Testimony in the hearing of E. L. Buchanan against G. F. Booth, heard in Judge Unruh's court in an all-day session Friday, was taken under advice by the court, and a decision is expected to be made next week. Buchanan brought suit against Booth for $212 which he alleged to be due him as his share of commission in insurance sales they made as partners.

Auctioneer J. N. Woodry, well known in this city, will be the plaintiff in a suit in Judge Unruh's court Monday against Mrs. G. D. Johnson. Woodry alleges that he negotiated with Mrs. Johnson for the purchase of a large amount of household goods and that she changed her mind and would not sell claiming that the goods belonged to her husband.

An attempt to cash a $100 bill Friday afternoon at the Capital National bank was defeated by Officer Morelock, and little Edward Snyder, son of Samuel Snyder, Front street, was compelled to return the money to his father. The boy claimed that he found the bill under a freight car on Front street, but investigation revealed the fact that it belonged to Mr. Snyder, according to police reports.

Owing to the great increase in business as well as the many machines already sold in this section of the state, the Burroughs Adding Machine Co. have established offices in the Masonic Temple under the management of C. H. Vorce, who has recently arrived from southern California. Mr. Vorce has purchased a home in Salem and his family will join him in their new home, Monday.

After lengthy deliberation the county court has decided that no changes in the original voting precincts of Salem should be made, except the transfer of a part of precinct one, north of Madison street to precinct 5; and part of precinct 15, south of Union street, to precinct 6. This was announced at the court house late Saturday afternoon.

In a suit heard by Judge George G. Bingham in department No. 2, of circuit court, Friday, Mr. and Mrs. Lang Stafford were awarded $990. This was a civil action instituted by the Staffords against Hal Stacy for the collection of seven month's wages due the plaintiffs. The complaint cited that Stafford and his wife had received only $100 for seven months services rendered on the defendant's farm, although it was claimed that Sisty had agreed to pay them $150 per month.

English As World Tongue Urged By Belgian Savant

Stockholm, Jan. 31.—English would undoubtedly be the most suitable as a world language, in the opinion of Professor Barnoy of Louvain university, Belgium. He made this statement in the form of a reply to the question addressed by the Northern Peace society to prominent linguists in various countries as to which language would be best adapted to universal use. After declaring in favor of English, M. Carnoy wrote:

"The German and French languages have lost their place through the war. The English language is a hospitable one, being a kind of compromise between the Latin and German tongues; also it is simple and is spoken by most progressive nations of the world, and has one of the most beautiful literatures of modern times."

Labor Delegate Denies He Claimed To Be I. W. W.

That their conviction might not be suspected as being radical, delegates to the Land and Labor League convention here the past two days, following a conference with J. D. Strudgeon of Portland, voted to ask the press to correct the impression given out earlier in the day that Strudgeon was an I. W. W.

From where the newspapermen covering the convention sat Strudgeon's remarks as he sat down sounded "and this is a wobbly talking, too." Strudgeon denied this, and said that he had said "and this not a wobbly talking, too."
