

All Around Town

Count News

CURRENT EVENTS

Jan. 17-24—Home Products and Thrift week.
 Jan. 19-25—Sixth Annual Marion County Corn Show, Valley Motor Co., tractor department, State and Front streets.
 Jan. 24—Meeting of Salem War Mothers in Commercial club chambers, 3 p. m.
 Jan. 27-28—State meeting, National Farm Loan association.
 Feb. 10-14—Y. W. C. A. campaign in Salem.

Love, watchmaker, jeweler, Salem.
 Baby chicks 55¢ State. Tel. 400. 27*

Judge George G. Bingham returned Friday from Albany, after holding court for two days in department No. 2 at the Linn county seat.

Dance at armory tonight. 21*

Dance Auburn hall tonight. 21*

W. S. Low, David Eyre and H. R. Curtis, appraisers of the Jerry Graham estate, have filed appraisal report of personal and real property valued at $7565.

Pellet nets, values to $1. 53c yard. Hamilton's. 21*

Baby chicks 55¢ State. Tel. 400. 27*

Judge George Bingham has again been named "grandpa," a baby boy having arrived January 20, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Powell (Alice Bingham) of Woodburn.

Special prices on floor lamps. See window display. C. S. Hamilton. 21*

Dance at armory tonight. 21*

Mrs. James L. Coleman of Turner was a Salem visitor Saturday.

Fancy Scrims, good values at 50c, special 14c yard. Hamilton's. 21*

A. R. Hudson went to Portland Saturday to attend a ceremonial convocation by the Al Kader chapter of the Oregon Shriners.

Clearance sale on floor lamps. Money saving opportunity. C. S. Hamilton. 21*

Mrs. J. W. Cook of Portland visited friends and relatives in this city, Saturday, Salem being her former home.

Floor lamps sale prices for a few days, see window display. C. S. Hamilton. 21*

S. E. Kightlinger, who has been in California for the past three or four weeks, is expected to return home this first of the week.

Dance at armory tonight. 21*

County Judge Bushey has set February 23 as the time for review of administrator's final account in the estate of Amphield Cavanaugh.

According to an announcement made public Thursday, M. B. Briggs and P. K. Richardson, both of Salem, have been appointed as second lieutenants of the cadets at the Oregon Agricultural college.

There will be an open meeting of the Foresters of America next Tuesday evening at their hall on North Commercial street, to which the public is invited. George Cooper, deputy head casual of the Modern Woodmen of America, will deliver an address on South America.

The W. C. T. U. held an all day meeting at their hall on South Commercial street January 16, to celebrate the going into effect of the eighteenth constitutional amendment. It was observed with a song service, plans for future work and a social hour. The address of the afternoon was given by James Elvin of the Y. M. C. A.

Joseph H. Nicholson, local superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, left this city Friday for New York City, where he will attend a convention of all the company's superintendents. He will be gone from Salem for several weeks.

According to an announcement of Librarian Case Saturday the public library, State and Winter streets, will be open from nine in the morning to nine o'clock at night, until further notice. This longer session is made possible, she said, because of the cessation of work for a while by the carpenters engaged in repairing the building.

James Chester Yantis and Miss Lolla Bolter were married Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Bolter, 2014 Trade street. Rev. H. C. Stover, of the Central Congregational church, officiated. A few friends were present. Mr. and Mrs. Yantis left immediately on a short wedding trip. They will make their new home at 2315 Mill street, after February 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Haas left Saturday for San Francisco. At Eu-

gen they will be joined by Mr. Hauser's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd J. Hauser. Mr. Hauser said that he expected they would be gone two weeks, and that the trip would combine business and pleasure. The business of the four stores which the brothers maintain, has so greatly increased in the past two years, that Mr. Hauser said they found the trip a real necessity if the needs of their many friends and customers were to be properly served this year.

Rigdon company, leading funeral directors. Superior service. Moderate prices.

The Woman's Relief Corps aid society held an all day meeting at McCormack hall Thursday. An excellent dinner was served and a large amount of work was accomplished.

Attracted to this section by the progressiveness of this section of the Willamette valley, Mr. and Mrs. Volney Boyd of Billings, Mont., have purchased a tract of land near Salem and selected this city as their home town.

On Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. J. F. Dunlap, on North Fourth street, 45 ladies of the Jason Lee Memorial church were entertained at a "coffee" with Mrs. Dunlap and Mrs. F. L. Parker as hostesses.

