GERMANS REFUSE TO SURRENDER LEADERS

EXTRADITION IMPOSSIBLE SAYS CABINET

Ministers Unanimous In Declaring Surrender Of Leaders Would Result In Fatal Consequences.

Berlin, Feb. 5.—At the conclusion of the cabinet session, a member of the government informed the correspondents of the Associated Press that the ministers were unanimous in declaring that the surrender of the German leaders would result in fatal consequences. The cabinet has decided to send another note calling attention to the fatal consequences which would ensue upon extradition of the Germans demanded for trial by the allies for war crimes, according to a Berlin dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph.

Paris, Feb. 5.—Relations between the allied powers and Germany seem to have arrived at a crisis as a result of the refusal of Baron Von Lersner, head of the German delegation here, to forward to Berlin the names of Germans whose extradition is demanded by the entente. This incident apparently finds an echo in the attitude of the Berlin cabinet, which is reported in London dispatches to have expressed, through Gustav Noske, minister of defense, seeming defiance to the powers. Baron Von Lersner left for the German capital last night.

The list of Germans accused of violations of the laws of war whose extradition is contemplated by the allies will be sent to Berlin direct by the council of ambassadors. It is pointed out here that measures intended to compel Germany to carry out the extradition clauses of the Versailles treaty will be adopted but there is no intimation as to their nature.

London advises state Sir Auckland Geddes, minister of national service and reconstruction in the British cabinet, declared in an address at Andover yesterday that Holland might be required to put former Emperor William on some island out of Europe. Whether he expressed the view of the British government is not known.

Among the persons demanded for extradition from the German government are:

- List of Men Wanted
- Karl Agdt, Duke Albrecht of Wuertemberg, Submarine Commander Arnold de La Perere, General Count Rhat von Arnim, General Otto von Bismarck, Count Johann von Bernstorff, former ambassador to the United States, Dr. von Bethmann-Hollweg, former imperial chancellor, General von Beseler, Count Bismarck, General von Boehm, General von Buelow, Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, the Duke of Mecklenburg, General von Bredow, Brnoart von Schellendorf, General Otto von BueLOW, Admiral von Capelle, General Grenier, General Van Damling, Prince Paulus, Prince Ernst of Saxony, General Paulkenhausen, General Falkenberg, Prince Frederick of Prussia, General von Gallwitz, Alfred von Hansson, Otto von Gottberg, General von Gravenitz, General Count Hammerstein, Dr. Hanke, General Count Marschal von Hindenburg, whose extradition is demanded by France and Belgium, Prince August of Hohenzollern, Prince Eitel Friedrich of Hohenzollern, the Crown Prince of Germany, Prince August of Hohenzollern, General von Hutler, Ismail Hakkil Pasha, General von Kluck, General von Lindegen, General Ladendorff, Field Marshal von Mackensen, General Maltzahn, General Baron Kurt von Manteuffel, General von Marwitz, von Moltke, von Moltke, Robert Morath, von Oetzel, von der Pfaniz, von der Pfaniz, General von Quast, Prince Karlshagen, Count Schwerin, Talaat Pasha, Admiral Tirpitz, General von Wittke, Submarine Commander Waldemar, Count Walderssee, Warburg, Prince Wittgenstein, Count Vitzthum, von Eckstedt, Alfred Zimmerman, former secretary of foreign affairs, some of the names in the list are discredited and the military or civil rank of the persons desired is not indicated.

These bonds will bear five percent interest as in France, being redeemable with a five percent bonus within six years.

It is understood the amount to be placed in the United States has not been fixed, but some estimates have run as high as $2,000,000,000.

President Is Ignorant of Viscount Grey's Letter On Peace Treaty Concessions

Washington, Feb. 5.—Various intimations and reports that President Wilson might have known in advance the contents of Viscount Grey's recent letter on the status of the peace treaty were met by administration officials today with the statement that while they did not care to assume the position of denying them, there was no foundation in fact for such conclusions. There were indications that the government here rather was inclined to feel that the president should have been advised of Viscount Grey's expressions before they were published.

White House officials said that the president all during his illness has been receiving communications in writing and that diplomats were not prevented from intercourse with him although it might not be a personal one. Secretary Lansing said published reports that the American government had sent a letter of protest to the British government regarding the Grey letter were without the slightest foundation. He added that he had not even discussed the matter with White House officials.

