

NEGRO IS ARRESTED FOR DISTURBANCE IN BLUE BIRD CAFE

A negro, who gave his name to police as being H. A. Bost, 39, was arrested Monday under bond of $10. Police Judge Race was awaiting the passage of today's legal holiday so that he might hold court at 10 a. m. at the Blue Bird Cafe, and police were waiting the outcome of a rumored threat in colored circles that one of the negroes "carried a fawty-faw and a going gunnin'" as a result of an uprising and disturbance last night in the Blue Bird Cafe, 163 South Commercial street.

Officer W. J. White arrested Bost upon complaint of Mrs. R. C. Cook, a waitress in the establishment, that he was creating a disturbance there. She told police that Bost had entered the restaurant and demanded a drink. When she pointed to a sign in the window that whites only are accommodated she said that Bost in a furious rage tore the sign down and called her a vile name. She then summoned the officer.

Bost admitted to Night Sergeant Elmer White that he tore the sign down and said "there ain't no place for colored men can eat, and they won't even let 'em sleep any more" he guessed.

He was released to appear before Judge Race at 10:30 Monday morning, but because of the holiday the trial was postponed until Tuesday morning.

UPPER MICHIGAN REFINERY REVOLTS

from them.

Major "Veterans" James A. Bost, a force of approximately eighty officers assist him in "cleaning up" the county, he said. It would be composed equally of prohibition and anti-members of the state constabulary.

Prosecutor Denies Revolt.

P. A. McDonough, prosecuting attorney of Iron county, is a "ref" issued last night assumed "all responsibility" for taking the "ref" to the federal agents and "open revolt" that the county was in "open revolt."

Attorney General Palmer, who passed through Chicago last night, said he could take no action until official reports reached him but declared that he had full authority to enforce the law and would have the complete support of the government machinery.

Iron river is a small village in the mining country a few miles north of the Wisconsin line. The population largely is composed of Italian and Slovenians and much "bootlegging" has been reported there recently.

Statements of Mr. McDonough and Leon J. Grove, supervisor of federal prohibition enforcement in the upper peninsula, on whose report Major Daumple based his appeal to Attorney General Palmer for aid in arresting the prosecutor, two deputy sheriffs, two policemen and the three owners of the wine, agreed in part as to the facts that precipitated the present status in Iron county.

Booze Is Seized.

Grove, accompanied by Lieutenant R. G. Stroppe and two troops of the state constabulary, had seized eleven barrels of wine at the Virell location, a mine two miles from Iron River, the statement of both men agree.

When Grove and his party were met by Attorney General Palmer and the federal officers right to have confiscated the wine was questioned and the liquor was taken from him by force, statements of the two further agree.

There their stories diverge, how-

JUST ONE OF SALEM'S Sunday Sermons

Rev. A. R. Bell, Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Just as it is in the courts of men, so it is at the judgment bar of God. Law is the rule or standard of judgment. In reference to the judgment, we are told in Hebrew 10:31: "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." In Gen. 18:25, Abraham tells us that God is "Judge of all the earth," and in 2 Chron. 19:7 we read that there is no "respect of persons" with the Lord, "nor taking of bribes." R. U. in I Sam. 16:7 we are told that the "Lord looketh upon the heart," and in I Chron. 28:9 that "the Lord searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts."

Judgment Is True.

"At the bar of God men are judged for 'every secret thing' (his thoughts) Eccles. 12:14; for 'every idle word,' Matt. 12:36; and for 'the things done, (his deeds) II Cor. 5:10. Before that court it will not be the testimony of our own life or others, that will save or condemn. Judgment is according to 'those things which were written in the books' Rev. 20:12.

We each have a soul to save; each one of us has a case pending at the judgment bar. How important that we be prepared to meet the issue. Ignorance of the law is no excuse in the courts of men. Do you think it will be at the court of God?

Surrounded by so many evidences of His love and care; made subjects of His grace through the blessed gospel of His son, God calls us to salvation in the words "My son, give Me thine heart," Prov. 23:26. The counsel of Jesus is "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all the soul, and with all thy mind," Matt. 22:37. And the wise man sums it all ever. The prohibition agent maintained that he was acting within his authority in seizing the wine, which was the property of John, Joseph and Steven Stalczuk, brothers, principal directors of the Peninsula Packing company at Iron River and owners of the little town's largest store. Mr. Grove asserted the liquor was kept in the store and because of that was subject to government seizure.

Mr. McDonough said the wine was maintained in the men's home, their residence being above the store, and that after being tried in the state court in connection with ownership of the same wine, the Stalczuks were found not guilty of violating prohibition laws.

PAROLED CONVICT WHO CHEATED OLD PAIR IS RETURNED

With eighteen years of a two to twenty year sentence still to do, James Charles Connors, arrested in Seattle last week was returned to the state prison here Sunday as a parole violator. Connors was received at the penitentiary on June 1, 1917, for defrauding Mary Obermeyer out of $2200. Valient service among the convicts at the institution during the influenza epidemic of 1918 secured his parole shortly thereafter by Governor Withycombe.

