

UNCLE SAM ABOUT TO COLLECT YOUR INCOME TAX AGAIN

How much have you earned? Better find out for it's time to pay your income tax again.

Like Christmas shopping the government is urging you to "come early"—that is, earlier than March 15—the income tax law provides severe penalties for failure to pay the tax before or on that date.

For Marion county income taxes must be paid to the Income Tax Collector, Custom House, Portland.

All tax payers are urged to make out their returns at once, so they'll be ready when the deputy collector comes.

For the purpose of assisting tax payers of Marion county to make up their income tax returns for 1919, Deputy Collectors Collins and Guyot from the Internal Revenue office will be at the following named places on the dates given below:

Hill City, Jan. 28 and 29.
Stanton Jan. 28 and 29.
Turner Jan. 20 and 31.
Jefferson Jan. 30 and 31.
Woodburn Feb. 2 to 4th inclusive.
Silverton Feb. 9 to 11 inclusive.
Salem Feb. 12 to 13 inclusive and March 9 to 15 inclusive.

HILL KIDNAPPING BASIS OF ACTION

As a direct aftermath of the alleged kidnapping of Marvel Hill, 14, by her father, Edward L. Hill, Catherine Hill filed divorce proceedings Friday in the office of the county clerk for Marion. Mrs. Hill accuses her husband of non-support and of cruel and inhuman consideration.

The couple were married in Wisconsin, November 10, 1903, and have lived in Marion county for the past eight years. Mrs. Hill claims that she has been the main contributor to the support of herself and daughter during the past five years, and that it became necessary for her to resort to legal processes before Hill would donate $15 per month for Marvel's maintenance; this he is said to have reluctantly done until July, 1919, when even this meagre allowance was stopped by Hill.

On January 4, 1920, Hill is accused by his wife of having entered their home during her absence and taking clothing belonging to the little girl. Then Hill is said to have went to the school which she was attending and to have spirited her away.

Mrs. Hill states in her complaint that she has received information that Marvel is being held at a certain religious school in Marion county. The mother states that she applied to this school for confirmation of this report and that the authorities in charge of this institution "indignantly and abusively" refused to admit any knowledge of the girl's whereabouts. Mrs. Hill states that she was informed at this school that she would have to secure the consent of Mr. Hill before she could see her daughter.

The petitioner asks for an absolute decree of divorce and for allowances pending litigation. In the final settlement, Mrs. Hill asks that she be awarded the ownership of two-thirds of a parcel of property valued at $5000 and situated in Marion county.

Business Men To Take Tour Of Plant Inspection Monday

A trade tour, to some manufacturing plant in the city, will be taken by business men Monday who gather at the Commercial club for their regular weekly luncheon. Two weeks of each month speakers talk to the business men and the other two Mondays are devoted to trade tours following the luncheon.

The place where the men will go was not divulged Saturday. Business men with autos are asked to bring the machines and assist in taking their fellow business men to the plants.

Salem Conquers Eugene; Score 21-18; Many Fouls

Defeating Eugene high school by a score of 21 to 18, the Salem high quintet participated in one of the most exciting games of the basketball season at the high school gym Friday night.

The game was replete with careless plays. The check up of fouls left nothing for either side to boast of. Salem excelled in basket shots, Schaefer and Gill doing good work here. While Eugene's basket work was poor, their aggressive tactics kept the Salem team on their toes and caused continual uproar among the spectators, a capacity crowd being in attendance.

About 125 couples attended the American Legion dance in the armory Friday evening, and a sum of $215 was realized for the local post. Chief Justice James McBride gave a short address during the course of the evening, voicing his opinion on the American Legion and the object of the organization.

STEP TO GET BOXING COMMISSION TAKEN

A synopsis of the state law governing the institution and control of municipal boxing commissions in cities in Oregon was prepared and sent to the council committee on health and police Friday by City Attorney Bert Macy. This is the first step to be taken here for the establishment of a boxing commission.

At the last meeting of the council a petition signed by about 150 citizens asking that a boxing commission be established here was read. The police committee and City Attorney Macy was instructed to prepare a report on the matter for submission at the next meeting. This synopsis made by Mr. Macy will shape the report.

Mr. Macy is strongly in favor of a boxing commission here, and expressed the hope that the mayor be instructed to appoint the commission.

Quinaby Young Man Cancer Victim; Funeral Saturday

Dewey Ricketts, 21, following a long illness caused from cancer, died at his home in Quinaby Friday. The funeral was held at the chapel of the Webb & C. O'Leary undertaking company, at 2 o'clock Saturday. Rev. Lovell, of the Evangelical church, in charge. Burial was in the Klagggett cemetery, near Quinaby.

Mr. Ricketts is survived by his mother, Mrs. Lizzie Ricketts; four brothers, Charles, Jesse and George Quinaby, and William, residing in Oklahoma; and five sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Wolst, Mrs. Emma Penny, Mrs. Effie Jacobs and Mrs. Sallie Treadway, residing near Salem, and Mrs. Lucy Corbett, whose home is in Oklahoma.

