

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

Jan. 13.—Apollo Club Concert at armory.
 Jan. 12.—Iowa meeting at office of Mrs. Myra Shank, city hall, 7:30.
 Jan. 15.—Professional and Business Women's club, Y.
 W. C. A. at 7:30.
 Jan. 14.—Swimming classes resume at Y. M. C. A.
 Jan. 14.—Six o'clock club meeting in lecture room of First M. E. church.
 Jan. 14.—Regular Monthly Open Forum meeting Commercial club, 8 p. m.
 Jan. 15.—Marion county children's bureau clinic. Commercial club auditorium 2 p. m.
 Jan. 16.—American Legion dance at armory.
 Jan. 17.—Home Products and Thrift week.
 Jan. 19.—Business men's luncheon at Commercial club.
 Jan. 19.—Sunday school training course at library.
 Jan. 19.—Sixth Annual Marion County Corn Show. Valley Motor Co. tractor department, State and Front streets.

Love, watchmaker, Jeweler, Salem.
 Dance Wednesday night Moose hall, 12*

R. H. Bader of Curry county is in Salem, during the legislative session.
 C. N. Needham about Baby Chicks, 555 State St. Phone 400.

Tom Clark, editor of the Stayton Mail, was a business visitor in Salem Monday.
 Dance Wednesday night Moose hall, 12*

J. A. Crane of Portland, was a business visitor in Salem Tuesday.
 Y. W. C. A. chicken dinner Wednesday evening, Jan. 14, 5 to 7 p. m. 75c a plate.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burnside of Seattle are the guests of friends in Salem for a few days.
 Taxi service—New Mitchell car, Phone 109, Smith's cigar store, 12

Judge Percy Kelly of Albany is in Salem on official business.
 Dance Wednesday night Moose hall, 12*

The W. A. M. S. club will meet Tuesday night at the home of Miss Maude M. Miller, 792 North 16th street.
 1920 Calendars for practical use. Homer H. Smith, McCornack bldg.

Mrs. N. T. Bellier will leave Wednesday for Los Angeles, Cal., where she will visit at the home of her uncle Clark Wicks.
 Webster Holmes, Tillamook attorney, is in Salem during the special legislative session.

Y. W. C. A. chicken dinner Wednesday evening, Jan. 14, 5 to 7 p. m. 75c a plate.
 Raleigh Bushby, of Turner, left Salem Sunday evening for Woodland, California, for a visit of indefinite length.

Repairs to the swimming tank having been completed all swimming classes will be resumed at the Y. M. C. A., according to an announcement of Secretary James Elvin Tuesday.
 Rigdon company, leading funeral directors Superior service. Moderate prices.

William Zosel of Route 4, is in California on a combined business and pleasure trip. He reports ideal weather in and around San Diego.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Albright have returned from a two months sojourn in California. While there they visited in Stockton, San Francisco, Monterey and Sacramento.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thompson, former residents of Salem, are greeting old friends in the capital city during a brief visit. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson are now residing in Portland.
 Judge Percy R. Kelly went to Albany, Monday afternoon and Judge George G. Binzham will conduct court in department No. 1, during Judge Kelly's absence.

R. H. Carnes and family of Idaho, are sojourning in Salem while looking for a suitable location in the city or in the Willamette valley.
 Dr. T. C. Smith, now residing in Portland but a former Salem physician, spent the week end in Salem, returning to Portland, Monday afternoon.

W. J. Culver, L. M. VanCleave and C. A. Knobb, appraisers of the Carolee Debarco estate, have filed an appraisal valuation of $2105.86 all of which consists of personal property notes and bank deposits.

