

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

Jan. 25—McKinley day program at McCormack hall.
 Jan. 28—Rotary club lunch at Hotel Marion. Noon.
 Jan. 29—Oregon-Williamette basketball game, armory.
 Jan. 30—Business and Professional Women's club meet at Commercial club.
 Feb. 2—Business Men's luncheon at Commercial club, noon.
 Feb. 4—Lecture at library by Dr. F. A. Magruder.
 Feb. 8—Musical concert, high school auditorium, 8 p. m.
 Feb. 19—Marion County Children's bureau clinic at Commercial club.
 Feb. 19-14—Y. W. C. A. campaign in Salem.

Love, watchmaker, Jeweler, Salem.
 Baby chick 558 State. Tel. 400. 27*

W. B. Jamison, of Portland was a business visitor in Salem Wednesday.

Visit Bishop's sock sale, 6 pairs $1.50. 26*

See Woodry's big auction sale ad on page 1. 24*

Mrs. Eva Howarth, of Klamath Falls was the guest of friends in Salem Wednesday.

Truckmen's dance tomorrow night, Wednesday, union hall. 24

Dance tonight at Moose hall. 24*

J. M. Sherwood, of Portland, attended to business in Salem Wednesday.

Visit Bishop's sock sale, 6 pairs $1.50. 26*

Knights and Ladies of Security. 25

Mrs. W. C. Kantner, 440 Center street, spent Wednesday in McMinnville as the guest of friends.

Dance at Hurst hall Thursday eve.

Wood for sale. A few cords of ash and fir, $10 and $9.50. Phone 1356W. 24

Mrs. E. A. Kurtz, 428 North Church street, has been called to Roseburg by the death of her father.

Visit Bishop's sock sale, 6 pairs $1.50. 26*

Baby chicks. 558 State. Tel. 400. 27*

Justice and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris were among the Salem folk who attended the concert of Jascha Heifetz in Portland Wednesday.

Sock sale. See window. Regular 50 cent values, 6 pairs for $1.50. Salem Woolen Mills store. 26*

Dance tonight at Moose hall. 24*

The drill team of the United Artillery lodge will sponsor a dance at the Moose hall, Friday evening, January 30, at 8:30 o'clock.

Sock sale. See window. Regular 50 cent values, 6 pairs for $1.50. Salem Woolen Mills store. 26*

Mrs. Carrie Ritenour, who has been the house guest of Mrs. C. P. Bishop, 244 North Liberty street, has returned to her home in Portland.

Sock sale. See window. Regular 50 cent values, 6 pairs for $1.50. Salem Woolen Mills store. 26*

Glenn Herrgatab and Bjorn Gadehold, pupils of Miss Elizabeth Levy, are in Portland for the purpose of hearing the Pascha Heifetz concert at the Hellig.

Jazz dance, Turner Friday eve. Talmadge orchestra. 24*

Founders Day was celebrated at the Emhall School of Theology Wednesday afternoon with a program at 3 o'clock. Dr. E. S. Hammond was the principal speaker.

Good apples $1.50 per box delivered. Ward K. Richardson. Phone 494. 24*

Wayne Henry, who operates extensive farm interests in the Spring Valley District, Polk county, transacted business in Salem, Tuesday.

Rigden company, leading funeral directors. Superior service. Moderate prices.

Seven Sanford, formerly of Salem, was in Salem yesterday on business. Mr. Sanford at one time was in the employ of the Ladd & Bush bank. He is a member of the board of appraisers of the Federal Loan Association for Oregon and Washington.

Another big auction sale of high class furniture, etc., at Woodry's today's paper on page 2. Don't miss it. 24*

Mrs. Sel Levy, 363 Court street, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Levy went to Portland

Truckmen's dance tomorrow night, Wednesday, union hall. 24

Dance tonight at Moose hall. 24*

J. M. Sherwood, of Portland, attended to business in Salem Wednesday.

Visit Bishop's sock sale, 6 pairs $1.50. 26*

Baby chicks. 558 State. Tel. 400. 27*

Justice and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris were among the Salem folk who attended the concert of Jascha Heifetz in Portland Wednesday.

