

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

Mar. 12.—Commercial club associate members, 8 p. m. at the club.

Mar. 12.—Lecture by Professor E. H. Bunn, auspices of Art League, library, 8 p. m.

Mar. 13.—Meeting of Salem Women's club, Commercial club auditorium.

Mar. 12.—Meeting of Three Link Needle club, home of Mrs. Chas. Cameron, orth 11st street.

Mar. 15.—Council meeting, city hall.

Mar. 16.—Regular meeting, Salem Business Men's League, Commercial club, 8 o'clock.

Mar. 17.—St. Patrick benefit dance under the auspices of the Salem Senators, armory.

Mar. 18.—Baby clinic for children under normal, Commercial club.

Mar. 26.—Women's republican club meeting, armory.

Court House News

Circuit Court

Jacob D. Kauffman vs Jane Dodge et al. Summary.

Jacob D. Kauffman vs Jane Dodge et al. Affidavit.

Mildred Schrank vs James F. Schrank. Summary.

H. C. Howard vs Charles W. Niemeyer. Motion to strike.

Samuel H. Brown vs Leroy Armstrong and Mrs. Leroy Armstrong. Answer.

Mary F. Gregoire vs H. L. Akerhill et al. Reply to answer of H. L. Akerhill.

J. W. Parker vs C. H. Chung et al. Answer of defendant. G. G. Quackembush.

J. W. Parker vs C. H. Chung et al. Answer of defendant W. I. Neetham, sheriff of Marion county.

Samuel H. Brown vs Leroy Armstrong et al. Notice.

Samuel H. Brown vs Leroy Armstrong et al. Summary.

Maud A. Hess vs John A. Hess. Summary.

Probate Court

F. W. Kelly, estate. Undertaking of administratrix.

Samuel R. Baldwin, estate. Affidavit of publication.

Samuel R. Baldwin, estate. Order.

Samuel R. Baldwin, estate. Final account and report.

Daily Statistics.

Died

WHITEMAN—Mrs. Sarah Whiteman, 72, hospital here Thursday afternoon.

Funeral at chapel of Rigdon and Son Monday at 2 p. m.

Born

BLUNDELL—To Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Blundell, 2907 Center street, March 8, a son. He has been called Curtis Clarence.

Love, watchmaker, jeweler, Salem.

Cooked Food Sale—The Central Circle of the First Christian church will conduct a cooked food sale at Buren's furniture store, 179 North Commercial street, Saturday March 13th.

Called to Eugene last Thursday night by the death of his father-in-law, Rev. George S. Stixers, Manager T. E. McCroskey of the Commercial Club, was not at his office Friday.

Spring comes and goes, so do Blashop's spring suits. Have you seen yours? It is here. Salem Woolen-Mills store. 64*

George Henschbach and Albert Roth, formerly of the Capital garage, have opened a garage and repair shop on Judson street, in south Salem.

Dance armory Saturday night. Ladies free admission. 62*

Charlotte B. Chapman, administratrix of the estate of Samuel R. Baldwin has filed final account in the estate and April 15 has been set as the date for final hearing.

Oregon Electric Railway company. This company announces the restoration of its night freight train service to and from Portland terminals effective Monday, March 15. Both carload and less than carload freight between Portland and your city will be handled in these night trains. Less than carload shipments received at Portland terminals up to 4 o'clock p. m. will be ready for delivery at destination at 7 o'clock a. m. the following morning. Similar service obtaining in the opposite direction. The service will be operated daily except Sunday southbound and daily except Saturday northbound, the latter to provide expedited movement for live stock shipments on train leaving Eugene, Sunday morning. Your patronage is respectfully solicited. R. W. Pickard, Asst. general freight agent. Bert Cohen, traveling freight and pers. agent. J. W. Ritchie, local agent pers. agent. 66*

Dance armory Saturday night. Ladies free admission. 62*

Miss Neva Stolthse of the Salem Heights district is suffering from a broken arm as the result of a fall Thursday, March 11. According to the physician in attendance, Miss Stolthse broke the ulna and dislocated the radius of her arm by the fall.

The two Irish holidays in March, St. Patrick's day, and Robert Emmett day, will be observed jointly in Salem, this year by persons of Irish faith and blood in a general meeting in the K. of C. hall, Hurst building, State street, next Monday evening. A special program including singing, music, speeches, games and refreshments will feature the celebration. Any person friendly to the interests of the Irish is invited to attend. The committee in charge of the evening is: Dr. J. J. Lynch, Thomas Brown, Albert O'Brien, Frank Davey, Mrs. Albert O'Brien, Mrs. F. E. English, Miss A. Lyon and Mrs. Charles Kupper.

Registration is lagging at the desk in the county clerk's office. Clerk U. G. Boyer reporting that the registration of voters is far below normal this year. This is partially accounted for by the large number of real estate transfers taking place in the county during the past year. April 20, 1920, is the last day of registration for the May primaries.

