Beacats humbled last night in a fast game. The game was featured by the super-human "Blum" Rarey, who proved a better shot he would be on the all-conference team.

Willamette was delayed on account of the visiting team, but the game started at 7:30. The clubmen could stop the game at 11-3 for Willamette at the end of the half.

"Help The Senators Now" Says Bishop; Close Fund Drive

The fund for the erection of an athletic field at 13th and Oxford streets is still much in arrears of the amount absolutely necessary for the completion of the project. About $500 more is needed and your check to Biddle Bishop or Harry Wenderoth, care of the Capital Journal will aid in the good work.

Remember the dance given by the Salem Senators at the Armory, the night of March 17th. A ticket to the dance will cost you one dollar and even if you don't dance or cannot attend at that time, call up Biddle at the Willamette Valley Transfer company and buy one of the vouchers.

Nimrods Of Marion County Are Ready For Good Fishing

"Get 'em fishin' fellows!" "We'll say so!" has been the answer of over 500 Marion county sportsmen, who have secured anglers licenses during the first two months of the new year.

The following forms have been issued during the past week: Pioneers' and Civil war veterans' Jerome Morley, Silverton; H. H. Tompkins, Shaw; A. H. Blackerby, Silverton; G. O. Guyer, Woodburn; M. Dorman, Lorenzo M. Porter, T. B. Smith, Salem; A. D. Gardner, Stayton; H. W. Smith, Turner; Abram B. Tucker, Salem; H. C. Porter, Aumsville.

"Making Salem a port means added prosperity for every citizen of Marion county. I wonder 'if' it will be as hard to make enough people see it as it is to get them to realize that Salem needs a good hospital," stated J. F. Hutchason, whose picture appears below.