Sock sale. See window. Regular 50 cent values, 6 pairs for $1.50. Salem Woolen Mills store. 26*

Dance tonight at Moose hall. 24*

The drill team of the United Artillery lodge will sponsor a dance at the Moose hall, Friday evening, January 30, at 8:30 o'clock.

Sock sale. See window. Regular 50 cent values, 6 pairs for $1.50. Salem Woolen Mills store. 26*

Mrs. Carrie Ritenour, who has been the house guest of Mrs. C. P. Bishop, 244 North Liberty street, has returned to her home in Portland.

Sock sale. See window. Regular 50 cent values, 6 pairs for $1.50. Salem Woolen Mills store. 26*

Glenn Herrgatab and Bjorn Gadehold, pupils of Miss Elizabeth Levy, are in Portland for the purpose of hearing the Pascha Heifetz concert at the Hellig.

Jazz dance, Turner Friday eve. Talmadge orchestra. 24*

Founders Day was celebrated at the Emhall School of Theology Wednesday afternoon with a program at 3 o'clock. Dr. E. S. Hammond was the principal speaker.

Good apples $1.50 per box delivered. Ward K. Richardson. Phone 494. 24*

Wayne Henry, who operates extensive farm interests in the Spring Valley District, Polk county, transacted business in Salem, Tuesday.

Rigden company, leading funeral directors. Superior service. Moderate prices.

Seven Sanford, formerly of Salem, was in Salem yesterday on business. Mr. Sanford at one time was in the employ of the Ladd & Bush bank. He is a member of the board of appraisers of the Federal Loan Association for Oregon and Washington.

Another big auction sale of high class furniture, etc., at Woodry's today's paper on page 2. Don't miss it. 24*

Mrs. Sel Levy, 363 Court street, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth Levy went to Portland

Wednesday to attend the San Carlo grand opera matinee at the auditorium and the performance of Pascha Heifetz, violinist at the Hellig, in the evening.

Truckmen's dance tomorrow night, Wednesday, union hall. 24

Dreamland Rink, the new skating rink at the end of State street, which has been in the course of construction for the past several months, will open at noon Saturday, January 30. The rink is under the management of Otto Klett.

W. R. Ruth, Henry Pascoe and P. A. Thomas, appraisers of the Margaret M. Russell estate have filed valuation report. Personal property valued at $524.30 is noted in the appraisalment.

A dance and general good time will be held at the Labor Temple Wednesday night for members of the various trade unions, and delegates of the Central Trade and Labor Council. The dance will be under the auspices of the truck drivers local.

Edward Schunke as administrator of the Elizabeth Kruger estate has filed final account of estate transactions. Receipts of $1161.50 and disbursements of $433.10 are checked in the report. County Judge Busby has designated March 30 as the time for final review.

Joseph Humphreys, 35, from Gaston, Ore., who has been confined in a local hospital for some time, died there at nine o'clock Wednesday morning. The body will be shipped to Gaston Thursday by the Rigdon & Son company.

Hearing of the suit of the Phee Products Company against the Salem Fruit Union will be resumed, February 5, at 10 a. m. The case is being heard by Judge George G. Ingram, of the circuit court for Marion county.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Brown are seriously ill with influenza at their residence on South Commercial street. Mrs. Brown has just returned from a visit in Chicago and Rock River, Ill., where she was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Matthews. She was ill when she reached home.

Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Spalding, who have been the guests of their son, Jarry K. Spalding in Salem for the past few days, left Tuesday for Tacoma and Seattle where they will visit for a week or two before returning to their home in Sunnyside, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Spalding have been enjoying an extended sojourn at Long Beach, California.

