

MRS. PURVINE, OLD TIME RESIDENT, IS SUMMONED BY DEATH

Mrs. Pauline Purvine, 81, pioneer resident of Salem, passed away at her home, 891 N. Winter street, at eight o'clock Monday morning. Renowned as the "mother of the Purvines" Mrs. Purvine is mourned by many, both friends and relatives. With her parents and brothers and sisters, Mrs. Purvine came to this country in 1863, and has resided since in this county.

Pauline F. Staiger was born in Beaver county Pennsylvania, October 26, 1838. She was the second child of a family of seven all of whom have passed beyond excepting one brother, William Staiger of this city. The family emigrated to Missouri in 1846 and in the year of 1863 crossed the plains and arrived in Aurora, Marion county, Oregon, in October of that year, where the family resided as members of the Kell Colony of that place until December 1866, when they moved to Salem.

She married Andrew J. Purvine May 3rd, 1867, and until the death of her husband in 1908, resided on the home farm near Zena, Oregon. After the death of the husband she moved to Salem, making her home with her daughters.

She is survived by the following children: Ida W. Willis, wife of Col. Percy Willis of Boston; Albert, Mrs. E. T. Prescott, Mrs. J. A. Remington Monroe, and Fred Purvine all of this city.

Burial will be at Zena cemetery at 11:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, the funeral party leaving Webb & Clough chapel at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Lovell will officiate.

WOODBURN STORE IS ENTERED AND ROBBED

Robbers who broke into the Frank McCornack store at Woodburn last evening showed all of the earmarks of amateurs in the business, according to Sheriff Needham, who returned from that city after making an investigation Monday afternoon.

The spoils which the robbers got away with consisted of a pair of second hand shoes, some cheese and crackers, $1 worth of stamps and a quantity of tobacco and cigarettes.

The intruders left no clues as to their identity. They effected an entrance by forcing the front door.

Sheriff's Deputies Bower and Smith today arrested F. W. Beck of Rawlins, Mont., on a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The arrest under the instructions of Sheriff Saunders of Rawlins, no details of the charge having been given. Beck is being held by Sheriff Needham pending further information from the Montana authorities.

GRAND JURY PROBE OF DANCES PROPOSED

Probe of the alleged misconduct in rural dance halls, of "road side revelry" mentioned by Circuit Judge Bingham as attributive to the dance halls, and other complaints made against the resorts will be made by the grand jury, which will meet next Monday and be in session Tuesday and Wednesday, it was announced Monday.

The grand jury has about six cases on the docket to investigate, most of them are larceny. One is for alleged rape.

TWO DALLAS STORES ROBBED; MUCH LOOT IS TAKEN BY THUGS

(Special to Capital Journal.)
Dallas, Or., Dec. 22.—Two stores in Dallas—the Staffin drug store and the Golden Rule store—were robbed some time last Sunday night and goods valued at about $600 were stolen. The thieves left a small axe they had used in breaking through the door panels to gain entrance, and with this only clue Sheriff John Orr Monday was conducting a diligent search for them.

The Staffin store, owned by Adjutant General Staffin, was robbed of $300 cash and $300 worth of kodaks. Three hundred dollars left in an unlocked safe was undisturbed.

The Golden Rule store was robbed of a dozen suit cases, slippers, raincoats and other wearing apparel, valued at approximately $200.

Mill City schools were able to continue their work without interruption during the recent cold weather according to Miss Nellie Albee, a teacher in the Mill City schools and who was in Salem Monday. Miss Albee reports a much heavier fall of snow at Mill City and also that the mercury was a bit lower but due to the foresight of the school management in keeping the school furnaces going day and night the pipes were prevented from freezing and a comfortable temperature was maintained in the school rooms.

After an illness of several days, Norbert Hirsekeron, 10 months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hirsekeron, 1345 D street, died at the family home Friday evening. The funeral will be held at the chapel of the W. T. Rigdon company Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in City View cemetery.

Emphasis on the fact that the stores in the city will maintain the usual closing hours during the holiday season—close at 6 during the week and at 5 o'clock Saturday—is being made by the Business Men's League. The stores will close at 4 o'clock Christmas eve.

One of the biggest fines ever imposed by Police Judge Race for being drunk and disorderly was assessed from Ray Jones Saturday afternoon. Jones was arrested in a local restaurant after he had created a disturbance by liquor inspired roudyism. M. D. Wynn, also said to have been drinking, was arrested with Jones, but was released by Judge Race.

Herbert S. Nunn, state highway engineer, and R. E. Klein, secretary of the state highway commission, returned this morning after an absence of two weeks in the east during which he attended the convention of the National association of highway commissioners and engineers at Louisville, Ky., and visited Washington, and New York city on business connected with highway work. Oregon and the west fared exceedingly well at the national convention, they state, and express confidence in even more generous federal aid in road construction work in this section in the future than has been accorded in the past.