Paris, Feb. 5.—Jules J. Jusserand, French ambassador at Washington, has received instructions to define the attitude of the French government toward reservations to the covenant of the league of nations, according to the Echo De Paris, which says he has already taken steps to acquaint President Wilson with the views entertained here.

Commenting upon the letter of Viscount Grey, British ambassador to the United States, to the London Times with regard to the American position on the peace treaty, the Echo De Paris says:

"The allies are abandoning President Wilson." The paper adds that Viscount Grey succeeded in persuading Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain and former Premier Clemenceau, to adopt his viewpoint when in Paris some weeks ago and the letter to the Times will, it asserts, probably be followed by an official note along the same lines from the French and British cabinets.

"Our friends beyond the Atlantic can not fail to understand the significance of the language they have just heard," the Echo De Paris continues.

Deport Alien Indian Girls From Chemawa to Canada

Portland, Or., Feb. 5.—Four persons to be deported started back to Canada from here today in custody of Chief Deputy United States Marshal John Mann and V. W. Tomlinson, naturalization inspector. They are Wilfred Bergeron, who was barred from this country because of illiteracy, slipped through to join his uncle near Marshfield; George Golding, and two little Indian girls, Mamie Wilcox and Annie Dolan, aged 14 and 15.

Golding, who was said by the authorities to be demented, said he made his way to Portland from Canada to marry his "spirit sweetheart." He declared he had been in correspondence with her for some time. No trace could be found of the girl whose name he mentioned.

The two Indian girls eluded inspection and made their way to Chemawa training school near Salem. As no foreign born Indians are accepted there and as they violated the law in coming through without inspection, they are being taken back to Canada.

CRISIS DUE TO DROP IN RATE OF EXCHANGE

British Pound Sterling At Lowest Mark In History.—Continental Exchange Remains Feverish.—Conference To Pass On Credits.

London, Feb. 5.—The foreign exchange situation was eagerly discussed in all quarters of the city today and pending official action the market for continental exchange remained feverish. Exchange on Paris and Brussels was a shade worse than yesterday. New York exchange, however, was steadier, opening at $3.22 and gradually improving to $3.23 1/2, at which the business was smaller.

Opinion in financial circles seems to be that an international conference may decide upon the granting of credits for European countries to set the wheels of commerce in motion, the guarantors agreeing to abstain from unnecessary expenses and to carry out drastic financial reform themselves. One of the principal objectives counted as necessary was undoubtedly the expansion of exports to America, this aim is being fostered officially.

New York, Feb. 5.—Rates on demand bills for the English pound sterling, which tumbled yesterday to the record low of $3.18, opened today at $3.22 1/2 and rose to $3.25 at the end of the first hour.

The most disastrous collapse in the history of the foreign exchange market in New York a 25 per cent rate for demand loans, thus funds reduced to the vanishing point and further withdrawal of government deposits, summarized yesterday's serious disturbances in the stock exchange and the leading commodity markets.

Demand sterling fell to $3.19, a decline of 14 cents from yesterday's low and 31 cents under last week's final quotation. Translated into the American dollar, the pound sterling showed a loss of considerably more than 25 per cent from its normal or pre-war price of $4.85 1/2.

At New Low Mark. French, Belgian and Italian remittances at new low quotations of 15.12, 14.82 and 19.10 respectively were at discounts extending from 68 to 77 per cent of their normal quotation of 5.15 1/2 to the dollar.

Counter movements which reflected those local conditions included new high premiums for bar gold and silver in the London market and a higher quotation for New York exchange at Canadian points.

Bankers and international financiers as a whole declined to discuss the more ominous aspects of the international credit situation, but nevertheless hoped that the several governmental investigations now under way abroad might be productive of early results.

Stuntion in London. London, Feb. 5.—Reports from Washington regarding possible action on the international financial situation were eagerly read here today as was a report from New York that some of the banks there had discontinued the discount of dollar bills against the export of merchandise, because of the drop in exchange. The reported action of the banks created satisfaction, as it would mean that fewer goods would be sold to Great Britain. The stopping of the importation of articles of luxury is strongly advocated and it was reported this morning that further orders for this class of goods recently placed in the United States had been.

INSANE MAN TRIES TO DROWN HIMSELF

An attempt to commit suicide by jumping into the middle of north Mill creek failed Charles Holstead, an escaped inmate at the Oregon state insane asylum, Wednesday evening, when Traffic Officer Moffitt reached the scene and pulled him from the water. John Fisher, residing at 524 North Eighteenth street, called police headquarters and reported that he saw a man jumping into the creek and asked that an officer be detailed to investigate.