Special effort to obtain the enlistment of men for the ordnance department of the coast artillery corps is urged in a communication from the war department received here Wednesday by Corporal W. W. Sites, in charge of recruiting. Men from this district enlisting in the ordnance department will be stationed on the Pacific coast, the war department dispatch read.

Word has been received by the local navy recruiting office that Commander John H. Blackburn, U. S. N., will visit Salem in the first part of February. Commander Blackburn was executive commander of the largest ship in the world, the U. S. S. Leviathan, ex-German ship Vaterland during the war, the Leviathan transported about 100,000 soldiers to Europe.

J. Ed Savage, who has been connected with the Wheeler Motor company of Colfax, Wash., has accepted a position with the Gile Mercantile company of Salem and plans to make this his permanent home. Mr. and Mrs. Savage were formerly residents of this city. Until they can find a suitable location, they are domiciled at the home of the former's father, N. S. Savage.

Due to the fact that a quorum was not available, the Salem school board did not hold its regular session last night. Board members, G. E. Halvorsen, H. H. Olinger and E. T. Barnes were absent from the city and for this reason the remaining members decided to defer the session and to call a special meeting at the first opportunity. At this meeting, the school board expects to take action in conformation with a letter recently issued by the state board of health relative to the control of small pox.

The Foresters of America held an open meeting at their hall on North Commercial street, Tuesday evening, followed by a banquet. George L. Cooper, deputy head consul of the Woodmen of America, was the principal speaker of the evening. Mr. Cooper was for a number of years vice consul at Lima, Peru, and chose as the subject of his discourse, "South America." There will be another open meeting on the last Tuesday of February, at which Alaska and Rome will be discussed, by men who have visited there.

An earnest plea for farm help—both married and single—was issued at the office of the Municipal Labor Bureau Wednesday morning. In addition to several farm jobs two women said that the labor situation in the Race said, for other work. Mr. Race are needed at once. City Recorder city is favorable, and all that is needed "is men to do the work." The Municipal labor bureau is in the city hall.

The Willamette university Y. M. C. A. has elected as its officers for the coming year. Hubert Wilken, president. Ralph Barnes, vice president. Sheldon Sackett, secretary and Leon Jennison, treasurer. Gus Anderson is the retiring president, but Howard Mort has been acting in that capacity for the past semester.

The funeral of George W. Chapin, who died at his home in Shaw, Ore., was held at the chapel of the Webb & Clough company at 11 o'clock Wednesday morning. Drs. Earl B. Cotton and Howard Mort of the Shaw Methodist Episcopal church, officiated. Burial was in City View cemetery.

Marion E. Gibson, 53, who has been receiving treatment in a local hospital, died Tuesday morning. The body was shipped to his home in Portland Tuesday evening by the Webb & Clough company. Mr. Gibson's relatives reside in the Rose City.

The robbery of his home in West Woodburn Monday night, and the theft of a suit of clothes, an overcoat and a razor were reported to police here Tuesday by W. D. Simmons, a section foreman on the Oregon Electric railroad. Authorities here are assisting in the hunt for the burglars.

Sheriff Needham and local police are adding in a search for a team of horses alleged to have been stolen in Oregon City Thursday. One of the horses was black, and the other was brown. Police here have a description of the man believed to have stolen the team, and a close watch is being kept for him.

Two residents of Gervais made application for citizenship, Tuesday. Frank Kitchen, 41, farmer, was born in Pankota, Hungary and arrived in New York, April 28, 1904, as also did his cousin Anton Plau, who was also born in Pankota, Hungary. Mr. Plau also resides near Gervais.

Special meeting of Pacific lodge No. 50 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Work in the E. A. degree. Visitors welcome. 24*

Court News

Circuit Court.
 Henry Miller vs. P. S. Sumulty. Order and decree.

Henry Miller vs. P. S. Sumulty. Plaintiff's proof of publication, deposit in postoffice, affidavit, and undertaking for decree.