 Robin D. Day has been appointed guardian of Nicholas Turans, a patient of the state institutions. The guardianship will sanction the payment of certain moneys due Turans from the United States treasury.
 In the estate of Inez J. Grimm, appraisers' report has been filed by William Woifler, F. M. Barrett and W. B. Palmer. Real property in Marion county, valued at $1960 is entered in the valuation.
 The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Art league which was to be held Tuesday evening at the public library has been postponed owing to the Apollo club claiming the date. Announcement of the meeting will be made later.
 D. Wiggins of Salem is in possession of an original patent to land in Palmyra, Lewis county, Missouri, signed by Andrew Jackson, Oct. 21, 1835, made out to Charles O. Sanford. The land was purchased from the Sanford heirs by Mr. Wiggins' grandfather.
 James Alfred Stromdahl, 37, a resident of Silverton, filed his declaration of citizenship with County Clerk Boyer, Monday. Mr. Stromdahl was born in Grasmyre, Sweden, and arrived in the United States February 26, 1903.
 Final hearing in the estate of Susan Will was held in Judge Bushby's court Monday. The final report of Allen H. Will, executor of the estate, was discharged from his position of trust and the estate was declared settled and closed.
 The Y. W. C. A. swimming classes which were postponed because of the repairing of the tank in the Y. M. C. A. will be resumed Wednesday, January 14 and will be held regularly each Wednesday as in the past.
 The Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist Episcopal church, will hold its quarterly Tea Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. H. Roberts, 1337 North Winter street. All women of the congregation are invited.
 Dan Kellaher, former city commissioner of Portland and ex-state senator, is visiting in Salem during the special session of legislature. While here is the guest of City Treasurer Clyde O. Rice, at his home, 775 Center street.
 Basket ball Wednesday and Thursday, Whitman college vs Willamette university, Salem armory, Jan. 14 and 15, 7:30 p. m. Admission, one night 50c; two nights, 75c. Come and see Salem's first Pacific coast conference game. Tickets on sale at Hauser Bros 11
 Wednesday evening at the armory, the Daughters of Veterans will meet to elect officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president, will preside, and several new members will be initiated. Mrs. Elliott urged all members to attend.
 Mrs. F. W. Wilcox of St. Paul, Minn., will arrive in Portland Saturday, where she will be met by her daughter, Mrs. E. Monroe Gilbert. Together they will pass several days there with friends Mrs. Wilcox will remain here on an indefinite visit with the Gilberts at their attractive suburban place "Irokanzan."
 The funeral of Alfred Slippy, 76, who died at the Old Soldiers' home at Roseburg last Saturday, will be held at the chapel of the Rigdon & Son Undertaking company at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It will be under the auspices of the G. A. R., of which Mr. Slippy was a comrade. Burial will be in City View cemetery.
 Notice of petition for guardianship was authorized Monday by Judge W. M. Bushey in county court in the case of Charles A. Johnson and names Amanda A. Johnson as guardian. The proposed guardianship will include property valued at $1700. The court's citation sets January 26, 1920, as the date for hearing matters involved.
 A grocery store, of frame structure, will be built soon on High street, between Lincoln and Superior streets, by W. McLaren. A permit to construct the building was issued Tuesday by City Recorder Race. A dwelling will be built adjoining the store. Cost of building both is estimated at approximately $1800.
 Members of the Baptist Brotherhood of the Baptist church will meet Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock in the church parlors, Marion and Liberty streets, according to an announcement Tuesday morning, Dr. S. J. Reid, Irish evangelist, who is conducting a series of meetings at the church, will be the principal speaker. The public is invited to attend.
 Fear is being felt by farmers near the foothills of the Cascades that coyotes are making their way across the mountains from Eastern Oregon, and like jack rabbits, will become more and more dangerous. They have become exceptionally troublesome this winter, and in several instances have carried off sheep and barnyard fowls. One farmer has lost 50 white leghorn chickens.
 Sam Adolph, owner of the building at 370 State street where the meat market of E. C. Cross & Son is located, was granted a permit yesterday to alter and repair the building. The estimated cost being $5000. An other permit was granted to the C. K. Spaulding company to erect a warehouse between State and Court streets on Front to cost $2500.
 Six hoboes, none of them more than 22 years old, were confined in the city jail over night, and released Tuesday morning. They were taken into custody at the S. P. depot by Patrolman Victor after they had been routed from a freight train by special agents of the railroad company. A campaign against super-cargo passengers" on trains is being conducted by railroad officials with a view of ending the hoboe traffic north and south.

 The funeral for Mrs. Eva Miller, who died Wednesday at her home, 2499 Center street, will be held at the chapel of the Webb & Clough Undertaking company at 2 p. m. Rev. Aldrich will have charge. Burial will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery. Mrs. Miller's son, Joseph P. Miller, and her daughter, Mrs. Bessie Metzger, from Spencer, Nebraska, have arrived here to attend the funeral. Friends of Mrs. Miller are invited to attend.
 Mrs. Roy Bishop and two children of Portland returned home Tuesday, after attending the funeral of Jay A. Bishop, Monday. Chauncey Bishop of Pendleton has also returned home, and C. M. Bishop of California left for Portland where he will attend to business matters. Little Charles Kay Bishop remains in Salem as the guest of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop, during a visit of indefinite length.
 An important meeting of the Salem Six o'clock club will be held from six until eight o'clock Wednesday evening in the lecture room of the First Methodist church. Judge H. L. Benson, of the supreme court will preside and R. A. Booth will address the club on "Good roads and the work of the state highway commission." All men of Salem are invited to attend the meeting. A charge of 40 cents will be made for the supper.
 Seven delegates from the local post Spanish War Veterans, returned to this y from Albany Tuesday morning, after spending the evening Wednesday assisting in the installation of officers at the Albany camp. The "vets" who attended the ceremonies free mbers were: A. Tyner Woolpert, state department commander; Post Commander A. Lee Morelock; A. M. Southwick, Charles Brant, Robert Kurrow, E. J. Raymond and Charles Lisle.
 Police here were co-operating with the sheriff's office Tuesday in a search for a bogus check writer, who, it is believed, has passed at least six spurious checks in this city since Saturday. The checks were all for small amounts. Three of them were passed Saturday on the Capital National bank, and three more were found Tuesday to have been issued. A description of the forger is in the hands of the authorities, they say, and an arrest soon is expected.
 Application for first citizenship papers have been filed by Jacob Tuleja, 600 south 21st street. Mr. Tuleja was born in Brunsberg, Germany, and arrived in the United States from Duver, Germany, in 1876. In filing his declaration yesterday, Mr. Tuleja exhibited first papers taken out nearly 8 years ago, and stated that this is the third time that he has made citizenship application during 40 years residence here. Failure to complete naturalization being due to difficulties experienced in acquiring the English language, Mr. Tuleja explained.

