

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

- Feb. 16. — Basket social Spanish War Veterans at armory, 8 p. m.
- Feb. 16. — Art history class, 8 p. m.
- Feb. 16. — Concert at First Christian church.
- Feb. 17. — General monthly meeting Salem Art League.
- Feb. 17. — District Governor meeting, 5 p. m.
- Feb. 17. — Williams and 25 visiting Rotarians will lunch at Marion hotel, 1 p. m.
- Feb. 18. — Judge McCamant lecture at public library.
- Feb. 18-19-20. — Salem Auto mobile show, armory.
- Feb. 18. — Marion county children's bureau clinic at Commercial club.
- Feb. 22. — Joint memorial exercises D. A. R. and other organizations, armory, 3 p. m.
- Feb. 25. — Monthly meeting Salem Business Mens League, Commercial club, 8 p. m.
- Feb. 27. — Business men's luncheon, Commercial club.
- Feb. 28. — Cherry City Bakers will entertain Rotarians and wives and friends at a banquet at 6 p. m.

Love, watchmaker, Jeweler, Salem.

A Great Bargain — Good 7 room house, good barn, large lot on corner and paved street. Must act quick. Price $2500. Lafar and Lafar, Oregon bldg.

Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor of Albany spent the week end in Salem.

R. P. O. E. dance Tuesday night, Feb. 17.

First class auto and furniture upholstering. O. J. Hull, Y block. 41*

Ask us about your top troubles; we top made and repaired. All work guaranteed at fair prices. O. J. Hull, Y. M. C. A. block. 41*

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Leabo, old time residents of Salem, have returned from Oakland, California, where they have been residing for the past several years and have taken up their residence at 1750 Court street.

This week's Drapery Special. See our Critique window, all at 63c yard. Hamilton's. 41*

W. H. Byars, E. L. Briggs and B. B. Herick, appraisers in the estate of D. C. Sherman have returned a report of property valuation, finding net property valued at $3797.38.

O. A. C. and Tanager Leghorn chicks for sale today and Tuesday, C. S. Hedman, 558 State St. 40

This week's Drapery Special. See our Critique window, all at 63c yard. Hamilton's. 41*

Charles E. Low has been appointed administrator of the estate of Beulah Low, who died in Salem recently. County Judge W. M. Bushley also named W. S. Low, William Hughes and G. E. Unruh to act as appraisers of property involved.

Dance Saturday night Auburn hall, 41*

Hear Dr. Mahood at the First M. church tonight, 7:30. Subject: "The Victory of Faith." 40*

Judge and Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris spent the week end in Portland as the guests of friends. While there they attended the performance of "The Auctioneer," with David Ward in the lead.

This is the last week of Special meetings at First church. Hear Dr. Mahood at 7:30 tonight. 40*

You ought to hear Dr. Mahood tonight on the subject, "The Victory of Faith." Good music and great preaching. Come early to get a good seat.

Mrs. M. L. Fulkerson has returned from an inspection of the schools in and near Silverton. At district No. 105 the spirit of progress is testified to by new blackboards and new seats. Miss Mabel Furrer is in charge of this school.

Rotarians! All Rotarians will be expected at the "luncheon" at Marion hotel Wednesday Feb. 18, at 1 p. m. Make a note of the hour. District Governor Clayton Williams will speak. 25 visiting Rotarians will accompany the speaker. 41*

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for the kindness and sympathy shown us up to the hour of our husband and father-in-law John D. Hardwick, also for the beautiful floral offerings. — Mrs. John D. Hardwick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Rasmussen, Miss Stella Hardwick and other relatives. 40

Special meeting of Salem Lodge No. 4 A. F. & A. M., this evening. Work in the G. E. A. degree. Visiting brethren welcome. 40*

OREGON

EUGENE O'BRIEN
"THE BROKEN MELODY"
MRS. JOE MARTIN MONKEY

NOW

The regular monthly meeting of the Coedman Music club was held Wednesday at the home of Miss Mabel Marcus. Valentine decorations were used and elaborate refreshments served. The following program was rendered: piano selection, Frances Hodges; vocal solo, Junette Janis; reading, Maude Powell; vocal solo, Mabel Marcus.