Marion Gameseekers Get Licenses Early

To date, 100 hunting permits, 22 combination hunting and angling licenses, 7 angler's permits and 4 pioneers' and civil war veterans' licenses have been issued in Salem this year. The mid-winter term of circuit court brings many out-to-town residents to Salem and many of these take advantage of this opportunity to "shop early and avoid the rush" in the matter of securing game permits. Licenses have been issued recently to the following in the designated forms:

Combination pioneers' and civil war veterans—J. N. Spaffe, Salem, and C. M. Walker, Newport.

Hunting licenses—Millard M. Hooker, Detroit; H. W. Myers, Salem.

Combination hunting and fishing—Norman Holda, Gervais; O. D. Bower, L. L. Conny, Albert Keeper and James Wilsey, Salem.

One angler's permit was made out Thursday to J. M. Hamilton of Salem.

OFFICE OF LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR AGAIN BOBS UP BEFORE SENATORS

The event of the office should be great, would take place at the general election in 1923.

The lieutenant governor would be president of the senate with power to vote only in the case of a tie, and would receive compensation at the rate of ten dollars per day.

"That after the year of 1920 a lieutenant governor shall be elected at the same time and place, and in the same manner as the governor, and his term of office and his qualifications shall be the same. The lieutenant governor shall be president of the senate, but shall only have a vote therein when the senate shall be equally divided and shall receive as compensation only while so serving as president of the senate the sum of ten dollars per day."

"In case of the failure to qualify, the impeachment or conviction of treason, felony or other infamous crime of the governor, or his death, removal from office, resignation or absence from the state, the powers, duties and emoluments of the office for the remainder of the term, or until the disability shall cease, shall devolve upon and be vested in the lieutenant governor."

"If during a vacancy in the office of governor, the lieutenant governor shall be impeached, displaced, resign, die or become incapable of performing the duties of the office, or be absent from the state, the president pro tempore of the senate shall act as governor until the vacancy be filled or the disability cease."

If passed by the legislature the measure will be placed on the ballot at the May election.

Many complaints of a tribe of gypsies being in the city and frightening women and children resulted Saturday in police driving the unwelcome nomads from the city. They wandered to the southern outskirts of the city and made their camp there. They claimed they were bound to California. While here they attempted to tell fortunes.

Irate Prisoner Dispells Spell Of Kindly Word

"Kind words will never die."

They taught it in school; it's the keynote of the Sunday school teacher's lessons. But they neglected to say that the effect of kind words will produce will not fit into oblivion.

Friday Chief of Police Varney came to his office high in spirits. It was evident that his wife or somebody along the route to his office, had passed on the kind word.

Things at the office were good; his spirits continued on an ethereal plain. But they soared when an old Indian woman, portly and jovial, entered his office. She was a phenologist and was seeking permission to read heads in this city. She casually surveyed Chief Varney.

"Ugh, little papoose—chief!"

The chief straightened up.

"Got smart looking head!"

The dusky woman was squinting, and she nodded her head decisively. As the chief said after she had left the office. He was "strolling on the clouds"—his spirits, balloon-like, rising higher.

"You're a big stiff, ?!!?&$@!"

It was L. Gavigan yelling from his cell. He isn't fond of the chief.

Chief Varney's face changed. His shoulders drooped. The Kind Word Fairy withdrew her wand. And, from a perchance, she didn't touch him with it again all day.

FARM LOAN MEN DO BIG BUSINESS HERE

At the annual meeting of the Marion-Polk County National Farm Loan association of Marion and Polk counties here January 13, the report of W. B. Smith, secretary-treasurer, showed that during the two and a half years since the association was organized to handle federal farm loans, the sum of $241,000 of government money has been loaned to the members, who number 70. None of the members has defaulted in the payment of interest.

Directors chosen are: L. P. Hopkins, A. L. Collins, T. J. Clark, E. A. Aufmann and F. C. Ewing. Officers as follows: L. P. Hopkins, president; A. L. Collins, vice-president; W. D. Smith, secretary-treasurer; T. J. Clark, E. A. Aufmann and F. C. Ewing, loan committee.

Members are prominent business men and represent various parts of the state. Warren and Schmidt are prominent cannerymen, and Hall is president of the State Chamber of Commerce, a bank president and leading business man of Coos Bay region, not identified with fishing interests. Fleischer is a Portland wholesale merchant, Jack a merchant of Pendleton, Simmons was born and reared in Salem and is in business in Eugene. Gill is state senator and a member of a large Portland business house. Stone is a prominent attorney who has been a member of the commission since its organization in 1911.

All members of the old commission were unanimously elected. Schmidt and Gill were nominated for the three-year term on the commercial board, Schmidt winning by a vote of 54 to 30. Hall received the unanimous vote for the one-year term. Simmons easily defeated Wilford Allen of Grants Pass for the three-year term in the game commission, and Gill received 45 to 35
