrne and Paul Morrow.

Highest cash prices paid for turkeys. Midget Market. 301*

Miss Galdys Cook of Rickreall is visiting friends in Salem over the week end.

Oscar Hayter, prominent attorney of the Folk county seat, was attending to legal affairs before the supreme court Friday.

Highest cash prices paid for turkeys. Midget Market. 301*

The Chautauqua Desk and Blackboard makes an ideal present for children. Just a few left. Call 558 State. Phone 400. 301

Protection lodge, No. 2, A. O. U. W. of Salem which has long been dormant, has again taken on a new lease on life and is rapidly adding to its membership. 12 candidates being initiated already since December 1. The organization now has a total membership of approximately 125. Officers were elected at the last regular meeting as follows: Past master workman, E. H. D'Arcy; master workman, John H. Carson; foreman, Harold M. Hargrove; overseer, Frank G. Deckabach, Jr.; guide, Wm. Earl Shafer; reporter, A. Eugene Aufranc; inside watch, Lloyd J. Glenn; outside watch, Emil F. Aufranc.

On account of the snow there will not be any dance at Auburn hall Saturday Dec. 20. 301*

Arthur Brock of Portland, a member of the executive committee of the state federation of labor, transacted business with the governor's office Saturday. Brock was foreman of the state printing plant under the administration of State Printer Harris.

Men buy a Bishop fabric pure wool shirt before this weather requires the attention of a doctor for you. Salem Woolen Mills store, C. P. Bishop, Prop. 302*

According to post office officials, the holiday rush on the rural routes is not exceptionally heavy so far this year. They expect, however, that next week will tax the rural mail facilities out of Salem, to their utmost.

Ask to see our newly equipped "Model Laundry" featuring Elen washers and Saxonix Ironers. Salem Electric Co., Masonic Temple. Phone 1200.

Highest cash prices paid for turkeys. Midget Market. 301*

Mrs. J. H. Southam and little son Waldo of Mowhall, N. Dak., left Saturday for Lebanon where Mrs. Southam will visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Gray. Mrs. Southam has been a Salem visitor since Thanksgiving, and while here was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Palmer, 1186 North 16th street, and of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Lebold.

The Presbyterian church will hold its regular church and Sunday school services Sunday at the usual hours. The special Christmas services have been postponed one week.

W. H. Burns of San Francisco, who has been in Salem looking over the possibilities for location here has announced that he intends to locate here with his family in the near future. Mr. Burns will establish a general sales and service agency in Salem for G. M. C. trucks.

OREGON

"A ROUGH RIDING ROMANCE SENNETT'S 'HIS LAST FALSE STEP'"

NOW

W. T. RIGDON & CO. Undertakers 553 North High Street

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Prensall of Seattle, who have been visiting in Salem at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Enos Prensall and Mrs. Bella Prensall, left Thursday evening for Indiana.

Fred Kurts, Roy Wasson and J. F. Hughes journeyed to Portland Friday.

Dr. F. H. Thompson is in Portland spending Saturday on business connected with the work of the state industrial accident commission.

Formerly a shoe merchant of Salem but now engaged in the same business in Los Angeles Cal., Joseph Reinhart arrived in Salem Saturday night.

Reporting extreme cold and heavy weather along the coast, Jack Clements of Newport is in Salem looking up old friends and acquaintances.

W. V. Daniels, guardian of Andrew Franklin Davis, a minor, has been granted an order by County Judge Bushey authorizing the sale of a lot in Salem in which the Davis estate has an undivided one half interest. In his petition, the guardian states that the lot is worth $2000 and that the money represented by the property would serve the ward better if turned into an investment yielding larger returns.

When the weight of the snow crushed the tent in which they were living a Japanese family, living in South Bottom, started for Hoppere, in or Portland. It took them six hours to plow their way through the snow and slush and to cover the four miles to the station. When they finally reached Hoppere they were nearly exhausted.

C. F. Simmon, a farmer of the river bottom north of Salem, brought into play a bit of genius during the bad weather, by hitching his horse to a boat, and covering the almost impassable roads with almost no difficulty.

The Spaulding Logging company, which was forced to close because of the weather conditions, will resume operations Monday, December 22, according to an announcement made from the offices today. All employees are requested to report for work that morning.

The Daughters of Isabella will hold a meeting in the Knights of Columbus hall on State street, Monday evening December 22. A short program will be rendered and a Christmas tree will be a feature of the evening's entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Kelly of Stanton left Saturday for a two month pleasure trip to California. While there they will visit Mr. Kelly's relatives in Los Angeles, Santa Cruz and Temecula.

The monthly bible school conference of the Court street Christian church will be held next Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. All teachers and officers are asked to be present for the reports. This will be the last conference before the annual meeting and much is to be considered relative to the new year's work. Wednesday being Christmas Eve there will be a Bible school program, fuller announcements concerning which will be made later.

