We have turned over the government to narrow partisan politicians and as a result we have lack of leadership, indecision and paralysis, and a complete breakdown in legislative affairs. Any business on earth managed in such fashion faces bankruptcy

Shall we continue to turn over affairs of the people to the politicians to play their selfish games of greed and grab for spoils? Shall we permit these politicians to continue to misrule the country by letting them name the candidates for the rest of us to vote for-or shall we name them ourselves? The malady of the nation is politics and partisanship. IN THE HOLE.

If you're in the hole at present, when the times are brisk and pleasant, and the stream of scads is flowing everywhere, its lustre showing, what will be your situation if a panic hits this nution? If a bigger bill you're running, if you keep the merchants dunning, now that every form of cash is growing thickyl on the ting it being soft and flaky. It is put bushes, where, O neighbor, shall we find you when the hard times into big cooking consels and cooked come and grind you? Every gent is earning wages never known in until it gives off the oil in the form of a vaor, which is condensed and purified, resulting in the ordinary parafiled, resulting in the ordinary parafiled blamed stuff under. Every delegate who's willing has his chance to make a killing, has a chance to store the guilders, like the other fortune builders. If you cannot do some saving, now that all the world is raving in its lust for reckless spending, where, O neighbor, are you wending? To the poorhouse in the valley, where the down-and-outers rally? To the dump where jays are carted when they're strapped and broken hearted?

At last Mrs. Rabbit happened to meet Jasper Jay.

"Have you seen Jimmy?" she asked. "Yes!" he said. "Right after breakfast I saw him hurrying along the road by the river. The gypsies have a camp there. And I wouldn't be a bit surprised if they had stolen him," he added very cheerfully.

When Mrs. Rabbit heard that she was terribly upset,

"Oh, dear! Oh, dear! she cried." Whatever shall I do?" "The usual thing," Jasper Jay told her, "is to offer a reward." "Is that so"" said Mrs. Rabbit "I've never done anything like that. Will you help me?"

"Why, certainly!" said Jasper. And he set to work and painted a big sign, which looked like this: Lost, Strayed, or Stolen!

Ten Years Younger Than

Doesn't it make you feel good-cause you to straighten up and feel "chesty"when someone guesses your age at ten years or so younger than you really are? You look into your mirror, smile with satisfaction and say to yourself: "Well, he didn't make such a bad guess, at that."

The point is: You're no older than your vitality.

If a man is strong, vigor-ous, mentally alert, fine and fit at 50 he has a better chance of living up to 80 than a man of 30 who is weak and run-down has of living up to 60. While none of us can stay the years nor stop time, we should all make an heroic effort to successfully resist the effects of time by ever keeping our vitality at par.

When you sense a feeling of slowing down of your physical forces when your stomach, liver, kidneys and other organs show signs of weakness-when you notice a lack of your old time "pep" and "punch"—in other words, when you feel your vitality s on the wane, you should com-

Children's Ailments ?

ISORDERS of the stomach and constipation are the most common diseases of children. To correct them you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Tablets. One tablet at bed time will do the work and will make your child bright and cheerful the following morning. Do not punish your children by giving them castor oil. Chamberlain's Tablets are better and more pleasant to take.