QUALITY BABY CHICKS—
 Leghorns, Reds, Rocks, Minorcas. Prices reasonable. C. N. Needham, 555 State St. Phone 400. 36
 Police Court Jurors For Year Named By Judge Race
 A list of 50 jurors, to serve in police court trials during this year, was announced Tuesday by Police Judge Earl Race. Twelve jurors are called for each trial and six are eliminated in examination. The list follows:
 Lee W. Acheson, W. E. Anderson, J. A. Baker, Jos. Baumgartner, Emil Carlson, William L. Cummins, W. H. Dancy, Alex. Dancy, B. E. Edwards, H. M. Eley, Ivan L. Farmer, James M. Farrel, Fred Gahladorf, Tracy F. Givens, John Hunt, C. S. Hamilton, Homer E. Ingrey, E. Irwin, F. Jaskoski, W. T.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill, Optometrist-Optician, Ladd & Bush Bank Building, Cor. State and Commercial Sts. Phone 625.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill, Optometrist-Optician, Ladd & Bush Bank Building, Cor. State and Commercial Sts. Phone 625.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill, Optometrist-Optician, Ladd & Bush Bank Building, Cor. State and Commercial Sts. Phone 625.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill, Optometrist-Optician, Ladd & Bush Bank Building, Cor. State and Commercial Sts. Phone 625.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill, Optometrist-Optician, Ladd & Bush Bank Building, Cor. State and Commercial Sts. Phone 625.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill, Optometrist-Optician, Ladd & Bush Bank Building, Cor. State and Commercial Sts. Phone 625.

of which consists of personal property notes and bank deposits.
 Robin D. Day has been appointed guardian of Nicholas Turans, a patient of the state institutions. The guardianship will sanction the payment of certain moneys due Turans from the United States treasury.
 In the estate of Inez J. Grimm, appraisers' report has been filed by William Woifler, F. M. Barrett and W. B. Palmer. Real property in Marion county, valued at $1960 is entered in the valuation.
 The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Art league which was to be held Tuesday evening at the public library has been postponed owing to the Apollo club claiming the date. Announcement of the meeting will be made later.
 D. Wiggins of Salem is in possession of an original patent to land in Palmyra, Lewis county, Missouri, signed by Andrew Jackson, Oct. 21, 1835, made out to Charles O. Sanford. The land was purchased from the Sanford heirs by Mr. Wiggins' grandfather.
 James Alfred Stromdahl, 37, a resident of Silverton, filed his declaration of citizenship with County Clerk Boyer, Monday. Mr. Stromdahl was born in Grasmyre, Sweden, and arrived in the United States February 26, 1903.
 Final hearing in the estate of Susan Will was held in Judge Bushby's court Monday. The final report of Allen H. Will, executor of the estate, was discharged from his position of trust and the estate was declared settled and closed.
 The Y. W. C. A. swimming classes which were postponed because of the repairing of the tank in the Y. M. C. A. will be resumed Wednesday, January 14 and will be held regularly each Wednesday as in the past.
 The Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist Episcopal church, will hold its quarterly Tea Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. H. Roberts, 1337 North Winter street. All women of the congregation are invited.
 Dan Kellaher, former city commissioner of Portland and ex-state senator, is visiting in Salem during the special session of legislature. While here is the guest of City Treasurer Clyde O. Rice, at his home, 775 Center street.
 Basket ball Wednesday and Thursday, Whitman college vs Willamette university, Salem armory, Jan. 14 and 15, 7:30 p. m. Admission, one night 50c; two nights, 75c. Come and see Salem's first Pacific coast conference game. Tickets on sale at Hauser Bros 11
 Wednesday evening at the armory, the Daughters of Veterans will meet to elect officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president, will preside, and several new members will be initiated. Mrs. Elliott urged all members to attend.
 Mrs. F. W. Wilcox of St. Paul, Minn., will arrive in Portland Saturday, where she will be met by her daughter, Mrs. E. Monroe Gilbert. Together they will pass several days there with friends Mrs. Wilcox will remain here on an indefinite visit with the Gilberts at their attractive suburban place "Irokanzan."
 The funeral of Alfred Slippy, 76, who died at the Old Soldiers' home at Roseburg last Saturday, will be held at the chapel of the Rigdon & Son Undertaking company at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It will be under the auspices of the G. A. R., of which Mr. Slippy was a comrade. Burial will be in City View cemetery.
 Notice of petition for guardianship was authorized Monday by Judge W. M. Bushey in county court in the case of Charles A. Johnson and names Amanda A. Johnson as guardian. The proposed guardianship will include property valued at $1700. The court's citation sets January 26, 1920, as the date for hearing matters involved.
 A grocery store, of frame structure, will be built soon on High street, between Lincoln and Superior streets, by W. McLaren. A permit to construct the building was issued Tuesday by City Recorder Race. A dwelling will be built adjoining the store. Cost of building both is estimated at approximately $1800.
 Members of the Baptist Brotherhood of the Baptist church will meet Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock in the church parlors, Marion and Liberty streets, according to an announcement Tuesday morning, Dr. S. J. Reid, Irish evangelist, who is conducting a series of meetings at the church, will be the principal speaker. The public is invited to attend.
 Fear is being felt by farmers near the foothills of the Cascades that coyotes are making their way across the mountains from Eastern Oregon, and like jack rabbits, will become more and more dangerous. They have become exceptionally troublesome this winter, and in several instances have carried off sheep and barnyard fowls. One farmer has lost 50 white leghorn chickens.
 Sam Adolph, owner of the building at 370 State street where the meat market of E. C. Cross & Son is located, was granted a permit yesterday to alter and repair the building. The estimated cost being $5000. An other permit was granted to the C. K. Spaulding company to erect a warehouse between State and Court streets on Front to cost $2500.
 Six hoboes, none of them more than 22 years old, were confined in the city jail over night, and released Tuesday morning. They were taken into custody at the S. P. depot by Patrolman Victor after they had been routed from a freight train by special agents of the railroad company. A