All wooden bridges in the city will be painted this spring, according to Street Commissioner Walter Low, who now has crews working in south Salem repairing and brightening up the spans. Mr. Low said that he began the work of painting and repairing the bridges early that they might be looking their best when the influx of auto tourists begins. He expressed the hope that the citizens of the city would begin cleaning up parkings and planting flowers and shrubbery to aid in beautifying the city.

Sixteen men and women were placed in remunerative positions during the past week through the municipal labor bureau, according to reports of City Recorder Race, head of the bureau, compiled Monday. Monday morning there was need of three men to work at once, according to the employment records.

The fire department, at 7:50 o'clock Monday morning, answered a call to Mrs. Frances Weeks, of San Diego, California, arrived in Salem Sunday for a brief visit with friends. Mrs. Weeks will leave Monday or Tuesday for Oregon City, where she will be the guest of friends for a few days. She plans to return to the Capital City for a more extended visit this latter part of the week.

Nick Moffit, of McMinnville, was in Salem Saturday, attending the convention of Metropolitan Life Insurance agents. Delegates from McMinnville, Dallas, Albany, and other towns were in attendance.

The Commercial Printing Company, Knowland and Unruh, proprietors, with offices in the United States National Bank Building, is installing a new 10x15 Chandler and Price press, with Miller automatic feeder. Until now the N. D. Elliott Printing House in the Salem Bank of Commerce Building, has been the only establishment in the city with the Miller attachments.

Judge E. H. D'Arcy and his sister, Tressa E. D'Arcy, returned from their annual trip to California last Saturday evening. While in San Francisco Judge D'Arcy delivered two addresses at the St. Francis hotel, the Florence of Oregon and California and The Irish Republic and Sinn Fein organization.

J. B. Lehman, from Nespecke, Ida., after a month's visit here with his two sons, W. S. Lehman, 694 Trade street, and U. G. Lehman, South Church street, left Sunday for Silver Creek, Ore., where he will visit two weeks with a brother, S. T. Arnold. Mr. Lehman then expects to return to Salem for a longer visit.

Salem readers of the Delineator and American magazines are enjoying a great deal of interest in the stories of Mrs. W. F. Fargo, of 1083 North Church street, which are appearing in the periodicals. Mrs. Fargo, who writes under the name of "Ruth Fargo" is composing a series of western stories for girls for the Delineator, the first of which, "The Birthday Sale," appeared in the February issue. The author has laid the scenes of the entire series in Oregon, and the publishers have commended her very highly for her work. The April issue of the American will carry another story by Mrs. Fargo, the articles for this magazine being along altogether different lines than those for the delineator.

There is on display in one of the Liberty street show windows of the Hartman Brothers Jewelry store, a small phoenician vase, the estimated age of which is over 4000 years. The vase was excavated from the estate of Joseph Whiteaker, in Myra, Sicily and presented to C. F. Gray by Mr. Whiteaker. It was given by Mr. Gray's heirs to Nora Linton, and by her to Margaret Steiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Steiner of the Wallace Road. Miss Steiner, although only ten years of age has a great admiration for antiques, particularly Egyptian and Grecian. The vase is one of the most valuable of her collection.

The Washingtonian society of Willamette university is arranging a banquet to be given on Washington's birthday, next Monday evening at 5:30 p. m. in the basement of the First M. E. church. Tickets are being sold to students and friends of the university at sixty five cents each. Speeches will be made by representatives of each class and organization in the university, the alumni, faculty and board of trustees. This annual affair has become the one big banquet of the year in the university, and an attendance of practically the whole student body is expected. The banquet will be served by members of the Washingtonian society, students whose homes are in Washington, of whom there are over seventy in the university.

The Willamette freshman basketball team will play their first game next Tuesday evening, lining up against Salem high school in the Willamette gymnasium. The freshmen have been practicing for about a month, under the coaching of Paul Wapato, varsity captain. A large number of men have been trying out, and no regular team has been picked. A possible lineup for this game is Gansans and Thomas, forwards; Stone center; Ellis and Notson, guards.