When Traffic Officer Moffitt arrived Holstead was standing in the creek, gazing dejectedly into the water, apparently disappointed at its depth and his failure to drown. The officer dragged him from the water, summoned a taxi, and returned him to the asylum.

Mint Man Steals $100,000 Gold Bullion In Hollow of False Wooden Leg He Wore

Slump In Eggs Force Supplies In Storage To Be Thrown On Market

Denver, Colo., Feb. 5.—Orville Harrington, 41, skilled worker in the Denver mint, was arrested early today by Roland K. Goddard, chief of the local branch of the secret service on a charge of having robbed the Denver mint of gold bullion valued at more than $100,000 dollars. A search of Harrington's home revealed the gold bars buried and hidden in various parts of the premises, and all of it was recovered, according to Goddard.

Harrington, according to the officers, carried the bars out of the mint concealed in a hollow false limb which he wore. Because of the unusual means taken to get the gold out of the mint, the officers were unable to locate the source of the thefts for several days. Harrington was taken into custody as he was coming off shift, a search of his person disclosing a $1400 bar of gold hidden in the false leg.

Harrington, the officers reported, was trapped as he was carrying away the metal. They said he confessed and led them to his home where the bars were found buried about the yard and hidden in various places. It was reported all of the stolen gold was recovered.

The thefts which began two weeks ago, had been traced to the refinery, and watch was set over all employees of that department. The list of suspected narrowed down to three and watch placed on the homes of the suspected ones. Tuesday night officers were watching the Harrington home saw Harrington bury a bar in the orchard, and subsequent search of the orchard disclosed four other ingots. The search of the house early today netted fourteen other bars which had been buried in the cellar.

"I was earning but four dollars a day working at the mint," said Harrington at police headquarters, "and one can't enjoy life on such limited funds. I can't say just when the impulse to steal first came to me. I was constantly in touch with great stores of gold and silver valued at hundreds of thousands of dollars, and—well, it looked too easy. That's all."

San Francisco, Feb. 5.—A scale of minimum salaries for the clergy of the Protestant Episcopal diocese of California has been fixed by the board of church extension, to be put in effect at the earliest moment that the finances of the board will permit, it was announced at the diocesan convention in session here by Charles L. Parsons, coadjutor bishop of the diocese.

Unmarried clergymen are to be allowed $1200 annually, under this scale, married men $1500 with an additional $100 for each minor child. Missionaries in ten out of 12 cases are to be furnished residences. The present salary for missionaries is $95 a month, the increase amounting to about 30%.

Bishop Parsons stated that investigations showed that of 12 selected occupations at Seattle only the waiters receive less than the clergy. He said the church and the daily suffered from the low salaries even more than the clergy because a clergyman hard pressed to meet his bills could not do his church work well.

NINE JURORS SELECTED FOR I. W. W. TRIAL

Two Temporary Jurors Excused By Defense And One By State At Morning Session—State Exhausts Preemptories—Three Seats Vacant.

Montesano, Wash., Feb. 5.—Nine permanent jurors to hear the evidence in the trial of eleven alleged I. W. W. on a charge of the murder of Warren O. Grimm, victim of the Centralia armistice day shootings, had been selected at the adjournment of court at noon today. Two temporary jurors were excused by the defense on peremptory challenges at the morning session and one by the state. Two were placed in the box to replace those excused by the defense. They were Aubrey T. Fisher, real estate agent, Aberdeen, and Edward Parr, logging engineer, Hoquiam.

The final preemptory of the state was exercised shortly before adjournment. George Combes, cigar dealer of Hoquiam, who had been seated during the earlier part of the court session being excused.

Three seats in the jury box now remain to be permanently filled, one to fill the vacancy due to the challenge of Combes and two to fill vacancies which George F. Vanderveer, counsel for the defense, says he will cause by exercise of his two remaining preemptories.

Nine talesmen were examined this morning, three being passed and one being unseated. It was expected that the permanent jury might be completed before court adjourned today. Selection of two alternate jurors was to follow.

The defense exercised its tenth preemptory this morning, which leaves only two, while the state still has one such challenge left. Only two men originally chosen to fill the box remain, preemptories having unseated all the others.

Attorney George F. Vanderveer for the defense today insisted that the venire be polled. Several were reported ill, one other failed to answer to his name and Vanderveer moved to quash the venire for this reason. His motion was denied.
