Cordova, Alaska, Dec. 30.—By Mail)—Wheat yields averaging over 20 bushels to the acre and 40-bushel oats crops were reported by farmers of the Tanana Valley, a few score miles south of the Artic Circle, according to figures compiled by D. Snodgrass, superintendent of the but government experiment farm, coples of which reached here recently. Other crops reported for the season were vegetables. Horses, mules, hogs, cat-tic and chickens were the classes of livestock reported to Mr. Snodgrass.
