

LOYD GEORGE'S PLANS FOR IRELAND WINS NORTHCLIFFE PRAISE

By Ed L. Keen
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)
London, Dec. 24.—Some political observers today saw in the unanimous laudatory attitude assumed by the Northcliffe press toward Premier Lloyd George's Irish proposal a possible approach between the great publisher and the statesman.

Both the London Times and Mail, leading Northcliffe publications, were profuse in their praise of the premier's plan. Heretofore these newspapers have been bitter in their attacks upon the premier, following Northcliffe's break with him during the peace conference.

Evening papers yesterday continued the shower of praise which has been heaped upon the premier.

Lloyd-George's proposal gives the world an example of British statesmanship, the Evening Globe declared, while the Westminster Gazette said no American could condemn it fairly.

Put It Up to Ireland.
"The scheme puts Ireland's fate in Irish hands," the Evening Standard asserted, while the usually hostile Star said the premier clearly had one eye on American opinion. It compared the taxation powers with those of state legislatures in the United States justifying the divisions of Ireland by the precedent in the United States in the division of Virginia and West Virginia. "If the premier's plan fails to work," the Star asserted, "we will say to the American people we've given the Irish the same powers of self government as possessed by the states of the Union and they've rejected them. It will be difficult to keep up the anti-British campaign in the United States if that happens. No doubt that was part of the calculations of that master strategist—Lloyd-George."

Parliament adjourned late yesterday until February, after the lord chancellor had read the king's message.

King Upon Peace Efforts.
King George declared relations between the allies were happy and beneficial toward all. He expressed gratitude at the success of the Paris conference, but regret at the "unhappy position" of Russia, where, he said, there was no immediate prospect of a constitutional government upon which permanent prosperity depends.

The king's statement that "the task of remedying the grave economic position of a large part of Europe" was too big for one nation was considered significant, in view of the veiled appeal for aid from the United States, which have been made repeatedly.

He said Great Britain would "gladly co-operate with other governments."
The high cost of living is receiving the government's constant consideration, King George concluded.

Mrs. V. Stapp Has Gained 30 Pounds

San Francisco Woman Hadn't Seen a Well Day in Twenty Five Years

"It's the honest truth, I hadn't seen a well day in twenty five years until I started taking Tanlac but now all my troubles are gone and I feel like a young girl again," said Mrs. Virginia Stapp, of 185 Valencia St., San Francisco, Cal.

"For the past twenty five years I have been in such miserable health," continued Mrs. Stapp, "that I was beginning to think I would have to be content and bear my troubles as long as I lived. I had almost no appetite at all and when I managed to eat a few bites I couldn't digest it and it would make me deathly sick, and as I could get no strength or nourishment I fell off twenty five pounds in weight. I got so faint and dizzy at times that I would have to sit down and wait till the attacks passed over. For the past twenty years I hardly knew what it was to be without a headache and I had terrible pains across my kidneys. All my life I have been constipated and every day for years I have had to take a laxative, and my tongue was always coated and I had a bad taste in my mouth all the time. Night after night I have lain in bed rolling and tossing for hours unable to get a wink of sleep and of mornings I felt so bad I could hardly get up.

"The statements in the papers about Tanlac seemed so sincere that I made up my mind to give it a trial but as every thing else I had taken for twenty five years had failed to help me I had little faith in Tanlac. But, sir, it began to help me so quick that it was no time before I had changed my mind about it and now I think it is the greatest medicine I have ever heard of in my life. I can hardly realize what a wonderful change has come over me. Why, I am able to eat just anything I please, with no bad effects in the least, and I have actually gained thirty pounds in weight. I haven't had a headache or dizzy spell in so long that I have almost forgotten about them and the pains in my back have left me entirely. My constipated condition has been relieved and my tongue is never coated and I don't have that bad er taste in my mouth any more. I sleep nine to ten hours every night, can do my housework with ease, and I just feel fine all the time with this new life and energy about me. I never lose a single opportunity to praise Tanlac, for it has certainly been the greatest blessing of my life."

Old Age Deferred

"A woman is as old as she looks, and a man is as old as he feels, is a familiar saying that is full of meaning nowadays. Women of all ages dress young, and men are active as long as strength and vitality will permit; but when vitality gets low and elderly people lack energy there is nothing that will increase the appetite, promote sleep, vim and vitality so surely and quickly as Vinol, the cod liver and iron tonic without oil—in fact, most druggists have such confidence in it that they sell it on a guarantee. "It is not unusual for a good sized living room nowadays to have three or four attractive lamps that are a distinct feature of the room. There will be the big lamp on the main table with a wood, metal or pottery base and a large silk or parchment shade. Then there will be a smaller lamp for the desk or small table—also a standing or tall floor lamp near the piano and possibly a "bridge" lamp or just a comfy reading lamp along side Father's chair. If the lamps have been carefully selected with an eye to the furnishings of the room and to each other, when lighted they will present a most harmonious and attractive ensemble, both from the room itself and from the street."