Shortly after his release from prison Branson of Williamina, Yamhill county, he visited Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ty, with an offer to secure the release of their son, Willie Branson, also a convict at the state prison. According to the story told by the elderly Branson after the realization of Connors' duplicity, Connors had represented himself as able to secure the release of young Branson for a consideration. The Branson's, yielding to their desire to aid their son, paid

ROTARIANS ATTEND SUNDAY SERVICE TO OPEN ROTARY WEEK

By J. F. Hutchason.

As a part of "All Rotary" week the members of the Salem Rotary club attended church last evening at the Congregational church. Did I say attendance? I made a mistake—a small percentage attended. Can't tell a thing about the reason the attendance was so small. As all Rotarians are supposed to be four square and equal to any and all emergencies I supposed every member would be present. May be most of them thought they might hear some things about what a Rotarian should be that they couldn't live up to, but such was not the case. I don't think it was oversight for I am sure the meeting was well advertised. It could not have been because some had to go to their own church meetings that very reason. And we Rotarians stayed away than attended and as long as they have a good reason of no reason I have no criticism to offer. I am glad I attended a day at a Rotarian and his wife who did attend were glad that they came out.

Excellent Service.

The church had been beautifully decorated and as the Rotarians filed into their seats the delightful strains from the pipe organ came to offer welcome.

A well trained quartet furnished most excellent music and Mr. Gilte rendered a solo in his usual perfect habit.

Rev. W. C. Kantner took as his text these words, "Wanted, A Man," and I assure you that was very appropriate for the occasion. His talk was wonderfully inspiring and his respect to "Rotary" were right to the point. I am sure that every member present will be a better man for having listened to Dr. Kantner as he measured man as he should be. He did not ask that he belong to some church, but he did insist that he be a man.

Dr. Kantner pointed out that the Rotary club would be a great benefit to Salem and especially to the individual members. He predicted great things in store for the organization in the future and admonished the members to study to live up to the teachings of the society.

Movies Too.

Two reels of "The Day After" after the regular church services. The church has a fine machine and a good operator and the reels were a fitting finish to the evening.

The Rotary club meets at a luncheon every Wednesday at noon. However the coming Wednesday will see the program changed and the members and wives and friends will go to a party at 8 p. m. where they will be the guests of Roy Wiese at a banquet. There will be special music and good speaking and the best of eats. I predict a full attendance for this meeting closes the week and all are expected to come.

NOT much money, as money goes nowadays—but you'll be surprised how much good food a nickel will buy when invested in a packet of Morse's seeds. Take your pick:

- Radishes
- Onions
- Turnips
- Cucumbers
- Beets
- Carrots
- Tomatoes

—and dozens of others. At grocers, florists, drug and hardware stores, etc., everywhere.

MORSE'S SEEDS

The world's largest glacier is the Muir in Alaska. It is nowhere found in the wild state. Seals seldom use their fore feet in swimming.

What causes Indigestion?

An excess of acid in the stomach sours the food and starts fermentation. Distressing gases form. Your meals don't digest but lay like lumps of lead. Then you have heartburn, flatulence, fullness, belching, headache, and real misery in the stomach and intestines.

A few tablets of "Pape's Diapepsin" bring relief almost as soon as they reach the stomach. "Pape's Diapepsin" costs little at drug stores.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

abundant in growth-promoting properties, is an ideal supplemental food that could well be a part of the diet of every growing child. Children always do well on Scott's Emulsion.

All-on-One-Floor Heating $174

Reduces living costs for the small home!

Where two or more families occupy a building and there is no janitor service available, this arrangement of separate heating outfits (consisting of an IDEAL-Arcola Boiler with a few AMERICAN Radiators connected thereto) offers a fine solution. Each tenant easily takes care of his simple heating outfit on his own floor without going to the cellar (if there is a cellar) to attend to the fire. Each tenant controls the heat to suit his own needs. The piping is ordinarily run out of sight between walls or under floors.

New IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler

Puts IDEAL Hot Water Heating comfort at low cost in "deckers" or flats, bungalows, stores and shops, with or without cellars

Even the $15 a month tenant would be glad to pay $1.50 a month extra for this IDEAL Hot Water Heating, as it would save the tenant investing six times that amount in a short-lived stove with its one-room "spotty" heating. Does away with the annual blacking, taking down and storing of stoves. And the $1.50 a month increased rental is good interest to the building owner and secures him a better satisfied, longer-staying tenant. The IDEAL-Arcola is therefore an investment, not an expense—as it will outwear the building itself.

Investigate at once this IDEAL Heating bargain!

Each tenant controls the exact degree of warmth his family prefers or needs—makes his own indoor climate! The IDEAL-Arcola requires no cellar. Same water is circulated over and over for many years! There is no danger to children or fire risk to building, as the iron surfaces do not get red-hot like a stove, nor can the Arcola be overturned or a leg kicked out. Stops all coal-waste—thus bringing heating costs down to lowest notch.

Greater comfort, cleanest heating, saves work and worry, protects family health, saves doctor bills and repair bills. The coal-saving moon repays original cost. Put quickly into OLD or new buildings. Phone your local dealer today.

Catalog showing open views of houses, individual flats, stores, offices, etc., with the IDEAL-Arcola Boiler in position will be mailed (free). Write today