of which consists of personal property notes and bank deposits.
 Robin D. Day has been appointed guardian of Nicholas Turans, a patient of the state institutions. The guardianship will sanction the payment of certain moneys due Turans from the United States treasury.
 In the estate of Inez J. Grimm, appraisers' report has been filed by William Woifler, F. M. Barrett and W. B. Palmer. Real property in Marion county, valued at $1960 is entered in the valuation.
 The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Art league which was to be held Tuesday evening at the public library has been postponed owing to the Apollo club claiming the date. Announcement of the meeting will be made later.
 D. Wiggins of Salem is in possession of an original patent to land in Palmyra, Lewis county, Missouri, signed by Andrew Jackson, Oct. 21, 1835, made out to Charles O. Sanford. The land was purchased from the Sanford heirs by Mr. Wiggins' grandfather.
 James Alfred Stromdahl, 37, a resident of Silverton, filed his declaration of citizenship with County Clerk Boyer, Monday. Mr. Stromdahl was born in Grasmyre, Sweden, and arrived in the United States February 26, 1903.
 Final hearing in the estate of Susan Will was held in Judge Bushby's court Monday. The final report of Allen H. Will, executor of the estate, was discharged from his position of trust and the estate was declared settled and closed.
 The Y. W. C. A. swimming classes which were postponed because of the repairing of the tank in the Y. M. C. A. will be resumed Wednesday, January 14 and will be held regularly each Wednesday as in the past.
 The Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist Episcopal church, will hold its quarterly Tea Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. H. Roberts, 1337 North Winter street. All women of the congregation are invited.
 Dan Kellaher, former city commissioner of Portland and ex-state senator, is visiting in Salem during the special session of legislature. While here is the guest of City Treasurer Clyde O. Rice, at his home, 775 Center street.
 Basket ball Wednesday and Thursday, Whitman college vs Willamette university, Salem armory, Jan. 14 and 15, 7:30 p. m. Admission, one night 50c; two nights, 75c. Come and see Salem's first Pacific coast conference game. Tickets on sale at Hauser Bros 11
 Wednesday evening at the armory, the Daughters of Veterans will meet to elect officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president, will preside, and several new members will be initiated. Mrs. Elliott urged all members to attend.
 Mrs. F. W. Wilcox of St. Paul, Minn., will arrive in Portland Saturday, where she will be met by her daughter, Mrs. E. Monroe Gilbert. Together they will pass several days there with friends Mrs. Wilcox will remain here on an indefinite visit with the Gilberts at their attractive suburban place "Irokanzan."
 The funeral of Alfred Slippy, 76, who died at the Old Soldiers' home at Roseburg last Saturday, will be held at the chapel of the Rigdon & Son Undertaking company at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It will be under the auspices of the G. A. R., of which Mr. Slippy was a comrade. Burial will be in City View cemetery.
 Notice of petition for guardianship was authorized Monday by Judge W. M. Bushey in county court in the case of Charles A. Johnson and names Amanda A. Johnson as guardian. The proposed guardianship will include property valued at $1700. The court's citation sets January 26, 1920, as the date for hearing matters involved.
 A grocery store, of frame structure, will be built soon on High street, between Lincoln and Superior streets, by W. McLaren. A permit to construct the building was issued Tuesday by City Recorder Race. A dwelling will be built adjoining the store. Cost of building both is estimated at approximately $1800.
 Members of the Baptist Brotherhood of the Baptist church will meet Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock in the church parlors, Marion and Liberty streets, according to an announcement Tuesday morning, Dr. S. J. Reid, Irish evangelist, who is conducting a series of meetings at the church, will be the principal speaker. The public is invited to attend.
 Fear is being felt by farmers near the foothills of the Cascades that coyotes are making their way across the mountains from Eastern Oregon, and like jack rabbits, will become more and more dangerous. They have become exceptionally troublesome this winter, and in several instances have carried off sheep and barnyard fowls. One farmer has lost 50 white leghorn chickens.
 Sam Adolph, owner of the building at 370 State street where the meat market of E. C. Cross & Son is located, was granted a permit yesterday to alter and repair the building. The estimated cost being $5000. An other permit was granted to the C. K. Spaulding company to erect a warehouse between State and Court streets on Front to cost $2500.
 Six hoboes, none of them more than 22 years old, were confined in the city jail over night, and released Tuesday morning. They were taken into custody at the S. P. depot by Patrolman Victor after they had been routed from a freight train by special agents of the railroad company. A

