The Anderson and Brown quintet team of the Commercial Basketball league last night maintained their lead as another step toward championship honors, when they took the 14 to 12. From the start the game was hard-fought and close and the final outcome was decided by a basket in the last minute of play.

Hauser Bros. had something of a walk-away in the second game of the evening and had little trouble in defeating the United States National bank aggregation, 23 to 11.

Both games were spectacular from the standpoint of floor work and shooting and gave promise of more interesting games to come. The next games are scheduled for February 3, when the Capital National and United States National bank five will vie in the opener and the Hauser Bros. and Anderson and Brown squads meet for the second game of the evening.

The lineups in last night's games were:
Anderson-Brown—Harra and Brown, forwards; Gosser, center; Clark and Patterson, guards.
United States National—Hart and Socolofsky, forwards; Turner, center; H. guards.
Hauser Brothers—Hayes and Rhelndis, forwards; Springer, center; Socolofsky, guards.
United States National bank—Harrell and Lucas, forwards; Jaskoski, center; Dr. Utter and DeLapp, guards.

The success of this particular tractor has been phenomenal. It has become the successful farmers' necessity.

With the present price of hay, grain and labor, and the uncertainty of the later, it is time to consider power farming.

Ask any FORDSON owner what it costs him to farm with a FORDSON and his low figures will surprise you.

The Corn Show on Friday will be a good opportunity to talk direct with FORDSON owners and for FORDSON owners to exchange ideas.

The FORDSON FAMILY will be out in force. If you are a member of this family or going to become a member, ask for a FORDSON button.
