dozen stories of the details of the fight were being circulated today. There were strong indications it was not any attempt by radicals to kill Viscount French, but probably a mis-take caused by the activities of over zealous guards.

Attack is at Night According to the story obtained at vice regal lodge, shots were heard near the home of Lord French and Lieutenant Boast, who was the lord licutenant's guest, rushed out with two men to investigate. While pro-ceeding through the inky darkness of the grounds near Phoenix Park they suddenly came up a number of men and firing started. Boast and one of the civilians fell dead. The remaining civilians fied through the shrubbery

Police later arrested four civilians near the vice regal gates, but these men were said today to have been unarmed. No weapon was found on the dead civilian whose name has been given as Laurence Carey or Kennedy, it is said. He wore military puttees and civilian ciothing. His head was bandaged.

17 Under Arrest.

New York, Dec. 28.—Seventeen men with the "blind death," which already had claimed more than 100 victims of wood alcohol poisoning since Christmas.

Five of the arrests were made here: six in New Haven, Conn.; three in Chicopee, Mass.; two in Holyoke, Mass., and one in Thompsonville, Conn.

A number of guests were in the vice regal lodge when the shooting occurred. Women were panic stricken believing it was an attack in force on Prench's home. Officers hurriedly prepared to defend the lodge, fearing the shooting on the grounds was a ruse to draw the guard away so the main body of attackers could reach the lord lieutenant.

Following are the reported casual- ler of Portland.

Returning from a dance at one o'clock Sunday morning Stanley Laison drove an auto, belonging to Holley, into a freight train standing across State street on 12th. There is an unconfirmed report that there were four others in the auto with Laison, who escaped without injury. Laison's right femur was broken in the middle, the bone protruding about three inches, and the left femur was broken just above the knee. He was reported resting easily at the Willamette Sanatarium Monday morning, and that ampulations at the same place the accidents occurred early in the morning. The Clark auto was overturned, Mrs. Clark was thrown out, sustaining a broken collar bone. Both machines were badly damaged.

Second Car Crashes,

As Laison was being drasged from under the freight train Alfred Muller, whom police learn resides in Portland, drove his auto from the opposite side directly into the train. The auto was wrecked. No one was reported injured. Both of these accidents are believed to have been caused by the inability of the drivers to see the train through the dense fog. The first redameter the axie. This occurred after one o'clock Sunday morning at Auburn dance hall, east of Salem.

Case Finally Resumed.

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 29—Although jail attaches insisted Harry S. New was near collapse this morning, his trial was resume shortly after 10 o'clock.

Opening of the trial was delayed ten minutes by New's failure to appear in court. When he did appear he scemes but little more tired or haggard than on previous days. He spoke to his mother as he came into court.

Attorneys said his condition is being watched closely and future action depends on developments.

Albert Nathan. a newspaperman, was the first witness called, and attorneys immediately became engaged in a lengthy argument asto whether Nathan was competent to testify as to New's sanity or insanity.

The court finally had Nathan's testimony postponed until this afternoon.

Jail attaches said this morning when they caled New they found his mind was apparently a blank. He didn't know where he was what he should do on gettting out of bed or that he was on trial for murder, they said.

Physicians were called and pronounce his condition serious.

Shortly after 8 o'clock plans were set afoot to summon a medical inquiry under jurisdiction of the court to determine his exact condition and decide whether the trial should proceed.
