

WEATHER FORECAST

Oregon: Tonight and Saturday fair, continued cold, gentle northeastern winds. Minimum, 19. Maximum, 42.

Capital Journal

CIRCULATION Average for Quarter Ending December 31, 1919 5458 Member Audit Bureau of Circulation Associated Press Full Leased Wire

FORTY-THIRD YEAR.—NO. 20.

SALEM, OREGON, FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1920.

TEN PAGES.

PRICE 2 CENTS.

HOLLAND REFUSES TO GIVE UP KAISER

HARDING SAYS YANKEE MONEY TO AID EUROPE

American Capital To Help Re-establish European Production As Business Propriety, Banker States.

Washington, Jan. 23.—American capital will be employed in aiding Europe to "get back to productive work" not because of attractive rates of interest, but to restore normal conditions and to open markets for American export.

Relief for the car shortage situation in the Pacific northwest promised by the federal railroad administration two weeks ago has failed to materialize.

Foreign Credits Valuable "European nations can produce many things which we either do not produce at all, or cannot produce as cheaply as they can," he continued.

TURKEY ENTERED WAR ON SIDE OF GERMANY THROUGH TRICKERY

VERA CRUZ HIT BY EARTHQUAKE BUT NONE HURT

Mexico City, Jan. 23.—Strong earthquake shocks were felt in the city of Vera Cruz from 3 to 5 o'clock this morning.

COMPTON SUCCEEDS TO POSITION AND VARNEY NEW PAROLE OFFICER

Changes To Be Effective Within Coming Two Weeks Will See Steiner Returned To State Hospital As Superintendent; Record As Warden Marked With Long List Of Efficient Reforms.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital here, who was placed in temporary charge of the state prison on the resignation of Warden Stevenson last May, will be succeeded as warden within the next two weeks by L. H. Compton, state parole officer, according to an announcement made by Governor Olcott today.

FORMER JUDGE HERE IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Thomas Luther Davidson, 36, former county judge, and for many years identified with civic and fraternal movements in the city, died at the home of his son, T. L. Davidson, Jr., in Morningside, Thursday evening.

KNIGHT BOARD AT VARRIANCE WITH DANIELS

Naval Advisory Body Unable To Support Award Of High Decorations To Officers Who Lost Ships In War

Washington, Jan. 23.—The Knight board is unable to agree with Secretary Daniels that naval officers who lost their ships through enemy submarine action and performed meritorious service in connection with such loss should be awarded high decorations.

LABOR SITUATION HERE HELD GOOD

The labor conditions in Salem are the best of any city on the coast, according to information issued Friday by City Recorder Race, head of the municipal labor bureau.

DAIRYMEN OF STATE ELECT HAWLEY HEAD

Eugene, Or., Jan. 23.—The State Dairymen's association before adjourning its annual session, elected the following officers for the current year:

Death Toll of Flu Epidemic Mounts Higher

Chicago, Jan. 23.—The epidemic of influenza and pneumonia from which more than 10,000 persons in Chicago are suffering today continued to spread but there was a slight decrease in the number of new cases reported.

Maldedy And Eupen Once More Under Belgian Rule

Brussels, Jan. 23.—The territories of Maldedy and Eupen, which had been annexed by Germany but were returned to Belgium January 19, under the peace treaty, now are under the absolute sovereignty of Belgium.

GOVERNOR COMPLETES SLAUGHTER OF BILLS; 41 FALL BEFORE AXE

Washington, Jan. 23.—Increase of approximately one-third in the base pay of all enlisted men in the navy and the coast guard, except recruits, is provided for in a bill passed today by the house and sent to the senate.

Steiner Resigns as Warden Of State Penitentiary Today

COMPTON SUCCEEDS TO POSITION AND VARNEY NEW PAROLE OFFICER

Changes To Be Effective Within Coming Two Weeks Will See Steiner Returned To State Hospital As Superintendent; Record As Warden Marked With Long List Of Efficient Reforms.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital here, who was placed in temporary charge of the state prison on the resignation of Warden Stevenson last May, will be succeeded as warden within the next two weeks by L. H. Compton, state parole officer, according to an announcement made by Governor Olcott today.