The national guard, Co. M, will give a military ball on December 31st. Special features will take place beginning at midnight. Everybody is invited. Tickets on sale at the armory. Oscar Steinhilber will have charge of the music.

Fire Chief Harry Hutton Saturday cautioned residents of the city to exercise care in their Christmas decorations as it effects lighting of candles on trees, windows and so forth. There is no ordinance prohibiting the lighting of candles on trees, amateur wiring for trees and windows and room decorations, but much care must be exercised in handling these things, the chief said, if fires are to be avoided. He laid particular stress to the draping of flimsy papers around electric light globes to alter the shades, as it is from this source, he said, that most of the fires have started heretofore.

Frank Cudworth Flint, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flint of this city, left Portland Saturday for Boston, Mass., where he will visit with relatives before sailing from New York for England on the Adriatic, January 3, for England to enter Oxford university. Flint who is well known in Salem, was one of two Reed college students to win the Rhodes scholarship this year.

A. G. Clark, manager of the Associated Industries of Oregon, was in the city from Portland Saturday on business with Manager McCroskey of the Commercial club. Clark will address the club at the noonday luncheon next Monday.

The prayer meeting and teachers training class of the Court street Christian church, which was to have been held Thursday, has been postponed because of Christmas.

Plans for the home products week to be staged in this city soon after the first of 1920 will be discussed by A. G. Clark, manager of the Associated Industries of Oregon, in a speech before the business men at their regular weekly luncheon Monday noon. Acceptance of the invitation to speak at the luncheon was phoned Manager T. E. McCroskey at the Commercial club Saturday.

W. S. Levens, sheriff of Baker county, was in the Capital city Friday. He brought a prisoner to the state penitentiary.

Miss Florence Kays of Medford is visiting friends in Salem for a few days.

W. I. Staley has gone for a ten day holiday visit to Los Angeles with his mother, Mrs. Laura C. Staley.

C. J. Henderson of San Francisco is an out of town visitor in Salem.

James E. Burdett, an attorney of McMinnville, spent Friday in the Capital city.

E. S. Hawker, assistant state game warden, returned Saturday morning to his home in Albany, after an official visit at the state house.

V. Lyle McCroskey arrived in Salem Friday and will spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McCroskey. He is a student at the University of Oregon.

Additional memorandum was filed Saturday by the Salem Kings Products Co. in sustaining their objection to certain items on the cost bill rendered by the growers recently. In the supplemented objection, the Kings Products company claim that it is not necessary for the cost to be inclusive of alleged fees covering periods of time when the witnesses were not actually giving testimony. The witnesses whose cost items are involved in the objection and whose testimony the company holds to "have been of no material value were: A. N. Lafollette, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Standifer, Marie Shields and Joe Lafollette.

Victor D. Bradson, a student at the University of Oregon, is spending the holidays with his parents in Salem.

William P. Beck of Eugene is attending to business affairs in Salem.

LeRoy Peabody, a resident of Omaha, is spending the week end with friends in the Capital city.

Formal announcement of the appointment of Charles V. Galloway, former state tax commissioner, who up to a month ago resided in Salem, to be assistant cashier and manager of the trust and bond department of the Hibernia Savings bank in Portland, was learned here Saturday. Galloway, it is said, received several offers for lucrative banking positions while acting for the state.

Mrs. Elbert Thompson, principal of the high school at Philomath, and young daughter, Faye Louise, are spending the Christmas holidays at the home of their sister and aunt, Mrs. Harry A. Rowe, 592 North Commercial street.

Penryhn Stanley Kantner, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Kantner, 440 Center street, his wife and children, are expected to arrive in this city from their home in Seattle Wednesday. They will spend the holidays here. Penryhn Kantner has many friends here.

Dance at armory tonight. 301*

Just in time for Christmas. Shipment of 55 velocipedes. A gift for all the children. Hauser Bros. 301*

A gift for all the kiddies. A velocipede. Hauser Bros. 301*

Nothing will give more joy on Christmas and all the year than a velocipede. Hauser Bros. 301*

For healthy exercise and enjoyment give the children a velocipede. We have the biggest stock in town. Hauser Bros. 301*

Xmas eve dance armory. 301*

Dance at Turner tonight. Roads are open. 301*

The only dance out of town tonight is at Turner. Dods are O. K. 301*

The only dance out of town tonight is at Turner. Dods are O. K. 301*

Protection lodge No. 2, A. O. U. W. hold its annual Xmas tree party Dec. 23, 1919. Initiation and supper. Be there or you lose. 301*

Dance at Turner tonight. Roads are open. 301*

Parisian houses strictly "hand made," hand painted and washable, something any woman would prize as a Christmas gift. Many new models just in. One price, $12.50 each, in holiday boxes. The French Shop, 115 High street. 301*