of which consists of personal property notes and bank deposits.
 Robin D. Day has been appointed guardian of Nicholas Turans, a patient of the state institutions. The guardianship will sanction the payment of certain moneys due Turans from the United States treasury.
 In the estate of Inez J. Grimm, appraisers' report has been filed by William Woifler, F. M. Barrett and W. B. Palmer. Real property in Marion county, valued at $1960 is entered in the valuation.
 The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Art league which was to be held Tuesday evening at the public library has been postponed owing to the Apollo club claiming the date. Announcement of the meeting will be made later.
 D. Wiggins of Salem is in possession of an original patent to land in Palmyra, Lewis county, Missouri, signed by Andrew Jackson, Oct. 21, 1835, made out to Charles O. Sanford. The land was purchased from the Sanford heirs by Mr. Wiggins' grandfather.
 James Alfred Stromdahl, 37, a resident of Silverton, filed his declaration of citizenship with County Clerk Boyer, Monday. Mr. Stromdahl was born in Grasmyre, Sweden, and arrived in the United States February 26, 1903.
 Final hearing in the estate of Susan Will was held in Judge Bushby's court Monday. The final report of Allen H. Will, executor of the estate, was discharged from his position of trust and the estate was declared settled and closed.
 The Y. W. C. A. swimming classes which were postponed because of the repairing of the tank in the Y. M. C. A. will be resumed Wednesday, January 14 and will be held regularly each Wednesday as in the past.
 The Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist Episcopal church, will hold its quarterly Tea Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. H. Roberts, 1337 North Winter street. All women of the congregation are invited.
 Dan Kellaher, former city commissioner of Portland and ex-state senator, is visiting in Salem during the special session of legislature. While here is the guest of City Treasurer Clyde O. Rice, at his home, 775 Center street.
 Basket ball Wednesday and Thursday, Whitman college vs Willamette university, Salem armory, Jan. 14 and 15, 7:30 p. m. Admission, one night 50c; two nights, 75c. Come and see Salem's first Pacific coast conference game. Tickets on sale at Hauser Bros 11
 Wednesday evening at the armory, the Daughters of Veterans will meet to elect officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president, will preside, and several new members will be initiated. Mrs. Elliott urged all members to attend.
 Mrs. F. W. Wilcox of St. Paul, Minn., will arrive in Portland Saturday, where she will be met by her daughter, Mrs. E. Monroe Gilbert. Together they will pass several days there with friends Mrs. Wilcox will remain here on an indefinite visit with the Gilberts at their attractive suburban place "Irokanzan."
 The funeral of Alfred Slippy, 76, who died at the Old Soldiers' home at Roseburg last Saturday, will be held at the chapel of the Rigdon & Son Undertaking company at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It will be under the auspices of the G. A. R., of which Mr. Slippy was a comrade. Burial will be in City View cemetery.
 Notice of petition for guardianship was authorized Monday by Judge W. M. Bushey in county court in the case of Charles A. Johnson and names Amanda A. Johnson as guardian. The proposed guardianship will include property valued at $1700. The court's citation sets January 26, 1920, as the date for hearing matters involved.
 A grocery store, of frame structure, will be built soon on High street, between Lincoln and Superior streets, by W. McLaren. A permit to construct the building was issued Tuesday by City Recorder Race. A dwelling will be built adjoining the store. Cost of building both is estimated at approximately $1800.
 Members of the Baptist Brotherhood of the Baptist church will meet Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock in the church parlors, Marion and Liberty streets, according to an announcement Tuesday morning, Dr. S. J. Reid, Irish evangelist, who is conducting a series of meetings at the church, will be the principal speaker. The public is invited to attend.
 Fear is being felt by farmers near the foothills of the Cascades that coyotes are making their way across the mountains from Eastern Oregon, and like jack rabbits, will become more and more dangerous. They have become exceptionally troublesome this winter, and in several instances have carried off sheep and barnyard fowls. One farmer has lost 50 white leghorn chickens.
 Sam Adolph, owner of the building at 370 State street where the meat market of E. C. Cross & Son is located, was granted a permit yesterday to alter and repair the building. The estimated cost being $5000. An other permit was granted to the C. K. Spaulding company to erect a warehouse between State and Court streets on Front to cost $2500.
 Six hoboes, none of them more than 22 years old, were confined in the city jail over night, and released Tuesday morning. They were taken into custody at the S. P. depot by Patrolman Victor after they had been routed from a freight train by special agents of the railroad company. A