A flag raising was celebrated at the Salem Heights school, Friday afternoon. A brief but appropriate ceremony was witnessed by pupils and patrons of the school.

School Supervisor Mrs. M. L. Fulkerson, reports general improvements at the Davis school, district No. 95, of which Miss Agnes Bock is in charge. A general cleaning up of the school house and grounds is noted. This school has also acquired new seats and other up to date equipment.

J. D. M. Cashier in the Bank of Independence, drove out of this city Saturday in a new Velle car, bought from the Salem Velle company, 162 North Commercial street.

955 North Cottage street, where a chimney blaze was stirring considerable excitement in the neighborhood. It was quickly extinguished by the firemen, with no damage resulting.

The theft of his bicycle as it stood in the alley near the Bligh hotel was reported to police Sunday by Weldon Lelay, 405 Winter street, who sought co-operation of the police in finding it. A description of the bicycle was given at headquarters and a search for it was being made Monday.

The theft of his machine and its recovery about an hour afterward was reported to police Saturday night by G. E. Terwilliger, 710 Chemeketa street, a local undertaker. The machine was a Studebaker Six.

W. A. West, deputy clerk of the Oregon supreme court, will resign that position within a few days to engage in private practice of law at Klamath Falls, Or., where he will be connected with C. F. Stone, member of the state fish and game commission and one of the best known attorneys of southern Oregon. West is also a member of the city council, which position he will resign tonight. He expects to leave Salem for his new location sometime before the first of March.

Sam Koeber, deputy secretary of state, is unable to be at his office today because of illness.

Arrested Saturday evening by Traffic Officer Moffitt when he was going south on 12th street 35 miles an hour with his machine, C. T. Thompson, 19, forfeited his bail of $5 to Chief of Police Welch Monday and was released. He said that business that called him from the city prevented his appearance before Police Judge Race.

Two hundred pocket knives and 12 razors were stolen when a hardware store at Silverton was burglarized, according to a report received at police headquarters here at 4:15 Sunday morning from authorities at that town. Salem police were asked to aid in the search for the burglars, and to maintain a watch here for the reappearance of any of the stolen cutlery.

Night Patrolman Frank White, newly appointed to the police force, Sunday night was stricken with illness while on the downtown streets, and was taken to his home in a taxi. It was not known Monday whether his ailment is influenza.

The Art History class of the Salem Art League will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock, in the public library, Mrs. R. Monroe Gilbert, president of the club will preside. A committee of the Salem Floral Society will meet a committee from the Art League to discuss the advisability of making the former organization a branch of the latter. It is thought that by so doing the two organizations could work in unison, and accomplish more easily the work of making Salem the "City Beautiful." The proposition was first discussed at a joint meeting of the two organizations last week, and the officials of the societies have had the matter under advisement in the meantime.

Telegraph wires and two poles were torn down and seven gondola cars were derailed at about two o'clock Monday morning when the Southern Pacific freight engine backed a train off a spur on South 12th street. The accident occurred when the engineer could not see the end of the spur in the darkness. No one was injured.

The revival meeting at the Highland Friends church are in progress. Rev. Daniel G. Hodgins, a prominent evangelist of Ohio is attending the meetings. His preaching is scriptural and practical and in the interests of the interests of the Holy Spirit. Meetings will be held every evening at 7:30 o'clock, and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A hole was cut in the basement wall of the Royal Cafeteria, 460 State street by firemen, and slight damages resulted from water and fire when city firemen were summoned at 11:30 o'clock Monday morning to extinguish a chimney fire there. It was quickly controlled.

F. A. Kartton, assistant state superintendent of public instruction, is able to be at his desk in the state house again after an absence of two weeks during which time he has been confined to his home with the influenza.

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, left Saturday night for Chicago where he will attend the annual convention of the national society for vocational education. This convention will meet on February 19, 20 and 21. From Chicago Mr. Churchill will go to Cleveland, Ohio, where he will participate in the annual meeting of the department of superintendents of the National Educational Association.

