NEW CROSS MARKET TO EQUAL BEST MEAT SHOPS ON THE COAST

"The best equipped and most modern in the Pacific northwest." That is descriptive of the transformation which the old E. C. Cross meat market, 370 State street, is undergoing. Artisans and mechanics have been working night and day during the past two weeks to bring about changes which will place the Salem shop, foremost among Pacific coast markets.

Curtis Cross, with his father, E. C. Cross, owns the downtown enterprise, and are interested in the Valley Packing company.

"Our new sales room has been designed with a view of combining practicability and appearance. Walls and ceiling of this room will be finished in white enamel. The floor on the customer's side of the showcases will be surfaced with red art tile; while a heavy cork linoleum, one-half an inch in thickness, will provide comfortable footing for members of the sales force. For utility and convenience, the counter surface will be extended so that 50 feet of service space will be provided," said Mr. Cross today.

A large refrigerator window will occupy the front of the shop and will be supplemented by "Jack Frost" show cases and by frost surface supply cabinets. An automatic ice plant of three and one-half ton capacity is being installed and will supply the cabinets, show window and cases.

No manufacturing of any sort will be done at the downtown market. All meats and products will be government inspected and will come from the Valley Packing company's plant near the fairgrounds.

In the rear of the sales room, a comfortable combination lunch and dressing room will be maintained for the convenience of the sales force, which will be increased to eight men.

R. C. Hunter and Fletcher Long, who have been with Cross & Son for 30 and 20 years respectively, will be in charge of the new shop which will be known as the Cross Market.

The changes will be completed by February 1, according to present plans. In contemplation of these changes, Curtis Cross visited the best markets of the Pacific northwest in search of suggestions. Mr. Cross states that in equipment and appointment, the new Cross Market will surpass the Conatstine shops in Portland, or the Palace Market in Seattle, two of the best shops on the coast.

POLITICAL OBLIVION FATE OF LEADERS

Washington, Jan. 27.—Political oblivion for the leaders in the party responsible for adoption of universal military training was predicted in the house today by Representative Mondell of Wyoming, the republican leader. The initial cost of the plan would be one billion dollars, he said, requiring an additional bond issue.

"Men cannot be trained for a mere pittance," he continued. "It costs $1,000 for six months training for every man in the regular system. This amount would be exceeded for men undergoing their first training, because of additional clothing and other equipment costs. We would also need $5,000 additional officers. Three hundred million dollars would be necessary to put camps and cantonments in condition and sixty million dollars is required for their maintenance each year."

WILSON LIGHTENS COURT SENTENCES OF ARMY OFFICERS

Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 27.—President Wilson has lightened the sentences imposed by court martial at Camp Lewis upon Colonel Frank H. Wolven and Major David A. Proctor, both of the dental corps of the army, according to word reaching camp today.

Colonel Wolven was sentenced by court-martial to dismissal from the army for making false statements to obtain commutation of quarters. The president has ordered that Colonel Wolven shall be reprimanded by Major General G. F. Morrison, commander of Camp Lewis, and shall forfeit $100 a month from his pay for six months. His name is also placed at the bottom of the lineal list of colonels of his corps for one year.

Colonel Wolven was found guilty by court-martial of declaring his wife was maintaining an eight-room residence in Washington, D. C., and collecting money for the upkeep of this home, while in reality the colonel had his wife with him near Camp Lewis.

Major Proctor, found guilty by a court-martial on a similar charge, was also reprimanded by Major General Morrison, and $50 a month for three months was ordered taken from his pay.

COAST GUARD TO AID SEARCH FOR PLANE

Washington, Jan. 27.—Commandants of the naval stations at Charleston and Key West and the coast guard have been directed by the navy department to search for a navy seaplane which left the Bahama Islands yesterday afternoon for Palm Beach and has not been heard of since.

It was piloted by Lieutenant Commanded David H. McCulloch, one of the navy trans-Atlantic pilots, and carried five other persons.

An official report by telephone today from Palm Beach said Rodman Wanamaker of Philadelphia, was aboard the plane which left the Bahamas yesterday at 3:30 p. m. for a return flight to Palm Beach. The time of the plane's departure, the report said, was verified by a private plane which has since arrived at Palm Beach from the Bahamas.

In view of the fact that Rodman Wanamaker was said to be in Philadelphia today, it was assumed here that it was Rodman Wanamaker, second, who was a passenger on the missing ship.

PAMPHLETS READ AT HEARING OF N. Y. SOCIALISTS

Albany, N. Y., Jan. 27.—Proponents of the "dictatorship of the proletariat" hold that the first step must be seizure of the government by any means possible and the taking over of industry by force, according to a pamphlet read today at the trial before the judiciary committee of the five suspended socialist assemblymen charged with disloyalty.

The pamphlet, published by the Jewish Socialist Federation of New York, was translated from the Hebrew by Charles M. Robinson, a department of justice operative, who was recalled to the stand today.

Puruorting to give views of both proponents and opponents, the pamphlet asserted the former held preparation must be made for "revolution" and "class dictatorship." Upon the seizure of the industries, they would be run by workmen's soviets, according to the program.

In discussing the topic "the socialists and the democratic state," the pamphlet asked why should socialists enter legislative bodies, "where do socialists fit into the state?" "Socialists," it set forth in reply "seek to enter the government for two reasons: first, to be nearer the doors of the government councils, and second, to hinder this character of work in any way possible. The first is the more important as it gives the socialist a chance to see into the strategy of the government, thereby enabling him to carry out his propaganda better. It is true that not always is this aim reached. The bourgeois atmosphere which he breathes gradually infects him and he begins to make compromises."

The pamphlet defined socialism as "a red movement, with blood in its veins." Asserting in America "we have had only the echo of what happened in Europe," the book added the stage here was still one of "theoretical discussion," and "there is danger the house cleaning will not be as thorough among us as it should be."