of which consists of personal property notes and bank deposits.
 Robin D. Day has been appointed guardian of Nicholas Turans, a patient of the state institutions. The guardianship will sanction the payment of certain moneys due Turans from the United States treasury.
 In the estate of Inez J. Grimm, appraisers' report has been filed by William Woifler, F. M. Barrett and W. B. Palmer. Real property in Marion county, valued at $1960 is entered in the valuation.
 The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Art league which was to be held Tuesday evening at the public library has been postponed owing to the Apollo club claiming the date. Announcement of the meeting will be made later.
 D. Wiggins of Salem is in possession of an original patent to land in Palmyra, Lewis county, Missouri, signed by Andrew Jackson, Oct. 21, 1835, made out to Charles O. Sanford. The land was purchased from the Sanford heirs by Mr. Wiggins' grandfather.
 James Alfred Stromdahl, 37, a resident of Silverton, filed his declaration of citizenship with County Clerk Boyer, Monday. Mr. Stromdahl was born in Grasmyre, Sweden, and arrived in the United States February 26, 1903.
 Final hearing in the estate of Susan Will was held in Judge Bushby's court Monday. The final report of Allen H. Will, executor of the estate, was discharged from his position of trust and the estate was declared settled and closed.
 The Y. W. C. A. swimming classes which were postponed because of the repairing of the tank in the Y. M. C. A. will be resumed Wednesday, January 14 and will be held regularly each Wednesday as in the past.
 The Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist Episcopal church, will hold its quarterly Tea Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. H. Roberts, 1337 North Winter street. All women of the congregation are invited.
 Dan Kellaher, former city commissioner of Portland and ex-state senator, is visiting in Salem during the special session of legislature. While here is the guest of City Treasurer Clyde O. Rice, at his home, 775 Center street.
 Basket ball Wednesday and Thursday, Whitman college vs Willamette university, Salem armory, Jan. 14 and 15, 7:30 p. m. Admission, one night 50c; two nights, 75c. Come and see Salem's first Pacific coast conference game. Tickets on sale at Hauser Bros 11
 Wednesday evening at the armory, the Daughters of Veterans will meet to elect officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president, will preside, and several new members will be initiated. Mrs. Elliott urged all members to attend.
 Mrs. F. W. Wilcox of St. Paul, Minn., will arrive in Portland Saturday, where she will be met by her daughter, Mrs. E. Monroe Gilbert. Together they will pass several days there with friends Mrs. Wilcox will remain here on an indefinite visit with the Gilberts at their attractive suburban place "Irokanzan."
 The funeral of Alfred Slippy, 76, who died at the Old Soldiers' home at Roseburg last Saturday, will be held at the chapel of the Rigdon & Son Undertaking company at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It will be under the auspices of the G. A. R., of which Mr. Slippy was a comrade. Burial will be in City View cemetery.
 Notice of petition for guardianship was authorized Monday by Judge W. M. Bushey in county court in the case of Charles A. Johnson and names Amanda A. Johnson as guardian. The proposed guardianship will include property valued at $1700. The court's citation sets January 26, 1920, as the date for hearing matters involved.
 A grocery store, of frame structure, will be built soon on High street, between Lincoln and Superior streets, by W. McLaren. A permit to construct the building was issued Tuesday by City Recorder Race. A dwelling will be built adjoining the store. Cost of building both is estimated at approximately $1800.
 Members of the Baptist Brotherhood of the Baptist church will meet Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock in the church parlors, Marion and Liberty streets, according to an announcement Tuesday morning, Dr. S. J. Reid, Irish evangelist, who is conducting a series of meetings at the church, will be the principal speaker. The public is invited to attend.
 Fear is being felt by farmers near the foothills of the Cascades that coyotes are making their way across the mountains from Eastern Oregon, and like jack rabbits, will become more and more dangerous. They have become exceptionally troublesome this winter, and in several instances have carried off sheep and barnyard fowls. One farmer has lost 50 white leghorn chickens.
 Sam Adolph, owner of the building at 370 State street where the meat market of E. C. Cross & Son is located, was granted a permit yesterday to alter and repair the building. The estimated cost being $5000. An other permit was granted to the C. K. Spaulding company to erect a warehouse between State and Court streets on Front to cost $2500.
 Six hoboes, none of them more than 22 years old, were confined in the city jail over night, and released Tuesday morning. They were taken into custody at the S. P. depot by Patrolman Victor after they had been routed from a freight train by special agents of the railroad company. A

