

MAYOR'S GARAGE IS ROBBED; THUGS GET AWAY IN DARKNESS

Although further search was made Friday morning for clues nothing could be found by police that would cast any light on the pair, who at 12:30 Friday morning, entered and robbed the garage, at 288 North Commercial street, owned by Mayor O. J. Wilson. Foot prints were found in the mud of the alley back of the garage, but these were discredited by police who investigated.

Seven tires taken by the prowlers were recovered. Nothing else of value was found missing.

The attention of Officers W. J. White and Moffitt was first called to the robbery when O. W. Holmes, of O. A. C., while taking a girl friend home, saw the pair making away from the garage through the alley with the tires. He called to them, and they dropped the tires. Mr. Holmes then stood guard at the tires while the girl ran for police, who were two blocks away, having a 10-NyoungladyCM away. Pursuit was given, but the burglars, having a 10-minute start, made a complete get away.

Entrance was gained to the garage by breaking the lock on the rear door, police reports said.

Dallas Boy Convicted Of Larceny And Sentenced

Dallas, Jan. 15.—Charles Gosso of this city, indicted by the grand jury for larceny from a building was sentenced by Judge Harry H. Belt yesterday afternoon to serve a term of from one to three years in the state penitentiary at Salem. Gosso at the time of his hearing before Justice of the Peace J. R. Shibley confessed to a number of robberies which took place in Dallas early last spring, and also admitted participating in a series of robberies in Portland during the past year. An appeal by Gosso's attorney for a parole was denied by Judge Belt.

POLICE GATHER CLUES AGAINST SUSPECTS AS THEY DENY ALL GUILT

This is shown by the reproduction in the cast.

The story of a conductor, who said that the night of the shooting a mysteriously acting man rode on his car to the south end of Commercial street and was whisked away in a new high-powered auto was told to police Friday. The man mounted the car at Trade street three-quarters of an hour after the shooting. He told the conductor that he had missed three cars before that. This police claim, would place the time when the man would have mounted the car at the same time the shooting occurred. The strange manner in which the man acted immediately incited the suspicion of the streetcar man. He said that the car sped away so fast that he could not see how many occupants it had, or what number it bore. Police reports do not show what connection this episode may have with the shooting.

Room Is Searched.
A search of the room, at the Salem Rooming House, where Grace and Gavigan claimed they were staying, revealed nothing. The room was bare. Grace's name appeared on the register as from Portland, and the name of Frank Otter, also from Portland was down on the register for the same room.

While Grace and Gavigan claim that they were in their room at this place at the time of the shooting, the proprietor told police that he heard them come in at about 11 o'clock—an hour and 15 minutes after the holdup.

Gavigan Ex-Soldier.
Gavigan bears a discharge from the United States army. He persistently charges police with persecuting him and held out his army service record as a token of his character. He frequently insinuates that police are unpatriotic because of their treatment of him. Grace is locked in a separate cell. Neither of them will talk.

Gavigan, when the conductor was brought in to identify him Friday morning, angrily shouted:
"The shooting isn't over when I get out of here." And he hurled epithets at Chief Varney.

Just Yellow Mustard For Backache, Lumbago

SENATE DEBATE BILL STRICTLY ENFORCED

The legislative mill was interrupted for about thirty minutes just preceding the noon recess while the senators extricated Representative Gallagher's Jordan valley road from the entanglement into which it had been thrown by the injection of a monkey wrench in the shape of a new Coos county road by Senator Ira C. Smith. Gallagher's bill which provides for the designation of a road in the Jordan valley as a post road and its survey and location by the state highway commission, was passed by the house over an adverse report of the roads highways committee.

It came into the senate this morning on a divided report with the minority members of the committee submitting an amendment involving the addition of a road in Coos county from Bandon to Coquille. The move was characterized by friends of the

STOMACH ON A STRIKE

"Pape's Diapepsin" puts Sour, Gassy, Acid Stomachs in order at once!

Wonder what upset your stomach—has fermented and turned sour; head gassy and upset, and what you just ate which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sick, dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food—just eat a tablet or two of Pape's Diapepsin to help neutralize acidity and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit, without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless antacid is Pape's Diapepsin, which costs so little at drug stores.