Dance at armory tonight. 301*

Babies want homes, adopt one or more of our "Duffy Dollies." They're daintily themselves and are daintily dressed. Dolls with real hair, real dresses, real hats made by Madam Buffe Morrison. Grown ups as well as children will admire them. $1.75 to $4.50. See them in our display window. The French Shop, 115 North High street. 301*

Regular services will be held at the Jason Lee Memorial church tomorrow. The public is cordially invited to attend. 301

Appropriate Christmas services will be held at the Jason Lee Memorial church tomorrow both morning and evening. You are invited to attend. 301

South Salem S. S. will give the Xmas program at 10 a. m. Sunday. 301*

South Salem S. S. will give the Xmas program at 10 a. m. Sunday. 301*

Xmas eve dance armory. 301*

Special meeting of Salem lodge No. 4, A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the M. M. degree. The work will be done by Pacific lodge No. 50. 301*

Salem's big dance Xmas night at armory. 301*

That big 5-piece orchestra plays the latest song and dance hits Xmas Eve at the armory. 301*

Dance at armory tonight. 301*

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to thank our many friends for their kindness and sympathy in our great sorrow and bereavement. Also for the beautiful floral tributes. Mrs. I. H. Canon, his wife, and 301 sisters.

Dr. S. C. Stone can be found at Tyler's Drug store, 137 South Commercial street. 301*

Meet Me at Meyers

The Store of Beautiful Gifts

Three More Shopping Days and Then Christmas

OUR POLICY OF ONLY HANDLING "GOOD GOODS" HAS WON OUT. THIS IS THE BIGGEST CHRISTMAS BUSINESS WE HAVE EVER HAD. SALEM PEOPLE REALIZE THAT WHEN IT COMES FROM "MEYERS" IT IS CORRECT IN EVERY RESPECT AND WILL PROVE SATISFACTORY

EXTRA SPECIAL DOLLS
American made, with moving eyes and fully dressed. To close the line
75c

Handkerchiefs
No wonder we are doing a big Handkerchief business. The showing is the best we ever made, pleasing all tastes and all pocketbooks. Sold singly or by the box.

LOUNGING and BATH ROBES for LADIES and CHILDREN
They make most excellent Xmas Presents. All priced low.

Brasieres
Permit us to suggest "Brasieres" as a most sensible and practical gift. Our stock comprises those makes which are considered the best by women who know.

WHY NOT A WAIST?
The new shipment of dainty silk waists will delight every woman who appreciates Quality Material with correctness of style. Let her gift be one of these charming waists.

MEN'S SECTION
This Section is like a "Beehive," but why shouldn't it be? The Ladies of Salem know that what is bought at MEYERS is correct and absolutely dependable, and they can safely buy for "HIM" at the "Good Goods Store."

Hosiery for Xmas
A most complete Stock from which to make selection.
PLAIN SILK HOSE in solid colors, in Black, Blue, Grey, Brown, Field Mouse and Beaver.
ANCY SILK HOSE—"Clocked," Embroidered and Drop Stitched.
FANCY CAMISOLES in plain and figured satin. Red, blue, rose and black.

You can always do better at

Meyers

GOOD GOODS

Who Always Does Better By You

UMBRELLAS
Before purchasing one give Our New Shipment an inspection—that's all we ask.

ROSS COMPLETES FLIGHT REPORT
London, Dec. 20.—Captain Ross Smith has completed his flight from London to Melbourne, according to a message from that city today.

DRAPERIES
MADE TO ORDER TO FIT YOU
C. S. HAMILTON
340 Court Street

For Long Distance Auto Trucking
Willamette Valley Transfer Co. Phone 1400
WE ALSO DO LOCAL HAULING.

BUY REMNANTS AT THE Remnant Store
254 North Commercial

W. W. MOORE
House Furnisher
HOME OF THE VICTROLA
You get more for your Money at Moore's.

Gifts

Prices Reduced for Xmas
Do It Now—And Save Money
Tables, Dressers, Rockers, Ranges, Heaters
Beds $8 up; Springs $4 to $20; Mattresses $5 to $25
Dining Chairs, Suit Cases
Universal Perculators, Universal Electric Iron
Casseroles, Dishes, Tea Pots, Water Sets
PYREX GLASSWARE
CARVING SETS
$175.00 Playerphone and 15 Records, $150.00
$100.00 Playerphone and 10 Records, $90.00
Peoples Furniture Store
A GOOD PLACE TO TRADE
New and Second Hand Goods Bought, Sold and Exchanged
231 NORTH COMMERCIAL ST. PHONE 124

SPECIAL
Good 5 passenger car will trade for what have you
U. S. GARAGE
Phone 1752 554 Ferry St.

FORD TRUCK WITH TWO TON ATTACHMENT. RUNS LIKE A TOP
OSCAR B. GINGRICH
MOTOR & TIRE CO.
311 Court Street Phone 421

Give An Electrical Present

ALWAYS ACCEPTABLE
ALWAYS USEFUL
YOU'LL MAKE NO MISTAKE