

LAST MINUTE SPURT CLINCHES GAME FOR VISITING QUINTET

Coach "Sby" Huntington's University of Oregon basketball warriors were seven points too much for the "Bearcats" in the first game between the two teams, on the armory floor, last night.

The final score stood 35 to 21. Superior team work and a greater ability in shooting baskets from play were the contributing factors to the Oregon victory. In the first half and a good portion of the second neither team seemed able to get going and the score swung this way and that, with Willamette leading by a margin of one or two points until the half whistle, when the score stood 15-13 with the Eugene lads on the long end.

Willamette had the best of the first period in the matter of team work, but the Bearcats were unable to convert their shots and establish the necessary lead. Jackson, the local center, was out jumping his opponent and started Willamette's plays repeatedly, only to see them broken up by the charging Oregon crew. The fame of Wapato and McKitterick, mainstays of the cardinal and gold, had spread and, while their work stood out above that of their team mates, they found themselves closely covered most of the time.

Oregon maintained its lead through out the second half and, hitting its stride late in the period, clinched the contest by an exhibition of team play that has not been excelled on the local floor and which netted four baskets in a space of two minutes.

Durno, the Silverton lad who has been enjoying the name in loop some history at the state institution this year, played up to his scoring reputation last night and annexed a total of 20 points. He and Lind, Oregon's other forward, brought repeated applause from the sidelines by their accurate running shots, a trick which the Willamette lads have, as yet, been unable to master.

Inefficient refereeing slowed the game up to an unreasonable degree. Gately of Portland, officiated over the whistle and exhibited a weak inability to keep pace with the game. Fouls, real and fancied, were his hobby and the presence of two opposing players within a radius of three feet of the ball halted the play time and again.

Saturday night the two teams will stage a return engagement on the Eugene floor.

The lineups in last night's game were: Oregon—Durno (20), Lind (12), forwards; Latham (12), center; Chapman (4), Jacobberger, guards; Willamette—Irvine (4), Wapato (8), forwards; Jackson (4), center; Carey, McKitterick (15), guards; Gillette, Ganzans, substitutes. Referee, Gately.

Salem Alleys Improved; Bowlers Plan Matches

The Club Bowling alleys and Billiard parlors have been purchased by Neal Littler, who is renovating and remodeling the amusement place.

When the alleys are formally opened, which will be within a few days, several needed changes will have been made, among these being new lighting fixtures and approach remodeling. The alleys will also be finished.

Mr. Littler plans to reserve the alleys for ladies on Tuesday and Friday afternoons. At those times women enthusiasts of this athletic pastime will have the exclusive use of the four alleys.

Formation of a city bowling league is being planned. These alleys are considered to be among the best in the state and professional bowlers of the Pacific coast are planning some good matches here in the near future.

COMBINED SCORE CARD AND SCHEDULE FOLDER ISSUED

A folder, containing the schedules of all of the games of Willamette university, University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural college, Albany college, and the high schools of Salem, Eugene, Corvallis and Albany for the present basketball season has been compiled by Hauser Bros., and is being distributed by the stores of that company in the four cities. The card is so arranged as to leave room for the scores of each game.

JOURNAL WANT ADS PAY Yellow Mustard For Rheumatism

A good hot mustard plaster or poultice is pretty sure to overcome most rheumatic pains and even sciatica and gout but it's a messy affair and generally blisters.

Heat is absolutely necessary if you want permanent relief. Bezy's Mustard is made of true yellow mustard with other pain relieving ingredients added. It is just as hot, is cheaper, cleaner and more effective than the old fashioned poultice or plaster and cannot blister.

Resides rheumatic pains and swellings Bezy's Mustard is speedily effective for lumbago, backache, neuritis, pleurisy, bronchitis, sore throat, chest colds and all aches and pains because heat causes pain—30 and 60 cents at druggists or by mail, S. C. Wells & Co., LeRoy, N. Y.

HENDRY IS LEADING STICK WIELDER OF MID-WEST LEAGUE

Chicago, Jan. 29.—Official batting averages of the American association released today reveal Outfielder Claude Hendry of the Louisville club, as the 1919 champion.

