OLIVE THOMAS IN "THE SPITE BRIDE" NOW

Major F. W. Leadbetter of Portland, president of the Oregon Pulp and Paper Co., spent Wednesday in Salem inspecting construction work on the new paper mill. Work is to be pushed so that manufacturing operations will be well under way before summer.

By Order of County Judge Bushey, the will of W. W. Spayd was admitted to probate Wednesday, and J. G. Helms appointed administrator of the estate. Hazelle Gearhart, Robin Day and F. L. Wood are named as appraisers.

The funeral for Mrs. Itoby J. Stroud, 75, who died at her home in Rosedale Tuesday, was held at the Rosedale Friends church at two o'clock Thursday afternoon. Burial was in the Rosedale cemetery.

"Lefty" Schroeder and Fred Garner, both well known to baseball fans of the Pacific northwest, were Salem visitors Thursday. The two knights of the chalk diamond were here to confer with Biddle Bishop who is working energetically for the establishment of a ball club here.

A meeting of the Salem chapter, American War mothers, will be held in the Commercial club chambers Saturday January 24, at 2 o'clock. It is necessary that all mothers attend, and those who have not paid their membership fee of $1 are requested to come prepared to do so, so that the per capita check may be forwarded to the national at once.

Members of Sedgwick post No. 10, G. A. R., and other Civil war veterans are asked to turn out and attend the funeral of Comrade Eli Ballard, Co. F, 7th Minnesota volunteers, at the undertaking parlors of W. T. Rigdon & Son, at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. Interment will be in the Grand Army circle. The call was issued by J. M. Watson, commander, and D. Webster, adjutant.

R. E. Smith, B. Gixby and Syd Evans have filed appraisers inventory in the matter of the guardianship of the Eskelson minors, Oscar, Harold, Laura, Orville and Hoover. Real property to the value of $3566.85 is noted, from which other estate interests to the amount of $2150.66 are deducted, leaving $1355.98 as the minors' share.

The largest turkey shooting match of the season will take place at Middle Grove nursery, four miles east of Salem, on Garden road, on Sunday, January 25. There will be over 50 choice turkeys beside ducks. Lunch and ammunition on grounds. Grounds are good with Western automatic trap. J. C. Herren will conduct the match. 21

The social meeting of the Ladies Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will be held Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. D. A. Hodge, 158 North 12th street. Hostesses for the gathering are Mrs. Hodge, Mrs. H. A. Sonne, Mrs. G. W. Shand, Mrs. J. A. Pooler, Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, Mrs. Wittschen.

Sam Richey, 15, the boy whose jail has been the city hall, and streets of Salem, for about two weeks, was sent to his home in Grants Pass Wednesday night by Parole Officer Compton. Sam was sent here for forging a check, but because of failure of authorities to send commitment papers with him, he was given every liberty, and finally was freed Wednesday to return to his home.

A shooting match will be held at Middle Grove nursery, four miles east of Salem, Sunday January 25. There will be ducks and 50 large turkeys, and the grounds are one of the best in the country. There will be hot lunch served, and ammunition may be secured at the grounds. J. C. Herren, proprietor, invites all persons interested in the match to attend.

H. H. Corey, of the Oregon public service commission will probably attend the session of the Idaho commission at Boise, February 10, as the representative of the Oregon commission when the application of the Idaho Power company for an increase in its power rates is to be up for a hearing. The Idaho Power company operates in both Idaho and Oregon and its application for increased rates applies to its business in both states.

After thirty minutes deliberation, a jury in department No. 1, Judge Kelly's court returned a verdict, Wednesday in favor of the defendant Mattie Leland, in the case of Mrs. E. N. Erickson against Mattie Leland. In this case, Mrs. Erickson, who is an elderly woman, claimed $10,000 as damages for the alleged alienation of the affection of E. N. Erickson, 75.

ENLIGHTEN THY DAUGHTER

Is the 7 reel, all star cast picture which will be shown at the armory tonight for the benefit of the Abandoned babies of Oregon. It is the most tremendous moral force the screen has ever seen.

