Vandervort, Dr. Doney, and Dr. Avison. Midweek prayer and service Thursday 7:30 p. m.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH—Dr. S. J. Reid will speak at the First Baptist church morning and evening. At 11 a. m. his theme will be: "Can a Christian Be a Successful Business Man?" At 7:30 p. m. his topic will be: "Camouflage." The large chorus choir under J. W. Fry's direction will sing. Services will continue throughout the week, every evening except Monday. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Semi-annual rally of the Baptist Young People's Union of the central association at 2:30 and 6:30 p. m., with lunch between afternoon and evening sessions. Dr. S. J. Reid, the evangelist, was at his best last night at the First Baptist church. He delivered a strong, tender message on "The Love of God." His remarks were based on Christ's words to Judas when he betrayed him with a kiss, and Jesus said, "Friend, wherefore art thou come?" The teacher of Judas was pictured vividly and then contrasted with the love of God as revealed in Christ's life and appeals. It was one of the strongest messages Dr. Reid has yet delivered. The audience are increasing and the interest in the meetings is growing.

JASON LEE MEMORIAL CHURCH—Corner of Winter and Jefferson streets. Thomas Acheson, pastor. On Sunday, January 18, the following program will be observed: Sunday school 9:45 a. m., classes for all ages under the care of capable teachers. Strangers are welcomed. Public worship, 11 a. m., subject, "Practical Patriotism." Class meeting, 12:15 p. m. Epworth League meeting, 6:30 p. m. A rousing time is assured. Young people cordially invited. Evening service 7:30 p. m., subject, "The Great Inquiry." The choir, under the leadership of Professor Clark will furnish special music morning and evening. We cordially invite the public to worship with us. Two important week items to be remembered are: The tea served by Mrs. R. E. Dunlap and Mrs. Fred Barker to the ladies of the church Wednesday afternoon, and a prayer meeting Wednesday evening, 7:30 o'clock.

THE COURT STREET CHRISTIAN CHURCH—Corner of North Seventeenth and Court streets. We want the membership to begin planning for the revival service which we hope to begin the latter part of next month. This preparation can be made in two ways: private prayer and by talking it to your neighbor. The evangelist is now holding a big meeting at Vancouver, Washington, and comes to us immediately at the close of that meeting. A splendid interest is shown in every department of the church and we trust that it may continue to grow. Let every member be prompt in attendance at the services and this growth is assured.
