

THRIFT WEEK PLAN HIGHLY ENDORSED BY MANY CRAFTS

The public schools, the Salem Ministerial association, Salem Woman's club, bankers, insurance men, real estate men, manufacturers and the general business interest of the city have endorsed the Thrift Week campaign.

A number of firms are planning for special publicity during the week. The Cherry City bakery will place a label in each loaf of bread calling attention to Oregon Products Week and the National Thrift campaign. Letters have been sent out to all the ministers of the city respectfully requesting them to pay some attention to thrift in their sermons next Sunday.

During Thrift Week, January 17 to 24, great emphasis will be placed upon the importance of savings.

"Savings is the test, not only of industry and commerce, but of the individual engaged in industry or commerce. Saving does not mean something laid aside without effort from generous profits or a liberal surplus. It means self-denial. It means giving up something desired, sometimes even something needed in order to increase the store of savings."

"Savings means industry, application, thrift, guarding against wastefulness, avoiding idleness, standing on your own feet, working out your own problems, seeing always that there is some difference, no matter how little it may be, between what you earn or get and what you spend."

"Saving brings confidence and strength and steadiness. The hope of this republic rests with those who are putting by systematically something out of what they earn. Try to earn more or to get more, if you will, but meantime avoid the economic blunder of placing yourself where you cannot save or of having to live for a time on what you have already saved," one person here said, speaking of the thrift plan.

Thrift in industry day will be observed Thursday, January 22, on that day emphasis will be placed upon the identical interest of employer and employee.

CHEMEWA QUINTET BEATS MT. ANGEL IN FAST PLAYING

In one of the fastest and closest games of the season the Chemewa basketball quintet, in a game at the Chemewa hall Wednesday night, defeated Mt. Angel with a score of 42 to 38. Both teams exhibited great skill and it was a stolid tenacity that won for the Chemewa team. This makes the third consecutive victory for Chemewa, and the first of four games for the Mt. Angel players to lose.

Downie and Nix were the stars for Chemewa. Nix won 16 points and Downie amassed 14.

The lineup follows:
Chemewa—Forwards, Downie and Butties; center, Shepard; guards, Nix and Nuckles. Liljegen replaced Nuckles in the last half.

Mt. Angel—Forwards, Stuppid and Smith; center, Cropp; guards, W. Rasser and Herann. Earl Rasser replaced Herann for a part of the play in last half.

Chemewa will play Pacific university at Chemewa Saturday.

EUGENE AND SALEM TEAMS PLAY FRIDAY

Much interest centers around the basketball game to be played in the high school gym tomorrow night when the Eugene and the Salem high schools meet.

The locals are putting in some good ticks and are rapidly rounding into form. Their passing has improved a great deal since the McMinnville game and they promise to give a good account of themselves after the referee's whistle blows, announcing the start of the game, which will be at 7:45.

The lineup will probably be as follows: E. Gill and Schaefer forwards; Boise, center; and E. Gill and Ashby guards.

A preliminary game between the Eugene school and a team selected from among the high school students will be played at 7 o'clock.

tendant burden of additional taxes." The fight, he insisted, was based on a personal grievance between the Telegram and the Warren company and should never have been injected into the legislature.

Senators Ira C. Smith, Hurley, Orton and Huston added their voice to the fight against the bill with Senators La Follette, Strayer and Thomas reinforcing the ranks of the friends of the measure.

Saved Quarter Million.

Approximately $250,000 has been saved to Oregon during the past year by the use of patented bitulithic pavement upon state highways, even taking into consideration the royalty upon the patented article, payment of which has been held in abeyance pending the determination of the validity of the patent but which now looms as a probability. Out of 43 contracts upon which they have entered bids during the year the Warren Brothers company have been the lowest bidder, the addition of royalty, again considered.

These figures were presented by State Highway Commissioner R. A. Booth at a session of the senate committee on roads and highways before which Senator Lachmund's bill prohibiting the payment of royalties upon patented paving was up for consideration. Commissioner Booth informed the committee that the state highway commission uniformly awarded contracts to the lowest bidder, as instructed by the legislature of 1919, but that in figuring the bids of the Warren Brothers company the additional royalty was always taken into consideration.

Totals Million Yards.
A total of 1,116,000 square yards of bitulithic have been laid in the state during the year upon which the Warren company has agreed to settle with the commission on the basis of 19m cents per yard or a total royalty payment of $111,600. According to A. J. Hill, manager of the Warren company, who was also present at the meeting, the company could reasonably expect to collect a royalty payment of 25 cents a yard if compelled to go into court to enforce its claim, which he hoped would not be the case after the validity of its patents had been established to the satisfaction of the highway commission.

Drive Trust Out.

The enactment of Lachmund's bill into law would drive the Warren Brothers company with its 300 families and its payroll of $400,000 annually, from the state of Oregon, Hill declared in the course of the grilling to which he was subjected by Senator Lachmund, both of whom are out after the hide of the Warren company.

Hill characterized the bill as unfair, discriminatory and the most drastic legislation of its kind ever attempted by any state in the union. Figures show, he declared, that bids on bitulithic pavement were in a majority of cases lower than competing bids and the legislature would only be playing into the hands of the competitors or the Warren company by driving the Warren company from the state.

"There is a certain class of men," Hill insisted, and his gaze included Senators Lachmund and Thomas, "who only think in terms of 'let's go to 'em,' because it seems to be a popular cry."

The "Infamous Telegram" was also severely scored by Hill for its campaign of "unjustified persecution" which it has been waging against the paving company.

Senator Norblad came to the rescue of Hill after he had been subjected to a thirty minute grilling by Lachmund and Thomas. The bill, Norblad would submit to the people a mooted legal question upon which only a court was qualified to pass. It was not good business, nor good judgment, he insisted, to bar the use of an article simply because it was patented, when that article had been proven satisfactory and cheaper than its unpatented competitors. The move, he declared, was a blow at property rights. If the legislature wanted to bar the use of patented articles, he asked, why not include patent culverts, road scrapers and all other patented articles which enter into road construction. The bill will come into the senate today on a minority report to be submitted by Senators Lachmund and Thomas, Senators Norblad, Orton, Ritter, Handley and Hurley voting against a favorable report on the measure.
