Mr. Beatty, who was engaged in federal investigation work during the war, has evolved what he calls a "Bertillion of the automobile." Mr. Beatty knows more about cars than the average garage "fence" and criminal mechanic. He claims that an automobile can be classified by marks, similar to the human finger prints and has proved his theory to the satisfaction of many automobile owners and to the discor forture of sundry auto thieves.

"Old Darby"

That wonderful masterpiece "Old Darby", by the immortal Rosa Bonheur, is on exhibition in our Ready-To-Wear Department.

We have brought this art treasure to Salem for your pleasure and edification.

It is not a reproduction. It is the original painting, done by Rosa Bonheur, one of the world's famous artists at her home at Fontainebleau, France in 1884, and art critics and laymen the world over are united in declaring it one of the most marvelous pieces o frealism ever put on canvass.
