FOR THE NEW HOSPITAL.

COUNTY JUDGE BUSHEY has agreed in behalf of the county to subscribe $25,000 of county funds for the erection of the new Salem hospital, provided $100,000 is subscribed from other

The action of the court is to be commended, for the county has no greater need than an adequate modern hospital and no public money could be expended more wisely and judiciously or more

The hospital will not be a money making institution but a public necessity for human welfare. It will benefit the entire county and its facilities will be available to all. Present meagre hospital facilities have long been outgrown and the demands of the present and future must be met if city and county are to Jimmy Rabbit on top of the load or Fatty should reach for his lega

The Capital Journal has remarked the same thing in warning not know just what the drop will be Salem to beware of the fate of capital cities in general, where lethargy and indifference replace ambition and progress.

However, Salem is rapidly overcoming the handicap of capitalitis and is showing commendable energy and initiation. In the past month her citizens have subscribed $50,000 to start a hometo building organization to aid in solving the housing problem, have subscribed $7500 out of the needed $10,000 for Commercial Club publicity work, and are donating liberally for the erection of a large hospital. Plans are being formulated for the creation of a brought here seriously hurt but with port of Salem and the erection of needed bonded warehouses and docks, for providing an adequate auto camp ground, for paving unpaved portions of streets connecting paved streets and highways and other needed improvements.