of which consists of personal property notes and bank deposits.
 Robin D. Day has been appointed guardian of Nicholas Turans, a patient of the state institutions. The guardianship will sanction the payment of certain moneys due Turans from the United States treasury.
 In the estate of Inez J. Grimm, appraisers' report has been filed by William Woifler, F. M. Barrett and W. B. Palmer. Real property in Marion county, valued at $1960 is entered in the valuation.
 The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Art league which was to be held Tuesday evening at the public library has been postponed owing to the Apollo club claiming the date. Announcement of the meeting will be made later.
 D. Wiggins of Salem is in possession of an original patent to land in Palmyra, Lewis county, Missouri, signed by Andrew Jackson, Oct. 21, 1835, made out to Charles O. Sanford. The land was purchased from the Sanford heirs by Mr. Wiggins' grandfather.
 James Alfred Stromdahl, 37, a resident of Silverton, filed his declaration of citizenship with County Clerk Boyer, Monday. Mr. Stromdahl was born in Grasmyre, Sweden, and arrived in the United States February 26, 1903.
 Final hearing in the estate of Susan Will was held in Judge Bushby's court Monday. The final report of Allen H. Will, executor of the estate, was discharged from his position of trust and the estate was declared settled and closed.
 The Y. W. C. A. swimming classes which were postponed because of the repairing of the tank in the Y. M. C. A. will be resumed Wednesday, January 14 and will be held regularly each Wednesday as in the past.
 The Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist Episcopal church, will hold its quarterly Tea Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. H. Roberts, 1337 North Winter street. All women of the congregation are invited.
 Dan Kellaher, former city commissioner of Portland and ex-state senator, is visiting in Salem during the special session of legislature. While here is the guest of City Treasurer Clyde O. Rice, at his home, 775 Center street.
 Basket ball Wednesday and Thursday, Whitman college vs Willamette university, Salem armory, Jan. 14 and 15, 7:30 p. m. Admission, one night 50c; two nights, 75c. Come and see Salem's first Pacific coast conference game. Tickets on sale at Hauser Bros 11
 Wednesday evening at the armory, the Daughters of Veterans will meet to elect officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president, will preside, and several new members will be initiated. Mrs. Elliott urged all members to attend.
 Mrs. F. W. Wilcox of St. Paul, Minn., will arrive in Portland Saturday, where she will be met by her daughter, Mrs. E. Monroe Gilbert. Together they will pass several days there with friends Mrs. Wilcox will remain here on an indefinite visit with the Gilberts at their attractive suburban place "Irokanzan."
 The funeral of Alfred Slippy, 76, who died at the Old Soldiers' home at Roseburg last Saturday, will be held at the chapel of the Rigdon & Son Undertaking company at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It will be under the auspices of the G. A. R., of which Mr. Slippy was a comrade. Burial will be in City View cemetery.
 Notice of petition for guardianship was authorized Monday by Judge W. M. Bushey in county court in the case of Charles A. Johnson and names Amanda A. Johnson as guardian. The proposed guardianship will include property valued at $1700. The court's citation sets January 26, 1920, as the date for hearing matters involved.
 A grocery store, of frame structure, will be built soon on High street, between Lincoln and Superior streets, by W. McLaren. A permit to construct the building was issued Tuesday by City Recorder Race. A dwelling will be built adjoining the store. Cost of building both is estimated at approximately $1800.
 Members of the Baptist Brotherhood of the Baptist church will meet Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock in the church parlors, Marion and Liberty streets, according to an announcement Tuesday morning, Dr. S. J. Reid, Irish evangelist, who is conducting a series of meetings at the church, will be the principal speaker. The public is invited to attend.
 Fear is being felt by farmers near the foothills of the Cascades that coyotes are making their way across the mountains from Eastern Oregon, and like jack rabbits, will become more and more dangerous. They have become exceptionally troublesome this winter, and in several instances have carried off sheep and barnyard fowls. One farmer has lost 50 white leghorn chickens.
 Sam Adolph, owner of the building at 370 State street where the meat market of E. C. Cross & Son is located, was granted a permit yesterday to alter and repair the building. The estimated cost being $5000. An other permit was granted to the C. K. Spaulding company to erect a warehouse between State and Court streets on Front to cost $2500.
 Six hoboes, none of them more than 22 years old, were confined in the city jail over night, and released Tuesday morning. They were taken into custody at the S. P. depot by Patrolman Victor after they had been routed from a freight train by special agents of the railroad company. A

