

STAGE FRIGHT GIVES WHITMAN VICTORY OVER WILLAMETTE

Stage fright and a lack of team work spelled defeat for the Willamette "Bears" in their initial game of conference basketball on the armory floor last night and the Whitman college quintet went to the showers with the long end of a 23 to 19 score.

Only once during the melee were the honors of the visitors in danger—late in the last period when Willamette seemed to gain confidence and with it a semblance of fight, and hit the tally sheet for a spurt of nine points. Previous to this Whitman had been having things considerably their own way.

On the offensive Willamette showed its greatest weakness, seeming unable to carry any team work into the territory of the visitors. On the scoring side of the center line their passing was erratic and they were too prone to sacrifice real basketball for long shots at the hoop. Time and again they missed easy chances to score by rushing their shots. They were also unable to consistently break up the accurate passing by which Whitman repeatedly worked the ball to within easy shooting range of the baskets.

Experienced players a big part in the victory for Whitman and the lack of it proved the Waterloo of the "Bears." Wapato was the lone Salentite who refused to allow himself to be carried off his feet and his cool persistency broke up the Whitman parade down the floor more than once. Gillette also showed up well at guard both on the offensive and defensive and proved himself of conference caliber. Demott, at center, and Rich, at guard, were the stars for the visitors. Both played the floor well and showed an uncanny ability to connect with the top end of the nets.

Willamette's foul shooting was ragged compared with that of their opponents.

Dress Making
Prostrated Miss Allen, Vinol, our Cod Liver and Iron Tonic, restored her working strength.

Miss Allen's Statement
New York City.—"I am a dressmaker. I overworked, got all run-down, tired out, and had no appetite. After taking various tonics a friend told me about Vinol. I tried it and I gained so rapidly by its use that I feel like a new person and I am now keeping up my work with ease."—Miss Lucy R. ALLEN.

We guarantee Vinol, which contains beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones, and hypophosphites, to strengthen and build up weak, run-down, over-worked women.

NOTE:—Your leading druggist has for many years specially recommended Vinol because he knows there is nothing better than this famous Cod Liver and Iron Tonic to create strength and build one up. The formula of Vinol is on every label.

Chivalry Lives Though Women's Rights Prevail

"Woman's rights prevail but chivalry is not dead," reads a little note appended to a beautiful bouquet of red carnations on the desk of Senator Farrell of Multnomah county this morning. The note was signed by Representative Mrs. Alexander Thompson, Farrell's successful rival for the honor of sponsoring the resolution through which Oregon has ratified the woman suffrage amendment to the national constitution. Mrs. Thompson appends herself "Your Co-ratifier" in appreciation of Farrell's action in deferring to her in the privilege of sponsoring the successful resolution.

FORMER SALEM GIRL APPEARS AT LIBERTY

Corinne Riely Barker, the Salem girl who has worked her way to stardom in the motion picture world, will be seen at Ye Liberty theatre for the balance of the week in a Goldwyn production, "One Week of Life." Miss Barker co-stars with Pauline Frederick and is afforded an excellent opportunity of displaying her versatile dramatic talent.

Marion Roche (Pauline Frederick), a girl of high ideals and honor, comes to New York to visit her friend, Lona Canby (Corinne Barker), a successful painter. Neither knows of the existence of Mrs. Kingsley Sherwood (also played by Pauline Frederick). She is a base society woman whose selfish indifference more than anything else has made Kingsley Sherwood (Thomas Holding) seek consolation in self-indulgence. His weakness is drink. Mrs. Sherwood is involved in an intrigue with LeRoy Scott (Sydney Ainsworth) with whom she is tempted to run away but for the disfigurement and loss of her position. Repeatedly both declare that they would give their souls for but one week of life together. But there is no way to bring this about.

What it is, and how the plot works out to a dramatic finish, makes one of the most interesting motion picture features recently released.
