scrappy, were plying award and worldbitthe and happy, if ever that herce war were done. We'd all get busy at our britting, with quiet minds and hearts serone, and when arrived the time for quitting, we'd burn a little graceline. To old time ways in peace returning, we'd soon forget the fields of sure, and by the lamp, at evening borning, we'd delve again in helpful ore. So far our hopes have all been reaken, and he has reigned where lave should dwell; the words of hatred will are spoken, and still the cruzed disturbers yell. But now, methicks, clouds are breaking, this new soon we'll all be waking to peace on earth, good will to men. We've had enough of wild emotions that shook and larred us to the soul, of elequence is frothing oceans, that here us to no useful goal. So let us one and all determine to be as huppy as we can avoid valu strife, forget the German.

When exercise and light diet fail it will be necessary to resort to artificial means. Strong physics and cathartics, however, re not advisable for elderly people. They act too powerfully and a feeling of weakness results. What is needed is a laxative containing effective but mild This is best found in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin which is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. It acts gently and without griping, and used a few days will train the digestive organs to do their work naturally again without other aid.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been on the market since 1892 and was the private formula of Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who is himself past 80 years of age and still active in his profession. It can be bought at any drug store and one bottle is enough to last even a large family many months. It is a trustworthy preparation.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it. If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 512 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.