of which consists of personal property notes and bank deposits.
 Robin D. Day has been appointed guardian of Nicholas Turans, a patient of the state institutions. The guardianship will sanction the payment of certain moneys due Turans from the United States treasury.
 In the estate of Inez J. Grimm, appraisers' report has been filed by William Woifler, F. M. Barrett and W. B. Palmer. Real property in Marion county, valued at $1960 is entered in the valuation.
 The regular monthly meeting of the Salem Art league which was to be held Tuesday evening at the public library has been postponed owing to the Apollo club claiming the date. Announcement of the meeting will be made later.
 D. Wiggins of Salem is in possession of an original patent to land in Palmyra, Lewis county, Missouri, signed by Andrew Jackson, Oct. 21, 1835, made out to Charles O. Sanford. The land was purchased from the Sanford heirs by Mr. Wiggins' grandfather.
 James Alfred Stromdahl, 37, a resident of Silverton, filed his declaration of citizenship with County Clerk Boyer, Monday. Mr. Stromdahl was born in Grasmyre, Sweden, and arrived in the United States February 26, 1903.
 Final hearing in the estate of Susan Will was held in Judge Bushby's court Monday. The final report of Allen H. Will, executor of the estate, was discharged from his position of trust and the estate was declared settled and closed.
 The Y. W. C. A. swimming classes which were postponed because of the repairing of the tank in the Y. M. C. A. will be resumed Wednesday, January 14 and will be held regularly each Wednesday as in the past.
 The Home Missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist Episcopal church, will hold its quarterly Tea Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. H. Roberts, 1337 North Winter street. All women of the congregation are invited.
 Dan Kellaher, former city commissioner of Portland and ex-state senator, is visiting in Salem during the special session of legislature. While here is the guest of City Treasurer Clyde O. Rice, at his home, 775 Center street.
 Basket ball Wednesday and Thursday, Whitman college vs Willamette university, Salem armory, Jan. 14 and 15, 7:30 p. m. Admission, one night 50c; two nights, 75c. Come and see Salem's first Pacific coast conference game. Tickets on sale at Hauser Bros 11
 Wednesday evening at the armory, the Daughters of Veterans will meet to elect officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. F. A. Elliott, president, will preside, and several new members will be initiated. Mrs. Elliott urged all members to attend.
 Mrs. F. W. Wilcox of St. Paul, Minn., will arrive in Portland Saturday, where she will be met by her daughter, Mrs. E. Monroe Gilbert. Together they will pass several days there with friends Mrs. Wilcox will remain here on an indefinite visit with the Gilberts at their attractive suburban place "Irokanzan."
 The funeral of Alfred Slippy, 76, who died at the Old Soldiers' home at Roseburg last Saturday, will be held at the chapel of the Rigdon & Son Undertaking company at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon. It will be under the auspices of the G. A. R., of which Mr. Slippy was a comrade. Burial will be in City View cemetery.
 Notice of petition for guardianship was authorized Monday by Judge W. M. Bushey in county court in the case of Charles A. Johnson and names Amanda A. Johnson as guardian. The proposed guardianship will include property valued at $1700. The court's citation sets January 26, 1920, as the date for hearing matters involved.
 A grocery store, of frame structure, will be built soon on High street, between Lincoln and Superior streets, by W. McLaren. A permit to construct the building was issued Tuesday by City Recorder Race. A dwelling will be built adjoining the store. Cost of building both is estimated at approximately $1800.
 Members of the Baptist Brotherhood of the Baptist church will meet Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock in the church parlors, Marion and Liberty streets, according to an announcement Tuesday morning, Dr. S. J. Reid, Irish evangelist, who is conducting a series of meetings at the church, will be the principal speaker. The public is invited to attend.
 Fear is being felt by farmers near the foothills of the Cascades that coyotes are making their way across the mountains from Eastern Oregon, and like jack rabbits, will become more and more dangerous. They have become exceptionally troublesome this winter, and in several instances have carried off sheep and barnyard fowls. One farmer has lost 50 white leghorn chickens.
 Sam Adolph, owner of the building at 370 State street where the meat market of E. C. Cross & Son is located, was granted a permit yesterday to alter and repair the building. The estimated cost being $5000. An other permit was granted to the C. K. Spaulding company to erect a warehouse between State and Court streets on Front to cost $2500.
 Six hoboes, none of them more than 22 years old, were confined in the city jail over night, and released Tuesday morning. They were taken into custody at the S. P. depot by Patrolman Victor after they had been routed from a freight train by special agents of the railroad company. A