NO BIDS ON PASSENGER SHIPS YET ACCEPTED

Washington, Jan. 29.—No bids for the 30 former passenger liners offered for sale by the shipping board have as yet been accepted. Chairman Payne declared today, and the necessity for further consideration of the proposals received will delay any action until Monday.

The protest of Secretary Baker against the sale of some of the ships wanted by the army for the transport reserve is not expected by the chairman to result in a controversy. The matter will be adjusted before the sale of the vessels is completed, Mr. Payne said.
