

Bearcat--O. A. C. Game Promises To Be Battle Royal

AGGIES FAVORITES BUT HARD BATTLE FREELY PREDICTED

Victory for the Oregon Agriculture college basketball quintet when they tangle with the Willamette Bearcats on the armory floor this evening, is going to come only after a hard and bitter fight, if at all.

That's the straight "dope," direct from Coach Mathews and his aggregation of scrappers, who have been putting in some vicious ticks since the occasion of their debut into conference athletics and the consequent double-bloking they received at the hands of the Whitman college five here last week.

Aggies Favorite.
The Aggies are popular favorites for tonight's game by reason of their victories over Whitman during the Oregon tour of the Missionaries and because of the greater experience of the orange and black players. On the O. A. C. five are a trio that have seen action on ever conference college floor in the past few years and who are rated among the best on the coast. They are Hubbard and Bearden, guards, and Stinson, forward.

What the Bearcats will be able to accomplish against this galaxy of stars is hard to predict, but the locals will appear as a far more finished and formidable team than when they played Whitman. Every night for the past week Mathews has been putting his cohorts through a series of spouts calculated to take the kinks out of the arms that panned wildly into space in the dash with the Missionaries, steady the nerves that splintered under the attacks of stare fright in their initial contests, and perfect an offensive system which will carry the ball within reach of the elusive hoops.

Willamette Stronger.
"Willamette is going to have a different team from the one of a week ago," the coach said this morning. "Hargis' Aggies are going to earn every point they make."

Physically all of the Bearcats regulars are in good shape and the team will start the game at maximum strength, when Dean H. Walker, coach of last year's conference championship team of the University of Oregon, blows the opening whistle. Walker, who is rated as perhaps the best basketball official in the northwest, will referee the game here as well as the return contest in Corvallis, Saturday night.

The probable lineups for tonight's game are:
O. A. C. Willamette
Gurley F Wapato
Stinson F Irvine
Hubbard C Jackson
Bearden G Borey
Reardon G McKelrick
The game will be called promptly at 8 o'clock.

"Bill" Haward Driving Classy Bug, Stops Here

Bodily, "Bill" Haward, the "grand old man" of the University of Oregon, where he has been athletic trainer and track coach for the past 12 years, was in Salem for something more than an hour Thursday evening. In all other respects "Bill" was far, far away, his mind on the highway and byways which lead to the Sylvan nooks of hill and dale, and likewise on the means of locomotion said bits of paradise.

The reason for "Bill's" far away look stood on State street, rear wheel against the curb, the center of an admiring throng of motor enthusiasts—a spick-and-span, brand new Templar roadster, the classiest thing on four wheels that has rolled over Salem streets in many a moon.

The Templar is the gift of the Alumnae association of the university, presented to the veteran athlete in appreciation of his past services and as a reward for his decision to remain at Oregon, despite tempting offers of at least two big institutions to transplant him to one of their campuses. Friday "Bill" went to Portland to bring the "baby" home and he left Salem at 7:30 in the evening for Eugene, shaking his head dubiously at the little sign pasted on the windshield before his eyes. Here's what it said:
"Don't drive this car over 25 miles an hour for the first 500 miles."
And the speedometer had only registered some 20 miles since "Bill" took possession.

1920 Yale Coach To Work Without Salary, From Eli

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 23.—T. A. D. Jones, who will be head football coach at Yale next fall, will receive no salary, it was announced today. He is loaned by his employers at Seattle, Wash., who are Yale men, with full salary paid. The association will pay the expenses of Mr. Jones.

SALEM HIGH LOOPERS LEAVE ON INVASION OF SOUTHERN TOWNS

Following up their victories over the McMinnville and Eugene high school fives, the Salem high school basketball team left today to pit their strength against the quintets of the of the Corvallis and Albany high schools, both of which institutions are rated as having aggregations which are to be strong contenders for the valley championship.

Tonight the Salemites will play in Corvallis and will go on to Albany for the second game Saturday.
While not openly predicting victories for his boys, J. G. Schott, the new coach of the local team, says that they can be expected to give a good account of themselves on the trip. Besides the coach seven men are making the trip. They are: Schaefer and A. Gill, forwards; Boise, center; E. Gill and Ashby, guards; Jones and Jack Randall, substitutes.