LABOR SITUATION HERE HELD GOOD

DAIRYMEN OF STATE ELECT HAWLEY HEAD

Eugene, Or., Jan. 23.—The State Dairymen's association before adjourning its annual session, elected the following officers for the current year:

Death Toll of Flu Epidemic Mounts Higher

Chicago, Jan. 23.—The epidemic of influenza and pneumonia from which more than 10,000 persons in Chicago are suffering today continued to spread but there was a slight decrease in the number of new cases reported.

Maldedy And Eupen Once More Under Belgian Rule

GOVERNOR COMPLETES SLAUGHTER OF BILLS; 41 FALL BEFORE AXE

Washington, Jan. 23.—Increase of approximately one-third in the base pay of all enlisted men in the navy and the coast guard, except recruits, is provided for in a bill passed today by the house and sent to the senate.

When Governor Olcott Thursday afternoon completed his labors over the list of bills ground out by the legislative mill last week, forty-one measures were dead, laid low by the executive veto, and the remaining fifty-six had been permitted to go their way rejoicing toward a safe refuge on the statute books of the state.

Steiner Resigns as Warden Of State Penitentiary Today

COMPTON SUCCEEDS TO POSITION AND VARNEY NEW PAROLE OFFICER

Changes To Be Effective Within Coming Two Weeks Will See Steiner Returned To State Hospital As Superintendent; Record As Warden Marked With Long List Of Efficient Reforms.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital here, who was placed in temporary charge of the state prison on the resignation of Warden Stevenson last May, will be succeeded as warden within the next two weeks by L. H. Compton, state parole officer, according to an announcement made by Governor Olcott today.

LABOR SITUATION HERE HELD GOOD

DAIRYMEN OF STATE ELECT HAWLEY HEAD

Eugene, Or., Jan. 23.—The State Dairymen's association before adjourning its annual session, elected the following officers for the current year:

Death Toll of Flu Epidemic Mounts Higher

Chicago, Jan. 23.—The epidemic of influenza and pneumonia from which more than 10,000 persons in Chicago are suffering today continued to spread but there was a slight decrease in the number of new cases reported.

Maldedy And Eupen Once More Under Belgian Rule

GOVERNOR COMPLETES SLAUGHTER OF BILLS; 41 FALL BEFORE AXE

Washington, Jan. 23.—Increase of approximately one-third in the base pay of all enlisted men in the navy and the coast guard, except recruits, is provided for in a bill passed today by the house and sent to the senate.

When Governor Olcott Thursday afternoon completed his labors over the list of bills ground out by the legislative mill last week, forty-one measures were dead, laid low by the executive veto, and the remaining fifty-six had been permitted to go their way rejoicing toward a safe refuge on the statute books of the state.

Steiner Resigns as Warden Of State Penitentiary Today

COMPTON SUCCEEDS TO POSITION AND VARNEY NEW PAROLE OFFICER

Changes To Be Effective Within Coming Two Weeks Will See Steiner Returned To State Hospital As Superintendent; Record As Warden Marked With Long List Of Efficient Reforms.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital here, who was placed in temporary charge of the state prison on the resignation of Warden Stevenson last May, will be succeeded as warden within the next two weeks by L. H. Compton, state parole officer, according to an announcement made by Governor Olcott today.

LABOR SITUATION HERE HELD GOOD

DAIRYMEN OF STATE ELECT HAWLEY HEAD

Eugene, Or., Jan. 23.—The State Dairymen's association before adjourning its annual session, elected the following officers for the current year:

Death Toll of Flu Epidemic Mounts Higher

Chicago, Jan. 23.—The epidemic of influenza and pneumonia from which more than 10,000 persons in Chicago are suffering today continued to spread but there was a slight decrease in the number of new cases reported.

