Thrift report cards to be used in educational thrift course recent-1500 ly adopted by county school superintendent'e of the state, have been received by County Superintendent W. M. Smith. The cards are for circulation to all Marion county schools, and may be used in conjunction with the regular report blanks. Superintendent Smith is receiving many requests from the different districts and states that the cards will to the Silverton schools, and 198 were distributed to Aurora. The card is proving popular in Salem, the fol-