Fred Williams of the public service commission has just been notified of his appointment as a member of the railroad rates committee of the National Association of Railroad and Utilities Commissioners with headquarters in Chicago.

Miss Ruth Wallace, a deputy in the office of County Clerk Boyer, is the latest flu victim from the courthouse personnel. Miss Wallace was taken ill Saturday evening and was unable to report for duty Monday morning.

Miss Emma Haid spent the week end at Corvallis as sorority house guest of Miss Helen Moore, who is attending school at O. A. C. this winter.

A. H. Moore and family motored to Portland Sunday. Mr. Moore reports travel and road conditions to be fair, considering the season. While in Portland, Mr. Moore visited J. N. Ryan, who is quite seriously ill in a hospital there. Mr. Ryan at one time was a member of the mechanical staff of the Capital Journal.

E. C. Simmons, formerly of Salem, but now Ford and Fordson dealer at Eugene, where he is also president of the chamber of commerce, was registered at the Marion over Sunday night.

John Krebs of this city is in Portland, where he has been taking medical treatment for the past week.

One wheel was knocked off of a delivery car owned by William Gahlsdorf company, and the rear fender was broken off of a Ford sedan owned by E. F. Ryder, 1305 Broadway, and other slight damages resulted to both machines, when they collided at the corner of Chemeketa and 14th street Monday afternoon at about 1 o'clock. Homer Best was driving the delivery truck, and Mr. Ryder was driving his own car. Neither of them were injured.

Percy M. Varney, former chief of Salem's police department, and recently appointed state parole officer, assumed charge of the office at the penitentiary Monday morning. Mr. Varney was due to take up the duties of state parole officer February 1, but due to his confinement at his home, 530 Center street, with an attack of Spanish influenza, has not been able to do so. Mrs. Varney, who was also ill with influenza, is much improved.

A number of improvements, such as a general overhauling of the rooms, the installation of lockers for the use of the Yeomen, Royal Highlanders and other orders who use the hall, are being made by the Foresters of America, in their assembly hall on North Commercial street.

The general monthly business meeting of the Salem Art League will be held in the public library Tuesday evening at 8 p. m. A good attendance is expected.

K. E. Field, one of the heads of the Loyal Legion of Lumbermen and Loggers, was in Salem Monday. While here, Mr. Field was in conference with several banking firms and Salem attorneys.

E. M. Good of Toledo, Ohio, is visiting relatives in Salem.

H. Scott, Rosedale farmer, was a Salem visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Teeter and daughter were in Salem Monday. Mr. Teeter is a well known prune grower and berry raiser of Rosedale.

Claude Sottelmeier, Lake Brook rancher, was also a Salem visitor Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Rightner who operate a successful farm near Wacanda, transacted business in Salem Monday.

Deposed Postmaster of Portland Awaits Hearing
Portland, Or., Feb. 16.—Frank S. Myers, deposed postmaster of Portland by order of President Wilson, today had not yet received any communication from the senate committee on postoffice relative to a hearing which he has sought for the purpose of threshing out what he declares to have been his unwarranted dismissal. Newspaper dispatches last week from Washington indicated that the senate committee would grant Mr. Myers, deposed as postmaster of Portland that formal notice of this action is now in the mails and will be received by him some time this week. Myers said yesterday that as soon as he receives official word from the senate he will arrange to leave for Washington to present his side of the postoffice controversy before the United States senate.

Man Wanted in Tacoma for Larceny is Ordered Freed
Acting upon instruction from the sheriff at Tacoma that the "prosecuting attorney had authorized his release, Chief of Police Welch, Saturday, released J. A. Elrod, 33, who was arrested here several days previous on a charge of grand larceny by check. Authorities here do not know what nature the settlement was that was reached. Elrod, shadowed by an operative from the Burns detective agency, was arrested here after it is said he fled Tacoma with a $1700 bank deposit not his own. Similarity of names of depositors enabled him to obtain the other banker's funds, the operative told police here.

