False Boasts Of Records Aid In Marital Disaster

After four days of married life, Marie Humphrey discovered that the claims made by William L. Humphrey, that he was a "man of standing in his community" were false. For after eight circuits of the clock, Mrs. Humphrey learned that her husband was a bootblack and that he had also misrepresented his war service record. The couple were married in Salem, November 29, 1919, the bride being 19 years of age and the groom claiming 21 years. In her petition, the short term bride claims that Humphrey left her after accusing her of adultery, "making the accusation in public to her everlasting shame, mortification and injury." In addition to the divorce decree desired, the plaintiff asks that her maiden name of Marie Magee be restored to her and that the defendant be required to pay the costs of the proceeding. According to police reports, Humphrey was taken into custody by local officers on a charge of wearing a service uniform to which he was not entitled. A movement is being launched at Oregon City to erect a memorial for 498 young men of Clackamas county who served in the war.

JURY IN CASE OF CENTRALIA REDS TRIMMED

Two Of Twelve Members Of Temporary Trial Body Are Excused Today; Impeachment Proceedings End.

(Associated Press Leased Wire) Montesano, Wash., Jan. 31.—The temporary jurors selected to try eleven alleged I. W. W. charged with the murder of Warren O. Grimm, one of the victims of the armistice day shootings at Centralia, was rendered to ten when Judge John M. Wilson ruled that one temporary juror, Mrs. Emily C. Patterson, had indicated a prejudice against the I. W. W. and when the state agreed to not further contest the defense's challenge of Orton Glenn. Both were excused from service. Reduced to ten temporary jurors, counsel again began the examination of talesmen, and E. G. Robinson, carpenter, of Hoquiam, was accepted by both sides, the defense withdrawing a challenge for alleged opinion. Three are Excused. Talesmen examined and excused were: John Soder, saw filer, Hoquiam O. Caron, barber, Aberdeen, and Joseph Gagner, carpenter, Aberdeen. Convening of court was delayed nearly two hours by a conference between counsel and Judge Wilson in the latter's chambers. Judge Wilson announced a ruling during the council, he announced later, that examination of talesmen should heretofore be completed without interruption and that re-examination would not be permitted. With the selection of one more talesman the time for exercising of peremptory challenges will begin with according counsel for both the defense and prosecution, it may require at least five more days before a permanent jury is sworn. Mrs. Inez Moore of Elma, several miles east of here, was being examined when court adjourned for lunch. Selection Drops Out. Montesano, Wash., Jan. 31.—Orton Glenn and Mrs. Emily C. Patterson, temporary jurors in the trial of eleven alleged I. W. W. on trial here for murder in connection with the Armistice day shootings at Centralia, will be excused from jury service, it was announced today by W. H. Abel, state counsel in the case. Decision to excuse the jurors was made this morning, following a long conference between defense and state counsel and Judge John M. Wilson, held in the judge's chambers. Court had not convened at 11 o'clock. Today's action reduces the temporary jury to ten, and eliminates impeachment proceedings, which were to have taken place today in an effort by the defense to unseat Glenn.

ARMY BILL WOULD BE DANGEROUS, CLAIM

(Continued from page one) Washington, Jan. 31.—The army reorganization bill with its compulsory military training provision reported by the senate military committee, not only will cost the taxpayer more than a billion dollars annually, but will result in "militarism run mad," said a minority report filed in the senate today by Senator McKellar, democrat, Tennessee. The report said the measure would perpetuate the president's war powers and make him virtually a dictator in peace times. "The minority of the committee submit" said the report, "that the passage of this bill carrying appropriations which must come, will be to institute in this country a military system of the first order, indeed, it will be militarism run mad, a militarism of the ultra-German type, a militarism never dreamed of by our forefathers, a militarism that is wholly unnecessary, a militarism that cannot be defended, a militarism that in wholly unjustifiable when we look at our history and at our future."
