THE beautiful home of Mrs. H. W. Meyers was the scene of the meeting of the Bridge Luncheon club last Wednesday. The holiday spirit prevailed in the attractive decorations of the house, and in the pretty table appointments. Red shaded, candles were used as the means of illumination were used as the 1 o'clock luncheon. The afternoon was pleasantly passed with the usual diversion of the club. Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner was guest of honor, and Lee Steiner was requested. Mrs. Van Mrs. Milton Meyers is returning to California. The next meeting will be held on January 23, at the Marion hotel for which Mrs. Walter McDougall will be hostess.

How pageantry and the drama may play the role of fairy godmother to New World democracy, is told by Miss Hazel MacKaye, a daughter of Steele MacKaye and sister of the poet, Percy MacKaye, who is the director of pageantry for the Y. W. C. A.

And no one is more fitted than Miss MacKaye to talk on this subject. She was one of the first persons in the United States to take up pageantry, and develop it as an art or profession, as it has really come to her. Before going into pageantry, in which field she has sixteen spectacles to her credit, Miss MacKaye was on the stage. She played in three of her brother's successes and was in some Broadway productions. Her pageants have been on a variety of subjects. She devoted two years to the mission pageant, "Darkness and Light." Her suffrage allegory was given at the time of President Wilson's first inauguration, on the steps of the United States treasury. She also produced the jubilee pageant for the Y. W. C. A. three years ago, and was associated with both productions of "Caliban" in New York and Boston. Miss MacKaye is now director of pageantry and the drama of the Y. W. C. A. and during the United War Work campaign she was chosen to prepare a special feature bulletin for the whole country in which pageantry had a large share.

A group of violin students, a part of Miss Elizabeth Levy's ensemble club, formed a box party Wednesday night to hear the Cherniavsky trio at the opera house. They were chaperoned by their teacher, Miss Levy. After the concert they had the pleasure of meeting the artists, who received them cordially. Leo Cherniavsky, the violinist, gave them many words of encouragement. Later in the evening the party proceeded to the rose room of the Spa, where they were the guests of Miss Levy for refreshments. Seated at the table were the Misses Frances Purdy, Maurine Larson, Olive Lester, Frances Tone, Ethel Heppner, Winona Smith, Donnie Smith, Gwendolyn Jarmon, Angela Suddis, Kathleen Smith, Mildred Fugh, Geneva Sundin, and Mrs. Paul Woodward, Bjorn Gaveholt, Clyde Madsen, John Creech, Victor Johnson and Miss Levy. Additional guests were Mrs. C. W. Creech, Mrs. S. Levy, Miss Lena Belle Tartar and Miss Margaret Fisher.

The Women's Relief Corp. aid society met at the home of Mrs. Helen Southwick for their usual meeting, and election of officers. Thursday afternoon. The routine of business was followed by a social hour and the serving of a delicious lunch. Little Miss Helen Cox received the guests, and Mrs. Southwick was assisted in serving by her daughters, Mrs. R. A. Cox and Mrs. Rolla Southwick. Assistant hostesses were Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mrs. Elizabeth Adair, Mrs. Anne Simmons, Mrs. Rose Hagedorn, Mrs. Julia Lytle, Mrs. Mary M. Entree, and Mrs. LaMonte Clark.

The officers elected for the ensuing term were Mrs. Lizzie Smith, president; Mrs. Laura McAdams, vice-president; Mrs. Summerville, secretary; Mrs. Mary Cook, treasurer. The committee on soliciting work: Mrs. F. A. Thompson, chairman; Mrs. Mary Howard and Mrs. Prudence Bouffleur.

Mrs. George Catlauch, who has been the house guest of Mrs. F. L. Griffith during the holidays, left yesterday for her home in Eastern Oregon. She was accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. Griffith who is remaining in the metropolis for a several days visit with friends.

WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE
May Pass the Critical Period Safely and Comfortably by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Summit, N. J. — "I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound during Change of Life and I think it is a good remedy in such a condition. I could not digest my food and had much pain and burning in my stomach after meals. I could not sleep, had headache, and worst of all were the hot flashes. I saw in the papers about a Vegetable Compound so I tried it. Now I feel all right and can work better. You have my permission to publish this letter."
— VICTORIA KOEHL, 21 Oak Ridge Ave., Summit, N. J.

If you have warning symptoms such as a sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headache, backache, dizziness, nervousness, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, and general discomfort, get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and begin taking the medicine at once. We know it will help you as it did Mrs. Koeppl.

Chadwick chapter No. 37, Order of the Eastern Star, at the regular meeting [Tuesday evening January 6th, initiated three candidates and installed the officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. Estella Smith and Rachel Reader as installing officer and marshal respectively, conducted the installation ceremony.

Following are the officers who were installed: Y. E. Kuhn, worthy patron; Nonnie Hauser, associate patron; Ida N. Babcock, secretary; Mary Chadwick, treasurer; Ida Niles, conductress; Emma Brown, associate conductress; Miriam Burnett, chaplain; Margaret Montgomery, marshal; Mollie Styles, organist; Addie Pettoya, Adah; Theresa Fowle, Ruth; Gusale Niles, Esther; Anna Kantner, Martha; Sarah Farmer, Electa; Amanda Kunta, worden; Henry Shoemaker, sentinel. Owing to the illness of her father Hazel Bishop could not be installed as worthy patron.

The chapter was pleased to have as a guest for the evening Mrs. Rae E. Bates, grand marshal of the grand chapter of Oregon.

The beautiful installation ceremony of the order was very creditably given by Mrs. Estella Smith after which the retiring officers presented her with a beautiful silver cake basket.

