

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

Jan. 17-24—Home Products and Thrift week.
Jan. 18.—Business men's luncheon at Commercial club.
Jan. 19-25—Sixth Annual Marion County Corn Show, Valley Motor Co., tractor department, State and Front streets.
Jan. 21.—Business Men's league meeting, 8 p. m. Commercial club.
Jan. 21.—Meeting of literary section of Salem Art league, 7:30.
Jan. 22.—Woman's Republican club meets in Commercial club, 2:30 p. m.
Jan. 27-28—State meeting, National Farm Loan association.

Lars, watchmaker, jeweler, Salem.

J. V. Dustin of Eugene, was an out of town visitor in Salem Tuesday.

Dance Moose hall Wednesday night.

C. W. Kells of Portland spent Tuesday in Salem while attending to business and visiting friends.

B. P. O. E. dance Tuesday evening Jan. 20th for Elks and ladies.

Howard Foster Players, tomorrow and Thursday, Bligh theater.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Harris of Brooks were Salem visitors Monday.

C. N. Neesham about Baby Chicks, 113 State St. Phone 460.

A. J. Parrish of Oregon City was a business visitor in Salem Tuesday.

Rigdon company, leading funeral directors, Superior service. Moderate prices.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Chase of Creswell are spending a brief visit with friends in Salem.

1920 Calendars for practical use. Homer H. Smith, McCormack bldg.

Howard Foster Players, tomorrow and Thursday, Bligh theater.

L. Parrish of Crook county was a business visitor in Salem Monday.

Don't forget to see Bishop's display of Oregon made goods, starting Monday Jan. 19 until Sat. Jan. 24.

Mrs. P. A. Greenwood is here from Boulder, Colo., for a several weeks visit at the home of Mrs. John Darby.

Dance Moose hall Wednesday night.

Charles L. Ogle, a realty broker of Woodburn, was transacting business in the Capital city Tuesday.

Elmer R. Spencer of Portland attended to business matters in Salem Tuesday.

"Keep the Boy on the Farm" is a film that answers that great boy question. At the Bligh.

Hear Hilda Lhevinne, pianist, and Estelle Gray, violinist, world famed artists at First Christian church, Wed. Jan. 21st. Admission 75c.

The body of Vera Savage, who died here Monday, was shipped Monday night by the Terwilliger establishment to the Williams, where the funeral services and burial will be held. Miss Savage was 15 years of age.

Considerable excitement resulted from a chimney blaze, early Monday evening, at the home of Mrs. Sam Hayden, corner of Cottage and Ferry streets, when the fire department was summoned to extinguish the blaze. No damage was done.

A film of excellent merit, keen interest and great benefit to boys and parents, "Keep the Boy on the Farm," showing at the Bligh.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davey have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Weir of Bethany, Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Weir are enroute to California, and are visiting old friends in Oregon while on the way.

Boy F. Shields, administrator of the Mary I. Hensel estate has filed final account in the matter of the estate. Receipts of $1249.23 and disbursements of $1043.45 are shown. The balance of $205.78 is involved in final settlement hearing for which request is made.

W. C. Frazer of Gervais escaped without injury Monday, when his automobile struck a street car going on Chemeketa street. Mr. Frazer was driving south on Capitol, and the car went into the street.

"Keep the Boy on the Farm" is a feature film worth seeing by all, especially the farmer. At the Bligh.

Mrs. Ralph White will entertain her senior dancing pupils with an informal social dancing party following their regular classes, at Cotillon hall Wednesday night.

Dance Moose hall Wednesday night.

Basket social given by the Neighbors of Woodcraft and Woodmen of the World at their hall, Friday night, Jan. 23, 1920.

A. G. Wilhoit and family leave Salem Wednesday night, for Los Angeles, where they will make their home. Mr. Wilhoit was formerly an employee of the Charles K. Spaulding Logging company.

You must see that wonderful film, "Keep the Boy on the Farm," now showing at the Bligh.

Friends of Mrs. William H. Brunk will be pleased to learn that she has recovered from her recent illness, and is enjoying a visit at the home of Mrs. Byron F. Brunk, 1130 Pine street.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Clough, 1123 Broadway, spent Tuesday in Canby where they attended the funeral of Albert Snell, uncle to Mrs. Clough. Mr. Snell died at his home in Canby Sunday.

Howard Foster Players, tomorrow and Thursday, Bligh theater.