The boys will return to Salem Sunday morning.

Portland Club To Train At Ontario This Season

Portland, Or., Jan. 23.—The Portland baseball club will train this year at Ontario, Cal., Judge W. W. McCredie, president of the club, announced.

J. D. McDonald, manager of the Ontario baseball team, recently invited the Portland ball tossers to come there, and telegraphed, accepting the terms stipulated by McCredie. The advance guard of the players will arrive in Ontario March 10.

WASHINGTON WINS FROM OREGON IN FIRST CONTEST

Seattle, Wash., Jan. 23.—The University of Washington won its initial game of the northwest conference basketball season here last night, defeating the University of Oregon quintet by a score of 35 to 26. Both teams played fast games, marked by speedy footwork, accurate passing and good shooting. The teams meet here again tonight.

The Marshfield chamber of commerce is uncovering a lot of names that were not found by the census enumerators.

BOXING

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 23.—Helmut Schuman of Tacoma and Eddie Shannon of California, rival claimants of the coast lightweight championship, boxed a great six round draw here last night. Schuman had an edge early in the bout, scoring a slight knockdown in the second round, but Shannon finished strong and the call was proper, inside experts agreed.
Joe Blais of Tacoma and Tom Woodhouse of Seattle, light heavyweights, boxed a draw in the six round semi-windup.

Colleges To Enter Into Big Indoor Track Meet

New York, Jan. 23.—Eleven universities and five colleges will compete for honors at the annual indoor track meet of the Middle A. C. at Madison Square Garden in February, according to preliminary plans made public today.

Among the institutions entering athletes are Yale, Harvard, Pennsylvania, Princeton, Cornell, Dartmouth, Syracuse, Georgetown, University of Missouri and University of California.

The California entry is Charles N. Paddock, whose short distance running at the inter-allied meet in Paris last year attracted considerable attention.

The entries from various athletic clubs in the east is unusually large and includes nearly all the better known runners.

Chicago Teachers Given Banket Raise In Wages

Chicago, Jan. 23.—Chicago school teachers, who yesterday appealed to the board of education for a sixty per cent wage increase, will receive a blanket raise of $400 to $500 per year, George P. Arnold, chairman of the board, announced today.

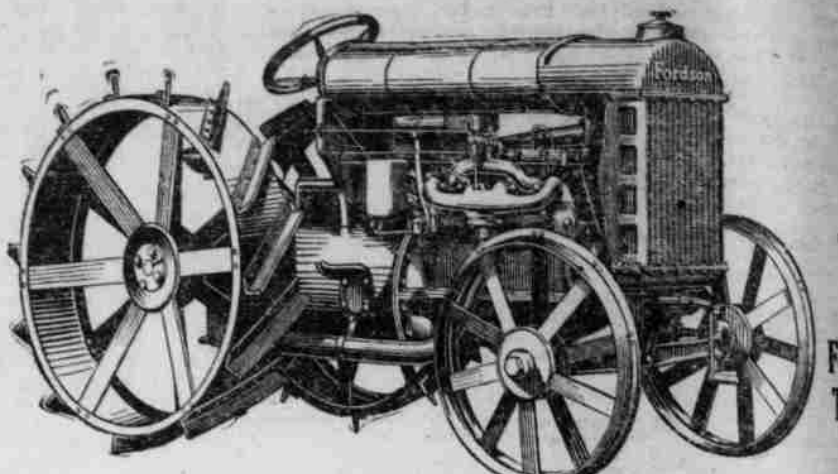

Representatives of the teachers indicated they would accept the award as temporary relief but would continue their fight to put teaching on a wage plane at least equal to that of common laborers. At present the laborers receive considerably more than highly trained teachers, the instructors claim.

LET'S TAKE RESHITZA
London, Jan. 23.—Lettish forces have captured Reshitza, a railroad center about 60 miles northeast of Divinsk according to an announcement of the Lettish press bureau received here today.