NOTICE—Yeoman meets Saturday night instead of Friday night, Hurst, State street. By order of committee. 21*

Newton VanDalsem, state director for vocational education, returned Friday after a two weeks absence in Oakland, Cal., where he attended a conference of state and federal officials connected with teachers training in trades and industries.

J. N. Nicholson, superintendent of the Metropolitan agency in Salem, left Friday afternoon on a two weeks trip through eastern states. Mr. Nicholson will attend the annual convention of superintendents of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company in New York, which is in session January 28.

While working on the ground beside a new frame structure, Ralph Morgall, an employe of the Oregon Pulp and Paper mill, was seriously injured when a hammer fell from the edge of a building and struck him a glancing blow on the head. He was taken to his home immediately, but the wound is not thought to be serious.

Hearing of the last case on the January docket for circuit court was completed Saturday, when a jury in department No. 1, returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff awarding $1000 as damages in the suit of Dean vs. Cole. In this case, A. B. Cole had asked for a judgment of $8000 against R. Dean, claiming that the latter had misrepresented certain real estate in a deal involving property exchange.

The monthly silver tea of the Jason Lee church was held Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Effie Dunlap, North 4th street. An unusually large attendance spent the hours with needlework. Refreshments were served, early in the evening, after which Miss Vera Wright, daughter of the hostess, rendered several vocal solos. Mrs. Fred Barker assisted Mrs. Dunlap in entertaining.

Special meeting of Salem lodge No. 4, A. F. & A. M., this evening. Work in the M. M. degree. Visitors welcome. 21*

SAN FRANCISCO OPENS ARMS TO GEN. PERSHING

San Francisco, Jan. 24.—San Francisco opened wide its arms today in welcome to General John J. Pershing, an old friend.

For several years prior to his assignment in command of the punitive expedition into Mexico in 1915, General Pershing was stationed at the Presidio here in command of the Eighth brigade. His wife and three children met their death in the burning of their quarters at the Presidio post August 27, 1915.

A varied and comprehensive program confronted the general upon his arrival. An address to former service men and others at the Civic auditorium was the feature event.

Tomorrow General Pershing will deliver an address in the Greek theater of the University of California. He will leave late tomorrow for southern California.

PORTLAND HAS "FLU" CASES

Portland, Or., Jan. 24.—Eight cases of influenza were listed on board of health reports in Portland today, two having developed in the last twenty-four hours. None of the cases were serious. It was said. Reports from Yankton, five miles from St. Helena, states that there were thirty cases there, mostly among children. A number of cases were said to be developing in Klamath Falls.

SHIP'S FIRST TRIP FOR RELIEF

Portland, Or., Jan. 24.—The 5500-ton steel steamer Bearport, to be launched in two weeks from the ways of the Standifer shipyard in Vancouver, Wash., will make her first trip carrying flour and other northwest products for American relief, to the Euphrates river, S. C. Lancaster, state director of the Near East relief campaign, announced today.

BOOTLEGGERS GET FINES

San Francisco, Jan. 24.—Harry Farrell, Clarence Blaxter and Hal Cussen were fined $500 each in the United States district court here today for shipping two truck loads of whiskey into Lyle, Wash.

Circuit Court
 John Walling vs Hal J. Sisty. Application to place in motion book.
 Laura M. Glandon vs Frank Grai et al. Motion.
 Jennie Dupuis vs James A. Johnson et al. Complaint.
 H. W. Siml vs A. A. Colvert. Affidavit of defendant and Mrs. Beatrice Colvert.
 T. A. Livesley and John J. Roberts doing business under the firm name and style of T. A. Livesley and Company vs Edwin Strauss doing business under the firm name and style of Strauss and Company. Answer to amended complaint.
 Mary Erickson vs Mattie Leland. Defendant's cost bill.
 B. F. Boughey vs G. D. Treat. Motion to place on the trial docket.
 Laura M. Glandon vs John Glandon. Request for trial.
 Edna M. Shockley vs T. R. Shockley. Motion for trial.
 J. W. Ebner vs W. E. Loughmiller, et al. Request for trial.

Probate Court
 Dulle A. Stevens, estate. Oath.
Marriage License
 James C. Yantis, 29, of South 15th street, Salem, to Lorilla V. Bolter, 23, of 2016 Trade street.

Business Men To Learn How To Make Bread Monday Noon
 How the famous Cherry City breads and pastries are made will be shown to the business men of the city in a trade tour to be made to the Bakery Monday noon. The trade tour will take the place of the usual noon-day luncheon. The business men are asked to meet at the Commercial club at 12 o'clock, bringing from 12 to 15 cars to take the men to the bakery. Luncheon will be served at the bakery where the business men will be the guests of Roy Wise, owner.

