Windup of League Series Will Give Big Show Tonight

Tuesday night (tonight) is the date for one of the biggest local basketball events of the season when the loop four teams of the commercial league clash in the last games of the series. The public is invited to be present at "Y" gymnasium, no admittance is charged and the games which have been played every Tuesday night have attracted general interest.

As a result of last Tuesday night's games, the Anderson-Brown quintet holds its lead; the Capital National bank is only one game behind with Hauser brothers a good third and the U. S. National five bring
