

Oregon Building At Fair Will be Used by Soldiers

In order to avoid any further question as to the title of the Oregon building at the Panama-Pacific exposition, San Francisco, the building is to be deeded to the commanding general of the western department of the United States army to be held in trust for the use of officers and men of the army, according to plans made known here today by Governor Olcott.

At the close of the exposition the building was deeded by the Oregon commission named by the state legislature to General J. Franklin Bell at that time commander of the western department of the army, to be held in trust for the officers and men of the army. After the death of Bell there was some question as to the ownership of the building, some contending that it belonged to the Bell estate.

Lieutenant General Liggett in charge at Presidio, and Judge Samuel White, judge advocate general at San Francisco, have recommended to Governor Olcott that in order to perpetuate the trust the building be deeded to the "commanding general of the western department of the United States army" thus avoiding any future question as to its title. Governor Olcott has communicated with the members of the Oregon commission—John F. Logan and O. M. Clark of Portland, R. A. Booth of Eugene, C. L. Hawley of McCoy and W. L. Thompson of Portland—all of whom have expressed their approval of the plan.

The deed will be executed at once but the approval of the state legislature will be necessary before the action can be made final.

According to Oregon visitors to the California metropolis this building is a source of much valuable advertisement for the state. It has been fitted up for the accommodation of service men, thousands of whom make use of it annually.

Washington Fish Industry Dying; Supply Depleted

Olympia, Wash., March 16.—Washington's salmon industry, once among the leaders in the state's activities, has been almost depleted by the intensive fishing of the past six years. L. H. Darwin, state fish commissioner, declared in his annual report filed with Governor Louis F. Hart.

Creation by the legislature of a fisheries commission to take full charge of fishing operations in Washington waters was recommended by Mr. Darwin.

MISS MABEL S. DESCHANES
A popular and attractive young woman of Lewiston, Maine is now an ardent champion of Taniae, since she began taking it a few weeks ago.

Miss Mabel S. Deschanes, a popular and attractive young woman residing at No. 7 Bartlett Street, Lewiston, Me., is now an ardent champion of Taniae, since she began using the medicine a few weeks ago.

"I prize Taniae above every other medicine, even that which was prescribed for me," said Miss Deschanes in relating her experience recently. "I dislike publicity, but there are so many others who, no doubt, suffer as I did, I feel that I ought to tell them about it."

"I had been a great sufferer from indigestion and had been under the doctor's care for six months without relief. At the time I began taking Taniae I was on a very rigid diet and at times could not retain food of any kind. Even cold water would cause extreme nausea. I suffered from loss of appetite, severe cramping pain after eating and extreme nervousness.

Finally my condition got so bad I simply had to give up and go to bed until I got relief. I was unable to go down town to do my shopping and, for six months, there seemed to be no relief for me. Honestly, I don't believe I would be alive now if I hadn't gotten Taniae, for I was suffering terribly and getting worse all the time.

"Finally my sister persuaded me to try Taniae. I improved from the very first and one bottle did me more good than the six months' treatment. Why, I actually gained four pounds in weight while taking this one bottle. I have now taken four bottles and I feel just like a different person and am eating just anything I want; in fact, everything seems to agree with me perfectly. I am now able to do my shopping without becoming fatigued in the least and am no longer nervous like I was.

"Taniae is simply wonderful, and I can not praise it too highly."

Taniae is sold in Salem by Taylor's drug store, and by all leading druggists in every town.
