A list of all available trained and practical nurses, to be sent at once to city and county health officers, has been requested by Dr. David N. Robert, state health officer. Dr. Robert sent the appeal to Mrs. Ida Callahan, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs and she, in turn, is asking the co-operation of the various federated women's organizations in securing the lists. There is no money available for the state health board to dispatch physicians and nurses to stricken areas, in case of a recurrence of last year's epidemic, or an outbreak of a similar nature, according to Dr. Robert, and the obtaining of the lists of nurses is merely a preparedness measure so that each community will be enabled to take care of itself.

In the case of the International Correspondence Schools against Benjamin R. Perkins, Judge George G. Bingham has over-ruled defendant's demurrer to the complaint entered by the correspondence schools.

Judge W. M. Bushy signed an order Wednesday permitting E. B. Stroud, guardian of A. M. Blinston, to deposit sums of money to the credit of a checking account in favor of Mr. Blinston. In his petition, the guardian states that, although by reason of infirmities due to old age, the court had declared him to be incompetent, yet he should be permitted to have available funds for use at his own discretion. The guardian advises this, believing that Mr. Blinston "will not squander any of the money so entrusted."

ANNUAL MEETING OF SCOUTS TO BE HELD AT Y.M.C.A. TONIGHT

The annual session of the Salem Boy Scout council will be held at 8:30 o'clock tonight at the Y. M. C. A., with a banquet beginning promptly at that time. Scout troops from all parts of the city will be at the meeting; and every man in Salem who is interested in the growth of the Boy Scout movement is invited to attend.

Following the banquet, which will be the most elaborate the Scouts can prepare, the scout council will be completely re-organized and dedicated to the successful furtherance of the movement in the city. The scouts have found it necessary to charge 50 cents a plate at the banquet. What funds remain after the cost of the "feed" are met will be placed in the scout fund.

The meeting will celebrate the 16th anniversary of the council, and will be presided over by President F. E. Carleton. Officers for the year will be chosen.

Seven teaching vacancies have been reported to the appointment bureau of the state university. Five of them are in high schools.

Hawaiian Steamship Co. Now All-American Concern

New York, Feb. 4.—A large block of stock of the American Hawaiian Steamship company previously held by Lord Cowdray and other British interests, has been acquired by American bankers. It was announced here today. The sale places American in entire control of the company. It was said. The American-Hawaiian line operates a fleet of 16 steamers.

When the home of George E. Jackson at Klamath Falls caught fire a 4-year-old boy saved the life of his baby brother by dragging him to safety.

"Old Darby"

That wonderful masterpiece "Old Darby", by the immortal Rosa Bonheur, is on exhibition in our Ready-To-Wear Department.

We have brought this art treasure to Salem for your pleasure and edification.

It is not a reproduction. It is the original painting, done by Rosa Bonheur, one of the world's famous artists at her home at Fontainebleau, France in 1884, and art critics and laymen the world-over are united in declaring it one of the most marvelous pieces of realism ever put on canvass.