SUGAR PROFITEER IS FINED
 Portland, Or., Jan. 24.—Jacob Rasmussen, a grocer, yesterday pleaded guilty to profiteering in sugar sales and was fined $50 in federal court. A. W. Anderson and L. F. Eckert, two other grocers accused of exceeding the sugar price limit, were given until Monday to plead.

DAILY STATISTICS
Born
 CRAVEN—To Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craven, 310 South Thirteenth street a daughter, January 18, 1920.

Dr. C. B. O'Neill
 OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
 Ladd & Bush Bank Building
 Cor. State and Commercial Sts.
 Phone 625 Salem Or.

Get a Harley-Davidson Bicycle
 There is nothing like a bicycle for real exercise and sport. It takes you out and it keeps you out. For real value, get a Harley-Davidson bicycle—for fine finish, real service and easy running qualities it has no equal. We have the complete line in stock. Come in and look them over.
 HARRY W. SCOTT
 147 South Commercial Street

SAN FRANCISCO OPENS ARMS TO GEN. PERSHING

San Francisco, Jan. 24.—San Francisco opened wide its arms today in welcome to General John J. Pershing, an old friend.

For several years prior to his assignment in command of the punitive expedition into Mexico in 1915, General Pershing was stationed at the Presidio here in command of the Eighth brigade. His wife and three children met their death in the burning of their quarters at the Presidio post August 27, 1915.

A varied and comprehensive program confronted the general upon his arrival. An address to former service men and others at the Civic auditorium was the feature event.

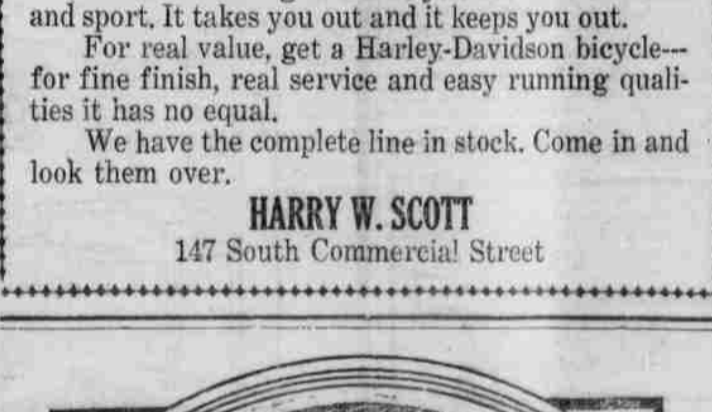

Tomorrow General Pershing will deliver an address in the Greek theater of the University of California. He will leave late tomorrow for southern California.

Studebaker
 SERIES 20
 SPECIAL SIX

THE 50-horsepower Studebaker SPECIAL SIX of 119-inch wheelbase satisfies every demand of the most critical purchaser of a five passenger car. Light in weight, beautiful in appearance, and economical to operate.

Its broad seats are luxuriously comfortable, while such features as second tier, an extension tonneau lamp, inside and outside door handles, Gypsy top with oval plate glass windows in rear and curtains opening with the door, add to the convenience of driver and passengers and give it individuality and quality that compel pride in ownership.

$1785 f. o. b. DETROIT
 MARION AUTOMOBILE CO.

551 Automobiles - 110 Car Loads
 Easy to Say Is It Not, But Facts Just the Same

Since commencing business in Salem 23 months ago we have sold 551 new cars, figuring five to the car, making 110 car loads.

There has been a shortage of cars for the past year. Had there been no shortage we would have had 700 to our credit.

This advertisement is not run for the purpose of bragging on our success, but merely for the purpose of showing the popularity of the Chevrolet car.

A low priced car with all the conveniences of a high priced car, that is light, durable, powerful and economical is what the majority of people are demanding, and the Salem territory bears out this statement by the above figures.

—CHEVROLET—
 "A SENSIBLE CAR AT A SENSIBLE PRICE"
 $857.20 F. O. B. SALEM.

Salem Automobile Co.
 F. G. Delano Salem—Dallas Distributors A. I. Eoff

Chevrolet and Scripps-Booth cars and Trucks and Republic Tires

In a letter signed by Superintendent J. H. Nicholson, of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company's office here, Bea R. Perkins, local agent, was highly commended for his record sales during the past year. Mr. Perkins' sales were high above his fellow salesmen, the letter said.

