

LUMBER STOCKS OF NORTHWEST MILLS ARE BELOW NORMAL

Stocks at the lumber mills of western Oregon and western Washington are slightly below normal, according to the monthly report of the West Coast Lumbermen's association, and on account of the continued demand for lumber it is considered unlikely that a normal volume of stocks will be attained for more than a year.

Even though the present stocks are below normal, they would be materially lower if the mills had enough cars to fill the orders now on their books. The report shows that the stock of the higher grades of lumber is relatively lower than the common grades.

Manufacturers now seem fully aware that they can expect no substantial relief from the chronic car shortage until after the railroads have had a chance to supply themselves with some new equipment.

They are very cautious, therefore, about accepting new business. Last week, according to the 127 mills reporting to the association barometer, new orders were held down to 57,277,994 feet, which, it is estimated, was less than 50 per cent of the volume of business actually offered.

An aggregate of 42,630,000 feet or 1421 cars of this new business was booked to move by rail. The rail shipments from the same mills for the same period were 2036 cars. This excess of shipments over orders gave these mills a chance to move some of the business that the car shortage has forced them to accumulate on their books in the last few months.

Mills reports the log supply somewhat light and prices are advancing. Labor tests also have advanced since the first of the year. The car shortage has increased the financial burden of the mills as it frequently has prevented them from loading stock that were ready to move.

JUST ONE OF SALEM'S Sunday Sermons

(By Rev. A. Wells of the Nazarene Church.)

Extracts from a sermon preached by A. Wells at the Nazarene church, February 25, 1926:

Text Eph 4-24 with Heb. 12-10. "Created an righteousness and true holiness that we might be partakers of His holiness."

We notice in this scripture there is implied the thought of true holiness as compared with that, that is called holiness but which in fact is not holiness but a false profession. The word holiness in its real meaning means wholeness, completeness, perfection, and we are told that by putting off the old man and putting on the new man which is created in righteousness and true holiness we are made complete. There are two conditions implied in the text by putting them together, the first representing a state of being as partakers of His holiness, and the other possessing the experience so that we live in a state of holiness expressed by the first named condition. In one we are created in true holiness and in the other we are partakers of His holiness through the truth.

The question naturally comes "What does it mean to be holy?" We answer that it means to be like God in our hearts just as free from sin as He is free from it and with no desire to enter into it any way. We have partaken of His divine nature until we do not desire any thing He does not desire, with the limitation of not knowing all things as He knows them but, just as far as we know, we have no desires that are not natural to the divine for He is in us and dwells in us and walks in us, He is our life. This is holiness.

We obtain it by putting off the old man and putting on the new man created in righteousness and true holiness in contrast with the old man which is corrupt in all his ways.

What do we mean then by the new man? We find the answer in the verse in which our text is found and a part of the text. We read in Genesis that man was made in the image of the Creator and that the Creator was a holy being. Then if man were made in His image we naturally conclude that man was a holy being when he came from the hands of the Creator but in the fall he forfeited that image and now we find that the new man is created in righteousness and true holiness. Hence we conclude that the new man is that which was lost in the fall and when he is put on we are brought back into the same covenant relation to the Creator that we held before the fall and we are again in possession of the holiness we had before the fall. The image has been restored and we are sanctified and made holy in this life.

We have the two experiences very clearly shown in the third chapter

Knoxville, Tenn.—"My back hurt me all the time, I was all run down, could not eat and my head bothered me, all caused by female trouble. #### PROPOSAL TO COMPENSATE WILHELM BRINGS PROTEST

Berlin, March 1.—Protests against the proposal of the Prussian diet to compensate former Emperor William for the loss of his throne, and demands that the estates of the crown be expropriated were voiced in resolutions passed unanimously at a meeting of the socialist party of the Berlin district last evening. Several members of the ministry were present. Warning was given that if the diet's proposal was accepted by the bourgeois parties, the socialists would withdraw from the German governments.

Youthful in Body and Mind

Never mind your age—as measured by years. How do you feel? That's the thing that counts! See this sprightly old gentleman coming toward you down the street. His birth record would show you that he is past seventy. But judging from the easy grace with which he swings along, his erect carriage, his ruddy complexion, the keen glance of his eyes, his whole appearance the very picture of health, you would say that he is not a day past fifty. He is young in spite of his three score years and ten.

More frequently you see the opposite of his type. Men scarcely in their thirties, haggard, listless, weak, nervous—men who take no interest in life, just dragging out a weary existence, all in, tired and worn out. Though young in years, they are, nevertheless, old men. Their vital forces are on the wane. They've lost their "punch" and "pep." They feel old—and they look it!

Stay young by keeping your body fit. Keep stomach, bowels, liver, kidneys and bladder healthy and active. Build up your strength and health. Nothing will accomplish these results better than