J. A. Churchill, state superintendent of public instruction, left Friday morning for Moro, Sherman county, to attend a session of the county teachers' institute. E. F. Carlton, assistant superintendent, is attending a meeting of the Washington county teachers' association at Hillsboro today.

Friday and Saturday are motion days for the March term of circuit court and motions were the order of Friday's work at the court rooms this morning. During Judge Hinsham's absence in Albany, Judge Percy R. Kelly heard the presentation of the attorney's interested in the various docketed cases. Only two cases were put on the calendar during the first few hours of work. The cases are: March 15, 10 a. m., W. H. Grabenhorst et al against Merrill Harding; March 15, 10 a. m., F. W. Gaines against S. C. Mills. Both of the suits are for the recovery of money.

F. M. Morley of Silverton has signed contracts for 1920 hop plantings for the following years at prices designated: 1920, 40,000 pounds at 43 cents; 1921, 70,000 pounds at 37 cents; 1922, 70,000 pounds at 34 cents, and 1923, 70,000 pounds (estimated) at 23 cents. This is from a 64-acre farm near Silverton. Morley's contract and also J. E. Smith's is made with Strauss & company of London. The Smith contract affects 25 to 50 acres of hops to be planted 1920-1925, the prices for the relative years being the same. The crops as estimated are: 1920, 13,000 pounds; 1921, 20,000 pounds; 1922 and 1923, 70,000 pounds. The last mentioned yard is located near St. Paul.

County Commissioners W. H. Goulet and J. T. Hunt, accompanied by James Culver, county roadmaster, have located a suitable gravel bar near Nowberg and asked for contracts for the furnishing of 10,000 yards of gravel to be used on the Nowberg-Woodburn market roads. When completed, this road will be on a par with the best market roads in the state, according to the plans of the county court and the people in the district tributary to the traffic artery.

E. W. Liljeqvist, mining engineer and geologist of Medford, who has charge of operations for the local company which is drilling for oil in the Rogue River Valley, is spending a few days looking over oil indications in this vicinity, which he declares are excellent. He reports that his company is prepared to drill 4000 feet and has the casing on hand for a well of this depth, and will definitely settle the question whether or not oil exists in southern Oregon. A second well is also being drilled, with prospects for a third. Siskiyou county, California, is also experiencing an oil excitement and preparations are under way for drilling at Hill and in the Shasta Valley.

John Tomlin, fruit box manufacturer and Earl Tung, automobile dealer, both of Medford, were business visitors in Salem Friday.

Chas. H. Fisher, publisher of the Eugene Guard and former publisher of the Capital Journal spent Friday in Salem.

Several prospective members of Capital Assembly #4, United Artisans attended the meeting of the lodge in Odd-Fellows hall Thursday night. The regular business session was dispensed with, and the entire evening was devoted to games, musical entertainment, and luncheon. Reports on the sale of tickets to the Iphigene team dance April 7 were heard, indicating large sales.

Paul Wapato, Willamette prize-winning orator, left at seven this morning for Forest Grove to compete in the state oratorical contest, meeting the representatives of the eight Oregon colleges who are members of the state oratorical association. Mr. Wapato will deliver his oration "Americanization" which won the first place in the local tryout. Ralph Thomas, treasurer of the state association, and representatives of each class in the university, will accompany him to the contest and meeting of the association which will follow the contest tonight.

Declaration of candidacy was filed Friday by Mildred Robertson Brooks to succeed herself as county recorder. As a preliminary statement as to her pledges for conduct of the office, Mrs. Brooks states that she is willing to serve on her past record.

At their regular monthly meeting Wednesday night the Marion County Druggists' Association endorsed J. C. Perry, Salem druggist as a candidate for the state legislature. Although he has been urged to make the race, Mr. Perry has decided to "think it over." This action of the druggists was taken because they believe that a druggist is just as good legislative material as a carpenter, farmer or book agent. The association voted to hold regular monthly meetings. Mr. Perry is president of the Oregon State Pharmaceutical Association and has been in the drug business in this city for many years.

A reward of $5 each for information as to the whereabouts of James Taylor, 18, and Garland Brooks, 15, who escaped from the state boys' training school, was offered at the institution today. Taylor and Brooks fled the reformatory while it was yet dark Thursday morning, and no word of them has yet been received. Taylor was committed from Oregon City and Brooks from Hillsboro. The escape was reported to the sheriff's office and local police, who today were aiding in the search for the fugitives.

Henry L. Bents the well known hop grower today received 35 tons of hop wire from the Steinbock Junk Co. ordered during the cold spell of last December. This is said to be the only hop wire in the county.

The funeral of Elmer Dill, 35, who died at a hospital here Wednesday, will be held at the grave in Odd Fellows cemetery at 10:30 a. m. Saturday. Dill's folks reside in Butler, Ohio, and will be unable to attend the funeral, which will be under the direction of the Webb & Clough company.