A social hour will follow the regular prayer meeting at the First Presbyterian church Thursday. All members of the congregation are invited to attend.

A garage and new stable will be erected on premises on east Nob Hill, between Oxford and Russell streets, owned by J. A. Laycock, according to a building permit issued Monday by City Recorder Race. Costs of constructing the garage and stable will be approximately $500.

The body of Mrs. Mary E. Leet, formerly of this city, who died Sunday at her home in Portland, is expected to arrive at Turner at 11:30 a. m. Wednesday. Burial services will be held at the Twin Oaks cemetery, where Mrs. Leet will be laid to rest near her first husband, who died several years ago. The burial is in charge of Rigdon & Son.

The purchase of 1000 feet of 2 1/2 inch hose, 200 feet of 1 1/2 inch hose and 200 feet of 3-4 inch hose has been purchased by the city for the fire department, according to a report made to the city council Monday night by the fire and water committee. The purchase was approved by the council.

The following rooming houses and hotels were named in the list the city treasurer, was instructed, Monday night by the council to issue licenses to: Hotel Bligh, White House, Glen, Eldridge, Kenilworth, Riverview, Washington, Salem Lodging house, Oregon Hotel, Richmond, Klinger and Cottle.

The total resources of the city are $109,077.07, according to the annual report of the city recorder for 1919, submitted to the city council and approved by them at their meeting Monday night. The total liabilities are: $513,050, and the total property owned by the city is $386,500.

A street offer, loaned to Yamhill county for use in Monmouth last summer, was sold to Yamhill county for $125 by the city council, meeting Monday night. The sale followed an offer of a representative of the county to make an agreeable settlement for the offer.

Anderson-Brown and the Capital National bank, the two leading basketball teams in the Commercial league, will play Monday night in the Y. M. C. A. Hauser Brothers and the United States National bank teams will play the second game of the evening.

After final review by County Judge Bushy, the Helen Howard estate has been settled and closed and W. M. Brown, the administrator, has been discharged from his position of trust. Richard Howard, 30, is the sole heir of the estate.

Glen Purvine, who is taking a special course in tractor and gas engine work at the Oregon Agricultural college, was the week end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Purvine, 1009 Fifth street. He was accompanied by Carl Carson, a student at the college.

The Willamette university glee club gave a successful concert in Jefferson last Friday night, and another in Monroe on Saturday night. This week they will go to Chemawa and Athena, and the latter part of next week will start on a trip thru eastern Oregon and southern Washington, giving twelve or fourteen concerts. The club is stronger than ever this year, having a large number of last year's men and several who have returned from Uncle Sam's service. The reorganized quartet is especially pleasing.

Members of the Turner Christian church were entertained at the home of Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Putnam, of the Court street Christian church, Friday evening. Mr. Putnam preaches at the Turner church every Sunday afternoon. The affair was in the form of a birthday social, the anniversary of six members falling in January. The house was prettily decorated, green fern being used in abundance. The Sunday school presented Rev. and Mrs. Putnam with a beautiful jardiniere. About 45 persons motored from Turner to attend.

Following the funeral services at the First Methodist church at Turner, Saturday, Mrs. Irene Hillory was laid to rest in the Twin Oaks cemetery. Rev. Aubrey Clark conducted the service. Mrs. Hillory died at Brownsville Thursday. Besides her husband she is survived by one son, Lloyd, of Brownsville; two sisters, Mrs. Cary McQuinn of Portland and Mrs. Emma Howell of Portland, and five brothers, O. P. Cornelius of Turner, Elmer L. Cornelius of Eugene, O. J. Cornelius of Spots, Wash., Green Cornelius of Colfax, Wash., and W. G. Cornelius of Pullman, Wash.

Friday afternoon of last week an informal recital was given by eight of Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby's young pupils, at the studio, 679 North

Cottage street. Preceding the program a short game of questions, to be answered in musical numbers, was enjoyed, following which a number of solos and duets were given by Margaret Doughton, Bertha Ann Bullock, Margery Hewett, Kenneth Hewett, Marie Paine, Blanche Hackett, Lillian Lyman and Edna Kugel. Miss Irma Keefer, a fourth year progressive pupil of Mrs. Darby, was invited to play for the entertainment of the pupils and visitors and gave "The Rustling of Spring" by Sinding and "Waltz in A Flat" by Chopin in her usual brilliant style. The evening closed with a blackboard drill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hutchason, 1045 North Church street, returned Monday from Portland having motored to the metropolis to see General Pershing during his brief visit there. While in Portland Mr. Hutchason attended a luncheon at Hotel Portland in honor of General Meuser N. Azgopetian, the Armenian commander who fought with General Allenby in the campaign in the old Land during the late war, and who was present at the triumphant entry of the British army into Jerusalem.