Two girls—Ruth, brought up in the atmosphere of loving parents who guide her every footstep; Lillian, brought up in an equally loving atmosphere, but through a sense of false modesty the mother hesitated in enlightening her daughter—until it was too late.

The disaster that befalls Lillian and the influence it works directly upon Ruth's life tells a powerful story that will never be forgotten. It is a story that we see in everyday life, but goes unobserved—until brought home forcibly to us. "Enlighten Thy Daughter" reveals it to you with a shock. It handles a delicate problem in a way that tells the truth, missing nothing, yet without offense.

by Miss Leland who is Mr. Erickson's niece.

C. A. Parks of Salem, who manages the water and gas company there is registered at the Seward, says the Oregonian. Mr. Parks occupies a small office down near Mill creek, and his standing joke is, "When you are down my way, drop in." Mr. Parks is responsible for the kind of water that is served to legislators at the statehouse, and his bubble fountain was viciously bitten last week.

Eli Seward, 82, a retired farmer, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. F. Seward, 1855 Mill street, Wednesday evening. The body is at Rigdon & Son's undertaking establishment. Arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made. Mr. Ballard besides his daughter, is survived by two grandchildren, Morris Seward, and Stella Seward.

Mrs. Dora Craig, 42, who came to a local hospital 10 days ago from Clatskanie, Ore., receive treatment for a severe illness, died Monday. The funeral was held at the chapel of Webb & Church company at 12:30 o'clock Wednesday morning, burial following in I. O. O. F. cemetery. Mrs. Craig is survived by her husband Ed C. Craig and two daughters aged seven and 10 years.

Divorce proceedings have been instituted by C. L. Burson against Fannie Burson. The couple were married at Yreka, California, July 3, 1912. Burson alleges that his wife deserted him, June 12, 1916, and that she has refused to return since that time. The petition states that no children were born of the marriage and that no property rights are involved.

In an order signed by Judge Percy R. Kelly Tuesday, the suit of D. Samuels and P. N. Anderson against Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, is dismissed from the circuit court for Marion county. The plaintiffs' attorneys presented a stipulation showing that the case had been compromised by agreement between the parties involved. The case concerned damages sought by a Salem firm of auto dealers. It being alleged that a shipment of automobiles had been injured in transportation.

At a meeting of Central Temple No. 11, Pythian Sisters, Tuesday night, installing officer Mae Radcliffe installed the following officers: Mary Anderson, past chief; Cecelia Barbour, most excellent chief; Florence Shipp, excellent senior; Nellie M. Cronise, excellent junior; Nina B. Rowland, manager of the temple; Susie Parmentier, mistress of records and correspondence; Emma Summerfield, mistress of finance; Ida M. Opposition to the advent of Japanese into this country, and to granting the right of citizenship to children of Japanese, Chinese and Hindu born in this country, was voiced at the meeting of the Marion County Women's Republican club at the meeting in the Commercial club which began at 2:30 Thursday afternoon. The 1920 was continued from the last meeting of the club and is attracting a great deal of interest among women interested in vital topics of the day.

Instructions of the court to find for the plaintiff, terminated the suit of W. H. Smit against A. A. Colvert, in Judge Kelly's court, department No. 1, Thursday morning. The jury's corresponding verdict was, therefore, returned against A. A. Colvert. In this case, the defendant had made allegation that a certain note to the amount of $300 and signed in favor of the plaintiff had been so signed under duress. Due to the fact that the case was based purely upon legal findings, plaintiff motioned for an instructed verdict.

New Years greetings, long delayed, were received Thursday by manager T. H. McCrography of the Commercial Club, from Philippe Baets, in Belgium. Mr. Baets was a member of a party from Belgium that came through this city several months ago investigating the possibilities of growing flax and producing linen here. It is believed here that their investigation may result in the recommendation that Belgian capital be directed to this valley for this pursuit.

An action instituted by the T. A. Livesley company, against Strauss and Company of London, England, attempts to recover $5066.10 from the British firm of hop brokers. The complaint alleges that the money was paid to Strauss and Company for the benefit of the Salesmen firm and that terms of the conditions involved were not lived up to. The T. A. Livesley company further claims that the British firm has refused to return the sum of money in question.