A social hour was enjoyed during which cake and coffee were served by the officers.

Miss Bertha R. Smith and William Arthur Sampson were united in marriage January 4, at the Leslie Methodist parsonage by Rev. H. N. Aldrich at 1:30 p. m. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents—only immediate relatives being present. Mrs. Sampson is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Smith of this city and has been employed for the past two years at the Peerless Bakery. Mr. Sampson is a prominent business man of this city where he is connected with the firm of Sampson Bros. The young couple left on the 4 o'clock Oregon Electric for a short honeymoon to Portland, Seattle and northern points. They will reside in Salem.

The younger piano students of Mrs. Walter Denton were presented in private recital last night at the Denton home, 148 North 12th street. Each child was enthusiastically received, from the little ones who were making their bow for the first time, to the more advanced pupils, with their evidences of perfect training. The Denton residence was prettily decorated with ferns and greenery, for the occasion. Mrs. Milton Meyers received the guests and assisted Mrs. Denton during the recital and at the informal social gathering that followed.

Mr. and Mrs. F. R. DuRette were the guests of honor at a surprise party Tuesday night at their country home near Gervais. The occasion was their wedding anniversary. A pleasant evening was spent with music and games, "500" being the chief diversion. At midnight a delightful luncheon was served, the principal feature of which was a huge wedding cake. Freeman Marthaler drew the good luck coin, Merle DuRette the thimble and ring, and Nellie Marthaler, the button. About thirty-five guests were present.

What promises to be one of the gayest events of the coming week, is the Tillicum club dance at the Moose hall next Tuesday night. The affair will be in the form of a masquerade, and elaborate preparations are under way to make it a notable success. An excellent four-piece orchestra has been engaged, and the hall will be fittingly decorated for the occasion. The Tillicum club is composed of a number of prominent Salemites, and at present its personnel consists of 86 persons.

Mrs. Lola S. Lynch, of the Washington Industrial school for Girls was guest of honor at a pretty social gathering, Sunday, when her daughter, Mrs. John Graber, entertained in her honor with a family dinner. A large basket of fruit was used effectively as a centerpiece for the handsomely appointed table at which covers were laid for Mrs. Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mapes, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Browning, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pabst, Kenneth Stout of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Graber.

The dinner party at which Mrs. Charles Wilson presided Monday in honor of her son Kenneth, opened the week's social activities. A large birthday cake centered the table. Tall candles with crimson shades were the sole means of lighting used. Covers were laid for Rowland Rhinehart, Harold Millard, Archie Holt, Paul Staley, Amel Eoff, John Griffith, Frank Chapman, Milton Steinerand, William Ashby.

Mrs. Ray Burton had as her house guest during the week, her sister, Mrs. Alfred Lunn. Mrs. Lunn is well known in the city, having made her home here until the past four years. Since leaving Salem she has made her home in British Columbia. She will make her future home in Corvallis where her husband has accepted a position in the Oregon Agricultural college.

Mrs. T. J. Cronise entertained with a birthday dinner party Sunday, complimenting her son, Ralph Cronise, editor of the Albany Democrat, who was the house guest of his parents during the holidays. The prettily appointed table was centered with a huge bowl of carnations and covers were laid for 10 guests. Mr. and Mrs. Cronise returned to Albany Sunday evening.

At a pupils' recital to be given by Miss Elma Weller at the First Presbyterian church Monday, January 12, Mrs. Raymond Boyd has kindly consented to sing. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd of Balboa, Canal Zone, are now visiting Mrs. Boyd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Raymond, of this city. Mrs. Boyd's girlhood days were passed in Salem and her many friends who remember her as a very sweet singer, will be delighted to hear her again.

An interesting visitor in Salt next week will be Mrs. Elsie Woods who will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Effie Young, 495 North Commercial street, during a brief visit in the city. Mrs. Woods opens an engagement at the Hippodrome theatre in Portland the first of the week, and while en route from there to San Francisco will stop in Salem to visit her mother and sisters.

Miss Marie Marshall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Marshall has gone to Berkeley where she will enter the University of California as a student.

The Women's union of the First Congregational church were entertained at the home of Mrs. S. S. East, 1320 Court street, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Alice H. Dodd was in charge of the meeting and the devotional services were led by Mrs. James Elvin, assistant hostesses were Mrs. E. Cooke Patton and Mrs. L. M. Ross.

Mrs. W. M. Smith, 1300 North 18th street, is entertaining as her guest over the week end, her nephew, Charles Gordon, of Carson, Washington.

The Monday Night Dancing club will hold their regular monthly dance Monday evening.

Shortage Of Hay Starving Horses; Many Stray To Town

Salmon, Idaho, Jan. 9.—Scarcity of absolute want of hay is causing neglect of horses all over Lemhi county and many of the range horses, usually pastured or fed during winter are starving to death. Even stockmen having hay feel that they cannot afford to feed the horses and nobody is willing to take them for the price of the feed bill. Numbers of the suffering animals have strayed into town, where they have pawed up the lawns and ruffled the best they could to obtain such straw as could be found.

The British museum has an almanac published in the time of Ramees the Great.

Women Forced To Take Idle Men's Work In Portland

Portland, Or., Jan. 9.—Scores of women whose husbands are out of employment are seeking temporary work through the women's department of the municipal free employment bureau, according to an appeal issued today by Mrs. Marian Gilbert, in charge. During the month of December 789 men were furnished with work through the men's department. The women's department placed 77 women on domestic work, nine as chambermaids, three clerks, two cooks, one factory worker, seven housekeepers, six kitchen workers, six sales clerks, one nurse and four waitresses.