Maldedy And Eupen Once More Under Belgian Rule

GOVERNOR COMPLETES SLAUGHTER OF BILLS; 41 FALL BEFORE AXE

Washington, Jan. 23.—Increase of approximately one-third in the base pay of all enlisted men in the navy and the coast guard, except recruits, is provided for in a bill passed today by the house and sent to the senate.

When Governor Olcott Thursday afternoon completed his labors over the list of bills ground out by the legislative mill last week, forty-one measures were dead, laid low by the executive veto, and the remaining fifty-six had been permitted to go their way rejoicing toward a safe refuge on the statute books of the state.

Steiner Resigns as Warden Of State Penitentiary Today

COMPTON SUCCEEDS TO POSITION AND VARNEY NEW PAROLE OFFICER

Changes To Be Effective Within Coming Two Weeks Will See Steiner Returned To State Hospital As Superintendent; Record As Warden Marked With Long List Of Efficient Reforms.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital here, who was placed in temporary charge of the state prison on the resignation of Warden Stevenson last May, will be succeeded as warden within the next two weeks by L. H. Compton, state parole officer, according to an announcement made by Governor Olcott today.

LABOR SITUATION HERE HELD GOOD

DAIRYMEN OF STATE ELECT HAWLEY HEAD

Eugene, Or., Jan. 23.—The State Dairymen's association before adjourning its annual session, elected the following officers for the current year:

Death Toll of Flu Epidemic Mounts Higher

Chicago, Jan. 23.—The epidemic of influenza and pneumonia from which more than 10,000 persons in Chicago are suffering today continued to spread but there was a slight decrease in the number of new cases reported.

Maldedy And Eupen Once More Under Belgian Rule

GOVERNOR COMPLETES SLAUGHTER OF BILLS; 41 FALL BEFORE AXE

Washington, Jan. 23.—Increase of approximately one-third in the base pay of all enlisted men in the navy and the coast guard, except recruits, is provided for in a bill passed today by the house and sent to the senate.

When Governor Olcott Thursday afternoon completed his labors over the list of bills ground out by the legislative mill last week, forty-one measures were dead, laid low by the executive veto, and the remaining fifty-six had been permitted to go their way rejoicing toward a safe refuge on the statute books of the state.

Steiner Resigns as Warden Of State Penitentiary Today

COMPTON SUCCEEDS TO POSITION AND VARNEY NEW PAROLE OFFICER

Changes To Be Effective Within Coming Two Weeks Will See Steiner Returned To State Hospital As Superintendent; Record As Warden Marked With Long List Of Efficient Reforms.

Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent of the state hospital here, who was placed in temporary charge of the state prison on the resignation of Warden Stevenson last May, will be succeeded as warden within the next two weeks by L. H. Compton, state parole officer, according to an announcement made by Governor Olcott today.

LABOR SITUATION HERE HELD GOOD

DAIRYMEN OF STATE ELECT HAWLEY HEAD

Eugene, Or., Jan. 23.—The State Dairymen's association before adjourning its annual session, elected the following officers for the current year:

Death Toll of Flu Epidemic Mounts Higher

Chicago, Jan. 23.—The epidemic of influenza and pneumonia from which more than 10,000 persons in Chicago are suffering today continued to spread but there was a slight decrease in the number of new cases reported.

Maldedy And Eupen Once More Under Belgian Rule

GOVERNOR COMPLETES SLAUGHTER OF BILLS; 41 FALL BEFORE AXE

Washington, Jan. 23.—Increase of approximately one-third in the base pay of all enlisted men in the navy and the coast guard, except recruits, is provided for in a bill passed today by the house and sent to the senate.

When Governor Olcott Thursday afternoon completed his labors over the list of bills ground out by the legislative mill last week, forty-one measures were dead, laid low by the executive veto, and the remaining fifty-six had been permitted to go their way rejoicing toward a safe refuge on the statute books of the state.