The Bridge Luncheon club, including in its personnel some of the city's most prominent social leaders, met for its usual gathering at the residence of Mrs. T. C. Smith, 539 North Water street, last week. The afternoon was pleasantly spent with the usual diversion of the club. A good representation of the membership, and several additional guests enjoyed the hospitality of the gracious hostess.

What proved to be one of the prettiest social events of the past week took place when Mrs. J. E. Brophy entertained the members of the Monday afternoon Bridge club, last Thursday. A suggestion of the advent of Spring was noticeable in the beautiful decorations of early spring flowers and greenery, with which the Brophy residence was adorned. Mrs. R. E. Goodin was the recipient of the high honors.

Additional guests of the club were Mrs. George Riches, Mrs. Paul B. Johnson, Mrs. Ray Pomeroy and Mrs. Harry Wenderoth. The hostess was graciously assisted by Mrs. Ralph Glover during the dinner hour.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Millard entertained the D. O. H. O. club at a dinner Monday night. The color scheme was in yellow. A low bowl of Junquils centered the table and yellow shaded candles were used at each end of the table. Those enjoying the hospitality of the Millard home were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Young, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Littler, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. John Todd, and Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Kirk. Music and conversation ended a pleasant evening.

The auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans will sponsor a card party at their hall in the armory, Monday evening, March 8, at eight o'clock. This is the first party of the season and it is hoped that all will attend. The nature of the affair will be progressive five hundred, and valuable prizes will be given to those having the highest score. A cordial invitation is extended to all persons who are not members of the auxiliary, and a good time is assured. There will be a short program during the evening.

One of the most pleasant parties in the younger social set occurred recently when the Crestos entertained informally. A short program opened the evening's festivities, of which the orchestra, formed of five girls was a distinctive feature. Miss Bruce Putnam, Miss Edith Walker, Miss Frances Rubetz, Miss Evelyn Gordon and Miss Mary Elizabeth Hunt composed the orchestra. The evening was pleasantly passed with games and music, and culminated with the serving of a delicious luncheon.

Miss Ellen Owen left for Newburg Friday to be the guest of friends for a few days.

The Modern Writers division of the Salem Art League met last evening in the studio of Miss Pratt, over the J. C. Penny store, on Liberty street. The Modern Writers division, of which Mrs. F. S. Barton is chairman, is an active section, and has been doing some original work in the line of short story writing.

At the meeting of Chapter G. P. E. O. Sisterhood, held Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Moore, 635 North Church street, the following officers were elected to serve for the coming club year: President, Mrs. F. W. Sealey; vice president, Mrs. Gerald Volk; recording secretary, Miss Laura Grant; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. W. Lafair; chaplain, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr.; guard, Mrs. Will T. Kirk.

Aside from the regular order of business especial interest was taken in the matter of supporting the drive for the new Salem hospital, as the various other women's organizations in the city are doing. The members voted unanimously to do all in their power to make the campaign a success. Whether their support will be given in the form of furnishing and equipping a ward, or whether other means will be used, was not decided. The question will be more fully discussed, and a decision reached, at the next meeting of the sisterhood.

The hostess served a delicious luncheon at the close of the business session.

Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson, vice president general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, left Thursday evening for Albany for the purpose of attending the convention of that organization which is being held there, and where she will be principal speaker at one of the meetings. Accompanying Mrs. Patterson Thursday evening, were Mrs. Seymour Jones, regent of the Chemeketa chapter of Salem, Miss Edith Benedict, state secretary, and Mrs. Homer Goulet. Other local delegates to the convention, who left Friday morning, are Mrs. O. P. Hoff, Mrs. H. M. Styles, Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Miss Lillian Applegate and Mrs. C. C. Clark. The business meetings of the convention are being held in the Masonic Temple at Albany. Two principal features of the occasion were receptions at the Albany hotel Friday night and the official luncheon at the hotel this afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Honoring the 46th anniversary of her husband's birthday, Mrs. C. S. Hamilton entertained a coterie of friends with beautifully appointed birthday dinner Tuesday evening at the Hamilton residence, 296 Front street. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner and daughter Lenta Baumgartner, Mrs. Campbell, Jesse Huber and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Catlin, who have been spending the winter in Phoenix, Arizona, and in San Francisco, returned to their Salem home Wednesday, and are being welcomed by the social circles of the city.

The Tuesday Musical club met with Miss Tartar at her studio March 2 for a business and social evening.

One thing that will be of interest to all members is the change of name. This organization being a branch of the State Music Teachers Association it was deemed best to designate the club as such and by the unanimous vote the Tuesday Musical club will hereafter be known as the Salem District of the State Musical Teachers Association.

After other matters of business had been disposed of the members adjourned to the banquet room at the Spa where a delightful hour was spent.

At the next regular meeting, April 6, American music and musicians will be discussed.

Is the love germ catching the same as the "flu"?

Or can it be that there is a conspiracy afoot among the fair members of the automobile registration department of the secretary of state's office to take advantage of the matrimonial opportunities offered by leap year.

Whatever the explanation the fact remains that Dan Cupid, the little God of Love has been working overtime in this particular department in

The marriage of Miss Hope Purdy to Ramon Bassett and Miss Hazel Freeman to Levant Pease, Thursday, making the sixth matrimonial venture involving employees of this department within the past few months, has caused department heads to wonder where the love-tipped arrows of the little God are going to strike next.

The other members of the department who have fallen victim to the wiles of the little God recently are:

Miss Laura Arenz now Mrs. Harry Crain.

Miss Lorilla Bolter now Mrs. Chester Yantis.

Miss Leitha Wels now Mrs. Floyd Gibson.

Miss Florence Esch now Mrs. Kenneth Bell.

With the exception of Mrs. Yantis and Mrs. Gibson the brides are still in the employ of the department.

The Three Link Needle club was delightfully entertained on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Louise King on South Capitol street. The hours were spent in needlework and games. Twenty-six guests partook of the dainty refreshments served by Mrs. W. A. Cummings and Mrs. C. C. Nichols. The next meeting of the club will be held March 12, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Cameron, on North 21st street.

The ladies of Jason Lee memorial church were royally entertained at a "coffee" on Wednesday afternoon at the pretty home of Mrs. Ruth Dennison, 1546 North Liberty street. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. C. M. Roberts, Mrs. Bert Walker and Mrs. Frank Prince.

The following item from a recent issue of the Oregonian will be of interest to many Salem folks:

Mrs. C. O. Dennis was hostess Monday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Sarah Hovenden, the occasion being the anniversary of the latter's birthday. The guests were members of the family and spent an informal afternoon. The room was full of flowers and the huge decorated birth dominating feature of the tea. Mrs. Hovenden, Mrs. M. L. Jones and Mrs. John Withycombe of Labish meadows came down and are still guests in town.