Probate Court
Jacob P. Minch estate, 123 vouchers. Hazel A. Fox and Harry E. Fox estate. Undertaking on appeal. In the matter of the guardianship of Mary A. Boggs, an incompetent person. Report of sale of real property. Reatha Hughes Low estate. Bond of administrator. D. C. Sherman estate. Inventory and appraisal. Reatha Hughes Low estate. Petition for letters.

Marriage Licenses
Aileigh R. Straw, 24, of 1870 South 13th street, a carpenter, to Vera Ewing, 18, of Salem.

LONG FLIGHT ENDS
London, Feb. 16.—The air ministry was advised today of the arrival of Mongolia, southern Egyptian Sudan at the Times airplane, competing in the fight from Cairo to Capetown.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brantner, 47, wife of Mathias Brantner, of Summit, Or., died at a local hospital Saturday following relatives in Salem.

lowing an illness of several weeks. The funeral will be held at the Catholic church here at nine o'clock Tuesday morning, with interment following in the Catholic cemetery.

Four sons, C. E. Brantner, Blackrock, Ore., M. H. Brantner, now confined in a Portland hospital, Robert and John Brantner, of Summit; and five daughters, Mrs. O. Sampson, Chemawa, Antoinette Brantner, Salem, Mary, Agnes and Grace Brantner, of Summit, and her husband to mourn her death.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 18
Seats on Sale Now
RETURN OF THE FAVORITE
Oliver Morosco Presents the Ever-Popular Hawaiian Romance

Richard Walton Tully's Play of a Woman's Soul
A Brilliant Cast, Including FLORENCE ROCKWELL AND THE SINGING HAWAIIANS
Price: 50c to $2.00—Mail Orders Now

CANCER

To whom this may concern I will say that I was afflicted with a cancerous growth in my temple to the annoyance of my self and family. I advised with Dr. S. C. Stone, Salem, Oregon, who applied a medicine for five days and then a simple ointment and after a few days the CANCER came out entirely to my great satisfaction. I can truly recommend Dr. Stone's.
R. J. THORP,
Seaside, Oregon, box 663.

ENDEAVOR

We endeavor to give the best service and the earnestness of our endeavor is expressed in the quality of our service, the courtesy of our staff, and the efficiency of our management. Quality, Courtesy and Efficiency

WEBB & CLOUGH CO.
FUNERAL DIRECTORS
499 COURT STREET
SALEM

Dr. C. B. O'Neill
OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
Lodge & Dash Bank Building
For State and Commercial Sfs. Salem

Great News for the Farmer

We are in receipt of a wire from the Ford Motor company, who promise 300 FORDSON TRACTORS for Oregon in February. We have two car loads of TRACTORS now en route which we can therefore release for immediate deliveries.

Now Is Your Opportunity
You can have a FORDSON TRACTOR NOW, if you act quick

FORDSON FARM TRACTORS

Power Farming Is Profitable

How Can You Afford to Farm Without a Fordson
You MUST have a FORDSON TRACTOR. If you cannot avail yourself of this opportunity and buy now, you should book your order now, to insure having a tractor out of the 300 that are promised for this month.

IT IS EITHER BUY NOW, OR PLACE YOUR ORDER NOW
You cannot any longer successfully farm without one. "Ask the man who owns one."

Valley Motor Co.
Fordson Approved Farm Implements

Meet Me at Meyers

Sport Skirts for Spring

The separate sport skirt worn with the SPORT COAT, will be in very popular demand this spring. We have secured the wonderful "STAR" Skirts, made up in all the new Spring Fabrics.

Fan-ta-si Kumsi-Kumsa; Jersey; Baronette
All Wool Plaids and White Serge

If it is your desire to be correctly dressed, with practical, economical, excellent wearing skirts, you should certainly see this marvelous line. And we advise an early call, while assortment is complete.

Delineator Special Offer Is Still On

The best, most interesting magazine that can be bought for the home. Enter your subscription at the Pattern Counter.

You Can Always Do Better At

Quality First MEYERS Quality First
GOOD GOODS
Who Always Do Better By You