L. E. Simmons vs. W. H. Ankeny et al. Answer.

Wilson T. Home, trustee in bankruptcy, vs. Edward Dodge, Vena Dodge et al. Motion and affidavit to take disposition of Vena L. Dodge.

Estella Chaffings et vs. the Southern Pacific company. Motion and amended complaint.

Peter Cox vs. John Welch et al. Plaintiff's complaint.

City of Salem vs. Salem Bank of Commerce et al. Affidavit.

Edward F. Whelan vs. William Edgar et al. Order for publication of summons.

Edward F. Whelan vs. William Edgar et al. Motion for publication of summons.

City of Salem vs. Salem Bank of Commerce et al. Order for publication of summons.

W. H. Seal vs. A. A. Colvert. Cost bill.

Frank M. Ford vs. C. Charles Swegal. Summons.

Business Men's Adjustment company, a corporation, vs. Julius Johnson et al. Certificate of attachment.

Marriage Licenses.
 G. W. Spicer, 35, an engineer, 1258 State street, Salem, to Selma Louis Kurrow, 20, of Salem.

Harold Wvgant, 27, student and stenographer, 257 Bellevue street, Salem, to Gladys Purdy Parrott, 24, student, of 115 North Commercial street, Salem.

Lot John Tate, 24, farmer of Gervais, to Winifred V. Holt, 18, of Brooks.

Two licenses were issued Tuesday January 27 to James O. Darby, 28, Silverton, farmer, to Bertha M. Krentz, 24, Silverton, to be married at Silverton, January 28, 1920.

Ebbin C. Willard, 25, Cook, 455 Hickory street, Salem to Ester S. Cox, 19, 818 North Commercial street.

NAVAL MEN HAVE "FLU"
 Bremerton, Wash., Jan. 8.—Influenza at the Puget Sound navy yard has sent 180 men of the battleship division, Pacific fleet, to the hospital during the past several days, it became known today. One death was reported.

Died.
 HUMPHREYS—Joseph Humphreys, from Gaston, Oregon, died at a local hospital Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. The body was taken in charge by the Rigdon & Son company.

Died.
 GIBSON—Marion E. Gibson, 59, of Portland, die in a local hospital Tuesday. Body sent to Portland for burial by the Webb & Clough Co.

Born
 HAMMETT—To Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hammett, at the Deaconess hospital, a son, weight 9 1/2 pounds, to be named Hillis Elari Hammett, January 24, 1920.

ARMENIAN LECTURE

Mrs. O. F. Lamson will deliver a lecture on the situation in Armenia and the near east Thursday, January 29, at 7:30 p. m. in the Methodist church on the corner of State and Church streets, Salem, Oregon.

Mrs. Lamson is a most interesting speaker, a graduate of the John Hopkins university, a practicing physician in Seattle clubs and society affairs. Her lecture was heard with delight recently by Portland audience. Mrs. Lamson is an Armenian by birth, and will entertain by telling of the dress and custom of the people of that country.

The people of Salem are cordially invited to attend this lecture which is free. No subscription or donation will be taken. Make up your mind to attend and urge your friends to come also. 25*

Why Druggists Recommend Swamp-Root

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine. It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once. However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention the Salem Capital Journal. (Adv)

Dr. C. B. O'Neill
 OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
 Ladd & Bush Bank Building
 For State and Commercial Sts. Salem

UPJOHN WINS FIRST IN ESSAY CONTEST

Prize winners in the "Made in Oregon" essay contest conducted by Gale and company, have been announced. The judges were R. J. Hendricks, editor of the Statesman; T. E. McCroskey, manager of the Commercial club and George Putnam, editor of the Capital Journal.

