

BOY SCOUTS PLAN BIG CELEBRATION OF ANNIVERSARY

With an invitation to every man, woman and child in the United States to show for one week at least an impulse of doing a good turn daily, 470,000 members of the Boy Scouts of America are developing plans to make the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the scout movement, the week of February 8th to 14th, the most p. retentious program of democratic good feeling and genuine Americanism the nation has witnessed.

Through some channel every person in the land will be asked to assist this campaign of national unselfishness by pledging themselves to do for the period that marks the Boy Scout birthday, at least one good turn, an act of disinterested kindness, to some one each day.

Program Here Planned.
Throughout the city of Salem, wherever troops of Scouts are organized, programs of definite service and celebration are planned, and it is the hope of Scout officials that the response to the invitation to every citizen and every child to do a good turn will be so universal as to make every part of the community feel the definite benefit that will inevitably result from this nation-wide campaign of mutual helpfulness.

Efforts are being made to have every church service for Sunday, February 8th, devoted to the "doctrine of the good turn," and in co-operation with church officials, good turn services are being planned for church of all denominations everywhere.

Scouts to Feast.
Thursday, February 12th, will be the date set for the great community good turn of Salem Scouts, which will be followed by the annual anniversary banquet to be held in the armory. All Scouts, Scout officials and members of the council will be invited to partake of this feast.

On Sunday evening, February 8th, at 8:15 o'clock, Scouts of every city and every village throughout the United States will unite in a renewal of their Scout oath, and wherever he may be at that hour and time, every one of the 470,000 members of the Boy Scouts of America will stand at Scout salute, and take anew his obligation to do his best to do his duty to God and his country and obey the Scout law; to help other people at all times, and to keep himself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

It will be a week of weeks—and the nation will be made of Boy Scouts.

IRISH EVANGELIST COMES HERE SUNDAY

JOHN W. TROY

A series of evangelistic meetings will open at the First Baptist church, Sunday, January 11, under the direction of R. J. Reid of Belfast, Ireland. Dr. Reid is a preacher, lecturer and author, and is well known in both countries. He is a graduate of the Royal university of Ireland, and studied for the ministry at the Presbyterian Assembly college in Belfast. It was through his writings as editor of the Irish Baptist magazine that he is considered an authority on John Bunyan and delivered an address on the author of "Pilgrim's Progress" at the Palacios convention in Texas. He was for a while associate pastor to Reverend W. B. Riley of the First Baptist church of Minneapolis, one of the largest in America.

Dr. Reid is accompanied by John W. Troy of Chicago, a graduate of the music department of the Moody Bible Institute. He is the possessor of a splendid tenor voice, and has been associated with some of the leading evangelists in the country.

Charles Mornhinweg, who was with the army of occupation on the Rhine, has just returned to his home bringing a collection of photos taken from hilltops and clouds.

CAPACITY HOUSE TO HEAR APOLLO CLUB CONCERT, BELIEF

In point of attendance, the Apollo club concert on next Tuesday night bids fair to draw a capacity house, which, for the armory will mean about 1400 people. The associate membership list in itself represents a patronage of nearly 1000 people. For several very important reasons the board of directors of the Apollo club has decided to offer to the general public seven hundred seats after the reservations of the associate members have been made. Foremost among these reasons are: that as many people as possible be given an opportunity to enjoy the splendid program; that the acoustic qualities of the armory will undoubtedly be bettered with a full house and, that the music-loving people of the city may become more generally familiar with the worth and work of such an organization as the Apollo club. Accordingly it is announced that the box office at the armory will be open for sale of seats to the general public on and after Monday, January 12, at 2 o'clock a. m.

The active or singing membership of the club for this season is 31 voices as follows:

First tenor—C. N. Chambers, C. A. Davidson, Frank DeWitt, J. Frank Hughes, J. D. Humphreys, Walter T. Jenks, Lyman McDonald, William McGilchrist, Lowell I. Will.

Second tenor—H. N. Aldrich, H. W. Brown, Emil Carlson, Ivan G. Martin, J. H. Marrian, Albert H. Miller, Richard Robertson, L. H. Compton, William Perlich.

First bass—R. D. Barton, W. H. Burghardt, Albert H. Gills, L. P. Gilmore, A. A. Gueffroy, Ralph H. Jones. Second bass—F. S. Barton, Edward Bosa, Frank G. Deckabach, F. D. Eason, Dan Langenburg, Claude Stevenson, E. L. Williams.

Conductor—John W. Todd. Accompanist—Miss Dorothy Pearce. An orchestra of nine pieces will be used to augment the work of the chorus in several of the big numbers on the program.

John Hand, the new American tenor, to whom is apportioned a good share of the concert, is the recipient of big ovations, according to press notices covering his concerts of this season, and it is not doubted but that his Salem audience will demand of him a much greater share of his large repertoire than the numbers under which his name will appear on the evening's program.

For associate members of the Apollo club, seat reservations will be made beginning tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock

Former Salem Blacksmith Passes Away in Tacoma

William F. R. Smith, formerly of Salem where he for many years conducted a blacksmith shop, died Sunday in Tacoma, Wash., after a long illness. He was 57 years old. Entombment was in the Tacoma mausoleum.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie P. Smith, and by four sisters, Mrs. Murray of Silverton; Mrs. Bones of Carlton; Mrs. Boydston, of Portland, and Mrs. Rennington, of The Dalles. Mr. Smith was proprietor of the Fraser hotel, South Tacoma. He was affiliated with the Woodmen of the World, Camp No. 118, and of the Women of Woodcraft, and was a member of the Christian church.