Found wandering around the streets bareheaded, Clare Hughes, 374 North 15th street, was arrested late Friday night by Officer Victor. Later Mr. Hughes was taken to his home, it probably will be committed to the insane asylum, reports of the officers at headquarters stated.

Floor lamps at about 20 percent discount for a few days. C. S. Hamilton. 21*

Meet Me at Meyers

THIS 40TH ANNIVERSARY Celebration is the greatest event we have ever held—in fact it is the most successful affair of its kind Salem ever had. From Tuesday morning, when we started the affair, up to these closing hours of the Celebration we have been too crowded and busy to render our usual standard of prompt service.

We have been surprised, ourselves, at the public response—but it has only proved the standing and confidence we hold with the public.

Business has moved so fast we could not keep up with our stocks. Some are sold out entirely, others badly shattered in sizes and lengths.

It will take a few days to restore us to normal, and while this is being done we shall throw out on

Special Tables

Short Lengths, Broken Lots and Sizes at Extra Special Prices to Make Final Clearanae

Watch for Yellow Price Cards—they mean dollars to you.

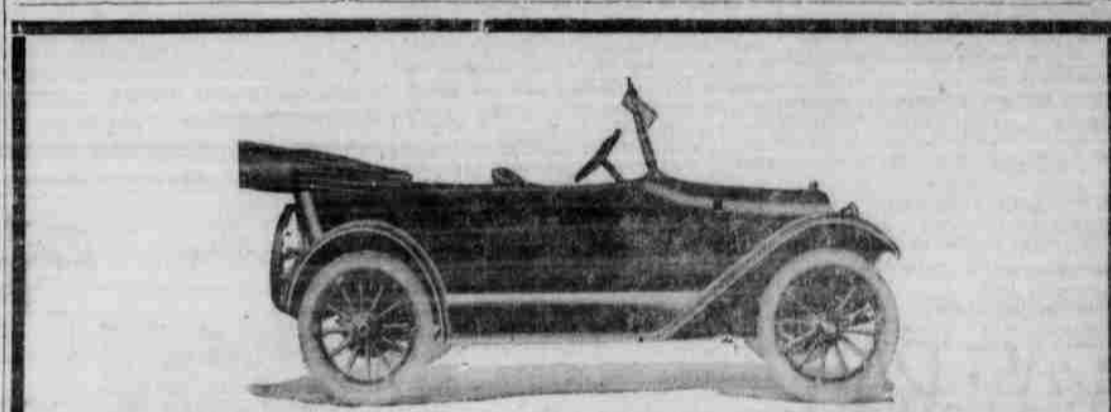

Just a word of Appreciation to our many friends and loyal Customers:

We most sincerely appreciate your support and endorsement of our POLICIES and QUALITY MERCHANDISE—"GOOD GOODS".

Forty years is a long time to be in business in the same line, and in the same town, and remain recognized as the leading establishment. We may be pardoned, we hope, in saying that we are proud of this record, and intend to so live and operate that when we celebrate our 50th year, it will be a GALA DAY in Salem.

We trust we have been understood in this "Announcement" and repeat with emphasis: "We belong to all of Salem and want all of Salem to co-operate with us to make Salem the best and most beautiful city in America.

You Can Always Do Better at
 40 YEARS OF TRAIL BREAKING AGAINST COMPETITION
Meyers
 GOOD GOODS
 A. MARION COUNTY LAND MARK OF INTEGRITY
 Who Will Always Do Better By You

551 Automobiles - 110 Car Loads
 Easy to Say Is It Not, But Facts Just the Same

Since commencing business in Salem 23 months ago we have sold 551 new cars, figuring five to the car, making 110 car loads.

There has been a shortage of cars for the past year. Had there been no shortage we would have had 700 to our credit.

This advertisement is not run for the purpose of bragging on our success, but merely for the purpose of showing the popularity of the Chevrolet car.

A low priced car with all the conveniences of a high priced car, that is light, durable, powerful and economical is what the majority of people are demanding, and the Salem territory bears out this statement by the above figures.

—CHEVROLET—
 "A SENSIBLE CAR AT A SENSIBLE PRICE"
 $857.20 F. O. B. SALEM.

Salem Automobile Co.
 F. G. Delano Salem—Dallas Distributors A. I. Eoff

Chevrolet and Scripps-Booth cars and Trucks and Republic Tires

OREGON
 DOROTHY DALTO AND CHARLES RAY IN "THE WEAKER SEX" SEXNETT COMEDY
 NOW