D. H. Upjohn, private secretary to Governor Olcott, is winner of the first prize, amounting to $15. The other winners are as follows: E. S. Tillinghast, state school for the deaf; Eather Chung, 305 South 18th street, Salem; Mrs. David Reese, route 4, box 106, Salem; Vera S. Frickey, 718 5th street, Astoria; Audred Bunch, route 3, box 279, Salem; Edna L. Daily, route 3, box 279, Salem; Ralph W. Emmens, 426 State street, Salem; Marie Craig Le Gall, Salem; Velleda Ohmart, route 4, box 118, Salem.

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY

Radicals Reported To Be "Gathering Near Montesano"

Montesano, Wash., Jan. 28—Elma, a small town ten miles east of here, was reported today to be a gathering place for members of the Industrial Workers of the World interested in the outcome of the trial of 11 alleged members of the organization here, charged with murder.

Reports from Elma said that the alleged I. W. W. were drifting into town a few at a time, from different parts of the northwest. They have been quiet and orderly. American Legion men and deputy sheriffs fear no outbreak. The roads between Montesano and Elma are being watched by the authorities it was reported.

CITY REGULATION OF IMMOBIL FILMS SOUGHT BY BILL

Washington, Jan. 28—Immoral motion picture films would be barred from transportation in interstate commerce under a bill passed today by the house and sent to the senate.

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY

TOMORROW
Madge Kennedy
 in
"LEAVE IT TO SUSAN"
 A Dandy Comedy Drama
LIBERTY

Meet Me At Meyers
Advance Spring Shipments
 Spring will be here before you realize—but we are prepared, the advance shipments are being daily received.

NEW Spring Embroideries
 BANDINGS, BEADINGS, INSERTIONS, EDGINGS for COLLARS. EMBROIDERY for PETTICOATS.
 On sheer material of the Highest Quality and all Moderately Priced.

New Blouses
 Blouses that are decidedly different. While made up in GEORGETTE and CREPE DE CHINE, they are new in design and colors.
 Yarn Embroidery and Bead Trimmed

You Can Always Do Better At
Meyers
 GOOD GOODS
 Who Always Do Better By You

40 Years in Salem Makes It "Our Home" Beyond Doubt.
 40 Years in Marion County Is a Proud Pioneer Record in Business.

The Pre-Inventory Sale
 AT
The Roote's
 LITTLER & UPMEYER
 At the Electric Sign "SHOES"
IS STILL GOING
 At Prices Unbelievably low. Better get them while the chance is here.

$1.95

Lot 152 Ladies' Patent Vamp Cloth Top, Button.
 Lot 301 Ladies' Patent and Kid Lace and Button.
 Lot 403 Ladies' Black Cabareta 2-Strap Slipper
 Lot 486 Ladies' Patent and Kid Pumps, small sizes.
 Lot 602 Child's Black Kid Button, Sizes 5 1/4 to 8.
AND THEN SOME!

$2.95
 MISSES SIZES 11 TO 2, AT $2.95 Popular Price

Style 534, gun metal, button welt, S. D. sole
 Spring heel .....$3.65
 Style 535 calf lace and button, welt S. D. sole
 Spring heel .....$4.15
 Style 505 kid lace, English last, low heels.....$3.45
 Style 517 brown elk, button, spring heels.....$4.25
 Style 501 black kid button welt S. D. sole,
 Spring heels .....$3.95
 (Child's sizes, 8 1/2 to 11, at $2.95)
 Style 633 gun metal, button, Neolin soles,
 Spring Heels .....$3.50
 Style 643 smoke elk, button, beiting leather
 Soles .....$4.25
 Style 612 brown elk, button, oak leather
 oles .....$3.45
 Style 604 black kid, button, oak leather, soles...$3.65

WATCH FOR OUR GIGANTIC
Dollar Slaughter Sale
 THE BIGGEST BARGAINS IN SALEM

THE PEOPLE'S CASH STORE

OREGON
 ENID BENNETT
 IN
"THE WOMAN IN THE SUITCASE"
 POLLARD COMEDY
NOW