

MERCHANTS ASKED TO AID IN MAKING OREGON GOODS SHOW

All merchants in Salem, handling Oregon made goods, are asked by the committee in charge of the Home Products Week here, to send the firm name, address, and name of the goods they handle, to the Commercial club not later than Saturday evening. This is explained as one of the first steps toward staging the Home Products week in the city. Home products are secured arrangements will be made with the manufacturers to assist in setting up displays during this week. Home products week will be held beginning January 19 and will run through January 24. All Salem is urged during this week to use Oregon made goods; and, possibly, all Oregon made goods; and, possibly, all Oregon made goods.

STUDENTS TO TAKE COURSE IN SUNDAY SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

Parks, and "The principles of teaching," will be taught from "Learning and teaching," Snyder and White, by Prof. J. T. Matthews.

RIVER FILLED WITH ICE AT THE DALLES

The Dalles, Or., Jan. 9.—Huge ice cakes were floating down the Columbia river past The Dalles today, of a size to menace navigation. The temperature yesterday began dropping rapidly and every indication was that The Dalles would soon be fighting through another severe cold snap. The wind was continuing from the northwest with snow in prospect.

SPOKANE HOTEL ROBBED

Spokane, Wn., Jan. 9.—Theft of jewelry and money to an estimated value of $1100 from a downtown hotel early today was reported to the police. Miss Cloe Starr, proprietor of the hotel, was the principal loser, according to her story to the police.

BIG TRANSPORT BADLY DAMAGED BY FLAMES

New York, Jan. 9.—Damage to the American line steamer St. Louis which burned at a Hoboken shipyard last night, was estimated at $1,000,000 early today. The interior of the ship was wrecked and her plates badly warped. The origin of the fire is not known. The St. Louis was being refitted as a passenger steamer after service as the transport Louisville during the war. Launched at the Cramps shipyard in Philadelphia in 1894 and christened by Mrs. Grover Cleveland, she was the first passenger vessel to be built in this country in more than 20 years. The craft at that time was third largest in existence and was the fastest. She and her sister craft, the St. Paul, launched the following year, were used as auxiliary cruisers during the Spanish-American war. The St. Paul capsized at her pier here during the war. The St. Louis brought home so many French wives of American soldiers in her later days as a transport that navy men called her the "bridal ship."

SOCIALISTS WARNED TO GO EASY BY LENINE

Rome, Thursday, Jan. 8.—The Epoca says that Nicolai Lenine has written another letter to the directors of the socialist party imploring that not to precipitate any revolutionary movement which in the present conditions would have no probability of success. Lenine advises that the revolution in Italy now would have a grave repercussion in the Russian soviet republic which is about to negotiate with the bourgeois powers for the acknowledgement of the present state of affairs in Russia and also for essential economic agreements. All this would be rejected, says Lenine, if another revolution occurred in Italy, because with the eventual spread of bolshevism throughout Europe, in a spirit of preservation the states still immune from bolshevism would hermetically close themselves against infection and the soviet republic destined to become a type for the future, would not have time to strengthen itself sufficiently to become vital.

Worth Weight In Gold, He Asserts

Howard Gains Fourteen Pounds Taking Tanlac and Lays Cane Aside

"I've gained fourteen pounds in six weeks taking Tanlac and now I'm a well man," said Henry S. Howard, a well known farmer and stock raiser of King Hill, Idaho. "I had suffered from rheumatism and indigestion twelve years," he continued, "and could hardly eat a thing because everything went against me and I had no appetite. Every joint in me was swollen with rheumatism and hurt so I could hardly bear to be touched. I was in such a bad fix I couldn't work and had to use a walking stick to get along. The first bottle of Tanlac made a great change in my feelings, my rheumatism soon left me and I threw my stick aside, for now I can walk as well as anybody. "And eat!—why, I just can't get enough and I feel like I could do as much work as I ever could. Tanlac is worth its weight in gold, and it has convinced me that there's at least one medicine that will do what they say it will and I want to do my part in letting everybody know about it." Tanlac is sold in Salem by Hubbard Drug Store, in Hubbard by Hubbard Drug Co., in Mt. Angel by Ben Gooch, in Gervais by John Kelly, in Turner by H. P. Cernellus, in Woodburn by Lyman H. Shorey, in Silverton by Geo. A. Steinhilber, in Gates by Mrs. J. P. McCurdy, in Stayton by C. A. Beauchamp, in Aurora by Aurora Drug Store, in St. Paul by Groceries Drug Store Co., in Donald by M. W. DR. MENDELSONN RESUMES PRACTICE

After a year's absence, Dr. M. Y. Mendelsohn, well known in Salem because of his 19 years' practice here as an eye specialist, has re-opened offices in this city, resuming an extensive practice interrupted by ill health. After traveling extensively, Dr. Mendelsohn stated yesterday that he was glad to be in Salem again. "It's just like being welcomed at the old home after a long absence," said Dr. Mendelsohn. "Absence causes a person to realize, how many people recognize and take a friendly interest in you, when friendship has not been furthered by personal acquaintance." Dr. Mendelsohn located in Salem a few years after the San Francisco earthquake in which disaster his office establishment, representing 23 years' practice in the bay city was a total loss. Dr. Mendelsohn came to Oregon, three days after the fire and has been what he terms "an Oregonian by adoption" since that time. Dr. Mendelsohn states that he intends to make his permanent home in Salem.

Women Told Boycott Will Not Bring Prices Down

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 8.—Washington women, attending a conference here today to consider means of battling down the high cost of living, found little comfort in the remarks of the morning speakers. S. I. Miller, dean of the school of business administration of the University of Washington, declared the boycott would not bring prices down; B. C. Beck, representing a big department store, predicted prices would go higher and T. R. Kinsey, secretary of the Seattle Retail Grocers' association charged the government's campaign against high prices is based on politics. The conference was called by United States District Attorney R. C. Saunders.

SUNDAY

Doctor S. J. Reid the Irish Artist, Author and Lecturer, speaks at 11 a. m. on THE RELIGION OF MONKEYS; 7:30 p. m. SLEEPING IN CHURCH.

And now for the wonderful PROGRAM of Troy's; no mystery about it, and no RESERVATIONS like the league of nations has tied to it now, but real class, developed from that celebrated, elaborated, elevated choir of 85 or 90.

THE BIG MALE CHORUS in the evening and TROY with SOLOS, Negro melodies, etc., wherever they fit in, and they always seem to fit, regardless of when or where.

Now, here comes a real novelty feature, the COLLECTION, taken up regular Southern style. I'll tell you about it. Down South in the NEGRO CHURCHES they place the collection basket on a table in front, have two Negro deacons at each end to guard; then the folks pass around with their money and the two deacons watch to see that they don't take out more than they put in.

Troy is having difficulty to get two deacons to act, says they should be honest men; strange he hasn't said a word to me? Come and see TWO HONEST BAPTISTS. Who are they? BAPTIST CHURCH CORNER LIBERTY AND MARION STREETS

THE HOME OF STANDARD MERCHANDISE In this age of substitution it is a treat to be able to say honestly and truthfully that we sell standard merchandise only. We are rapidly approaching our desires, as we dispose of off brands, we never replace them. Our 1919 business was much greater than we expected, which goes to prove that our method of merchandising must be giving satisfaction. If our merchandise should not give satisfaction, return it to us for adjustment.