Two building permits were issued at the office of the city recorder in the city hall Thursday afternoon. A. B. Wilson obtained one to erect a house on his property at 1312 North 13th street and J. L. Frazier was given permission to repair his home at 1400 North Sumner street.

Thoroughly imbued in some kind of intoxicating beverage which police believe to have been Hostetters biters or beef iron and wine, R. B. Grant from Dallas, lay in the city jail all day recovering from the effects of his "bit." Grant was found lying in a gutter in the alley behind the city hall by Officer Morelock. He probably will be taken before the police judge Saturday morning.

The funeral for Andrew J. Lowery, 71, who died following hanging head downward in a tree which he had been pruning Monday, will be held at the Leslie Methodist church Saturday at 2 p. m. Burial will be in the City View cemetery under the direction of Rigdon & Son.

Professor F. S. Dunn, head of the latin department at the University of Oregon, will deliver an address at the public library this evening under the auspices of the Salem Art League, choosing as his subject "Homeric Poems in Art." Professor Dunn spoke Thursday night to the students at the high school on his experiences while in Italy during the late war. All Salemites are invited to the lecture this evening.

W. W. Zinn, who recently sold his property in West Salem, has purchased a residence on North Sumner street, and is making a few minor repairs and redecorating it preparatory to moving in.

An open meeting of the Salem Woman's club will be held in the Commercial club Saturday afternoon, at which Mrs. F. W. Swanton, secretary of the Oregon Humane society, will speak. All the women of the city are invited to attend.

Fred N. Wallace of Tumalo, manager of the Tumalo irrigation project in Deschutes county and president of the Oregon irrigation congress, is in the city today attending to official business at the state capitol.

Ralph E. Mitchell, for eight years a member of the Oregonian staff, is in the city from Portland today calling on old acquaintances and attending to business matters connected with the organization of the north-west automobile trades association.

Several young people from Salem will leave this city this evening for Silverton where a Y. M. C. A. father and son banquet will be held at six o'clock. The father and son banquets, a series of which will be held throughout the county, are proving popular. At the last one held in Woodburn two weeks ago more than 100 fathers and sons were present. Dinner was served by the domestic science class of the Woodburn High school.

Having acquired the former No. Vary grocery at 382 Court St. we are ready to give you quick and courteous service. We would be glad to have you call on us and inspect our new stock.—Carl and Bowersox. 62*

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Elliott, from Regina, Sask., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Elliott, parents of Mrs. C. E. Webb, at 378 Bellevue street. Hugh and Thomas Elliott are brothers. They have not seen each other for about 40 years. Mr. and Mrs. Elliott will remain here for about ten days.

Riding a bicycle into which E. H. The body of Charles W. Leaf, 78, Simons, of Portland, drove his ma-who died at a local hospital Tuesday, was sent to Portland this morning by Bernett Hamblin, 16, residing in the country, was thrown to the pavement and stunned. He was taken to the Salem hospital where aid was rendered, and it was said at the hospital that he probably would return to his home this evening.

COLDS

Head & chest are best treated "externally" with

VICK'S VAPORUB

YOUR BODYGUARD - 30¢, 50¢, 1.00

Meet Me At Meyers

Salem sure needs the Hospital

It is Your Hospital, get behind it

New Smocks

When you see the Charming

New Voile Smocks

We are showing in our Waist Department, you will readily understand why our Waist Department has doubled its business the past year. The reason it—By keeping abreast of Fashion's Demands, showing the NEW and ADAPTED STYLES such as Voile Smocks mentioned above.

Whether an intended purchaser or not you should visit the Waist Department and see the beautiful showing we are making—the low prices will surprise you, too.

You Can Always Do Better At

Quality First MEYERS Quality First

GOOD GOODS

Who Always Does Better By You

U. S. ARMY BEEF

Choice Fresh Frozen Steers and Heifers

DIRECT FROM CHICAGO TO SALEM

Round Steak .....	20c	Choice Boiling .....	18c
Loin Steak .....	28c	Soup Bones .....	5c to 8c
Choice Pot Roast .....	20c	SATURDAY SPECIAL
Plate Rib .....	16c	No. 5 Pure Lard .....	$1.10

MEATS OF QUALITY AND FLAVOR

Cross Market

370 State Street

CAMCO CORSET

We Are Pleased to Announce that

Mrs. L. C. Harris

Special representative of the Camco Corsets will be with us March 11, 12, 13, to demonstrate and give individual fittings. This is your opportunity to get a corset that is designed to fit different peculiarities of various figures and to give scientific support to every organ of your body.

Don't fail to attend the demonstration at 466 State Street

SALEM NEEDS A HOSPITAL—SUBSCRIBE NOW.

Rafoury Bros. Men's Store 416 State St.

Ladies Store 466-474 State St.

THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE

OREGON

ELAINE HAMMERSTEIN IN "GREATER THAN FAME" COMEDY

NOW