APPRECIATION

With the beginning of the New Year 1920 it is fitting that we should once again come with a message brimful of human understanding and appreciation of what the old year meant to us and sounding a note of hope for the future.

It is gratifying to review the past and note the satisfactory progress we have made--the old associations and customers more closely welded to our service; the pleasure of newer connections we have formed.

And as we face 1920 our foremost thoughts and energies are centered on the one supreme principal of greater service.

We thank you for your generous patronage, co-operation and confidence of the past, and hope to merit a continuance of the same in the future.

With these thoughts in mind, we wish you