Although epidemics of Spanish influenza are reported current in eastern states Dr. R. Pomeroy, city health officer, Tuesday said that there are no cases in Salem that have come to his knowledge. That there might not be a recurrence of the disease here he urged every precaution against it, and advised that the slightest indication of the disease be given immediate attention.

The last will and testament of Herman Tarks, sometimes known as "Tarks" or "Tareks," has been admitted to probate. Edward Tarks has been appointed administrator in an order signed by Judge Bushy. H. Tasto, H. Neiderkroner and Robert Gillich being named as appraisers. The estate consists of real and personal property valued at $12,000 and yields and annual income of $250. The administrator furnished bond in the sum of $16,570.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill, OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN, Ladd & Bush Bank Building, Cor. State and Commercial Sts., Salem.

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY

IF MRS. ALICE CHASE WILL CALL AT J. C. PENNEY & CO. SHE WILL FIND WHAT SHE LOST.

It's Real Coffee

Hills Bros. Red Can Coffee

Copyright 1919 by Hills Bros.

40th Anniversary

No Reserve Special Discount on all Merchandise No Reserve

BLANKETS
Just what you need. Heavy-weight Cotton, 60x80

ON SALE NEXT WEDNESDAY $2.69

SPECIAL REDUCTIONS
Cloaks, Suits, Dresses
Our entire stock of strictly high quality ready to wear at special discounts, Anniversary Week

HOPE MUSLIN Owing to the scarcity of Cotton Goods and being difficult to secure, and wanting to give every patron an opportunity—Limit 10 yards to a customer—None to merchants.
29c yard

HERE ARE JUST A FEW OF THE MANY ITEMS OF THE 40TH ANNIVERSARY PRICES

These are taken at random throughout the store. Remember—SPECIAL DISCOUNT ON ALL MERCHANDISE, including the advance Spring Shipments already received, and whatever new merchandise arrives during this BIG EVENT.

Java Rice powder	35c	Fruit of the Loom Muslin	35c Yard
Pears Unscented soap	12c	Lonsdale Muslin	35c Yard
Bayer Aspirin, 24 tablets	20c	Devonshire	39c Yard
Bayer Aspirin, 12 tablets	10c	Ozara Outing Flannel high grade	39c Yard
Mary Garden perfume	$1.98	Men's heavy cotton Munsing Wear suits	$1.85
Odorono, small	19c	Spool silk	7c
Odorono, medium	59c	All wool Auto Robes, made in Oregon City	$9.15
Colgate's Talcum, all scents	15c	Men's black cashmere hose	39c
Pepsodent Tooth Paste	32c	Royal Worcester corsets	$2.19
Colgate's tooth paste, small	9c	Model Brassieres, 75c grade	59c
Colgate's tooth paste, large	19c	Ladies' sweaters	ONE-HALF PRICE
Pebeco tooth paste	32c	Garza 9-4 sheeting	50c Yard
Men's wrk shirts, in chambray and cheviot, not mail order shirts, but heavyweight and full cut	83c	Garza pillow cases, 45x36	39c each
Long Cloth	39c Yard	150 Berkeley cambric	49c Yard
		Jap Crepes, white, 30 inch	45c Yard

LADIES BATH ROBES
Every garment of the "Meyers Good Goods Quality"
LESS 20 PER CENT

ANNIVERSARY WEEK
LESS 20 PER CENT

GEORGETTE CREPES
A new shipment just in
FANCY GEORGETTES
Selling to $5.00 a yard
Anniversary Week $2.59

Wool Plaids 48c yd

36 inches wide
Just the Thing for Children's School Wear

You Can Always Do Better At

Meyers
GOOD GOODS

Who Always Do Better By You

The Morning Hours are best for Shopping.

Devonshire Cloth

32 inches wide
Better Than Gingham for Utility Wear

You Can Always Do Better At

Meyers
GOOD GOODS

Who Always Do Better By You

OREGON
WILLIAM FARNUM
IN
"ONE STAR RANGER"
NOW