Hendry, whose services have been sought in the major leagues, batted his way to the top of the heap with an average of .338, while Wilbur Good of Kansas City pulled up in second place with .349. Gille O'Mara, the Indianapolis third baseman, was third with an average of .349.

Elmer Miller, the star of the St. Paul outfield, for whom the Cincinnati Nationals offered $12,500 and two players, led the home run hitters with fifteen. Becker of Kansas City was next in the list with fourteen and brief, also of Kansas City, third with thirteen. Miller also topped the list in total base hitting. He stratched 109 safe blows for a total of 892 bases. In addition to the fifteen homers, he connected with thirty four doubles and sixteen triples.

In the business of base stealing, Leo Drossen of the championship St. Paul club led his rivals with a total of forty six. Reilly of Indianapolis gave him a close race with forty four. Ward Miller of Kansas City was the leading scorer, having registered 115 times. Drossen pressed him with 113 runs.

Sam Crane, the Indianapolis shortstop, who is to receive a trial with the championship Reds, was the best sacrifice hitter. His total was thirty seven—one better than Sawyer of Minneapolis.

Ham Hyatt, the Toledo outfielder, was the most consistent "waller" in the association. He drew ninety seven bases on balls.

The championship St. Paul club was third in team hitting, the honors going to Kansas City. St. Paul, however, had four batters in the select 500 class.

FOURTH SERIES GAME WON BY SALEM HIGH

When Salem high school registered 25 points against the 17 units checked by Silverton Thursday night, they achieved their fourth victory for this season, having lost only one game. This was one of the hardest contested basketball games in which the Salem high school quintet has taken part. The game was fast and furious, especially in the last half, when the Silverton players adopted aggressive tactics, although working smoothly and avoiding a multiplicity of fouls. This play was ably matched by the conservative team work of the Salem players.

Shaefer and A. Gill were the aggressive players on the Salem team, but were well supported by Boise, E. Gill and Ashby. A. Gill scored nine points in difficult shooting. Woods of Silverton made sensational tosses from the center of the floor, securing three baskets in this manner.

The game was witnessed by a crowd of about 100, high enthusiasm being maintained throughout the game. The score was 13 to 17 at the end of the first half. Although Silverton made the first points, Salem registered immediately afterward and held the game to the end.

The lineups for the respective teams were: Salem—Shaefer and A. Gill, forwards; Boise, center; E. Gill and Ashby, guards. Silverton—Alm and Harwood, forwards; Woods, center; Bennett and Olson, guards.

STANFORD AND PULLMAN TO PLAY THIS EVENING

Stanford University, Cal., Jan. 29.—For the first time in four years Stanford's basketball five will meet a northern rival, when the Cardinal five goes into action tonight against the Washington State basketball team. The game will be played on the Enslin gymnasium floor here.

On normal years Hood River growers for the most part have finished their packing by December 1. This season it is estimated that 150,000 boxes of apples were unpacked January 1. Approximately 50,000 boxes still remain unpacked in grower's hands.

CAPITAL NATIONS TO PLAY MUTE SCHOOL FIVE TONIGHT

This evening at 8 o'clock the Capital National Bank team of the Commercial league will meet the mute school basketball team on the school floor. The strength of the mute school aggregation this year is not known, but a fast game is in prospect if the team is in the class with former fives turned out by the institution.

After 27 years as editor and publisher of the Jefferson Review, G. W. Humphrey has sold the paper and will retire.

DOGS MAY WEAR ANY KIND OF COLLAR, CLAIM

Oregon Fido's and Rovers—or whatever their name may be—are not limited to any one particular style of collar under the state dog tax law, according to an interpretation placed on the statutes in question by J. A. Benjamin, the attorney general's office. The tag's the thing and not the collar, according to Benjamin who in an opinion prepared for Gilbert L. Hedger, district attorney for Clackamas county, holds that any style of substantial collar may be worn by dogs in this state so long as the required license tag is attached thereto.
