

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

Mar. 17.—St. Patrick benevolent dances under the auspices of the Salem Senators, armory.

Mar. 17.—Lecture, "I. W. Wilson versus Common Sense" by William Galvani, at public library reading room at 8 p. m.

Mar. 18.—Baby clinic for children under normal, Commercial club.

Mar. 22.—Associate Commercial club members meet at club 8 p. m. to form salesmen's club.

Mar. 22.—Business Men's luncheon, Commercial club, noon.

Mar. 24.—Salem Rotary club luncheon, Hotel Marion, noon.

Mar. 24.—Special meeting, Business Men's league, Commercial club, 8 p. m.

Mar. 24.—Women's republican club meeting, armory.

Court House News

Circuit Court.
Lewis Johnson vs. Fairfax M. Parrish et al. Complaint.

Probate Court.
Ann M. Wilson, an incompetent person, estate. Citation.

In the matter of the adoption of Pauline T. Myers, a minor. Order.

In the matter of the adoption of Pauline T. Myers, a minor. Petition and consent.

Marriage Licenses.
Troj Branson, 45, of 554 Union street, a guard, to Albia Richmond, 41, of North 24th street, Salem.

Daily Statistics.

Died

FRANCES—Mrs. Margaret A. Frances, 61, nine miles east of Salem. Funeral at chapel of Rigdon & Son 2 p. m. Thursday.

FLINT—L. B. Flint, 63; body at Webb & Clough's. Funeral arrangements not yet made.

Love, jeweler, watchmaker, Salem.

Dances at Gray hall Friday night, lively station, Tabna 15 or 16, 41.

Miss Wiles, representing the Designer Publishing company of San Francisco and New York, is at Gale & Co.'s store for a few days telling the women what's new in styles. This is her first visit to Salem and she is just delighted with the climate and the people.

Nothing too good for the Irish. Hawley plays "Irish Airs" at the Oregon tonight. 65*

Attorney P. J. Kuntz made a professional visit to Vancouver, Wash., Tuesday.

The Wednesday night class of Mrs. Ralph White will meet at 8 o'clock for a lesson on the new waltz, after class she will entertain with a St. Patrick's party. 66*

Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Elliott, 222 Miller street, returned Tuesday evening from Newburg where they attended the funeral of a relative.

Dance with Knights & Ladies Thura etc. Hurst hall. 67*

George O. Savage of Newport spent several days in Salem last week while closing a real estate deal on some city property.

Thursday evening in the armory the carmen of Salem will give a dance for the sick benefit fund of their association. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Oregon Electric Railway company. This company announces the restoration of its night freight train service to and from Portland terminals effective Monday, March 15. Both carload and less than carload freight between Portland and your city will be handled in these night trains. Less than carload shipments received at Portland terminals up to 4 o'clock p. m. will be ready for delivery at destination at 7 o'clock a. m. the following morning. Similar service obtaining in the opposite direction. The service will be operated daily except Sunday southbound and daily except Saturday northbound, the latter to provide expedited movement for live stock shipments on train leaving Eugene, Sunday morning. Your patronage is respectfully solicited. R. W. Pickard, Asst. general freight agent, Bet Cohen, traveling freight agent, pass. agent, J. W. Ritchie, local agent 68*

Joint meeting of Salem lodge No. 4 and Pacific lodge o. 50 A. F. & A. M. this evening. Official visit of the grand master. Visiting brethren welcome. 69*

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our neighbors and friends for the many kind acts of sympathy and helpfulness shown during the sickness, death and burial of our sister and aunt, Mrs. Sarah J. Carter—Mrs. Eliza Hoxie, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Richmond. 66

The court calendar in department No. 2 of circuit court is checked for Wednesday with the case of George W. Gaines against the Spencer Harpist work after undergoing a minor operation, is reported as being improved.

W. F. Slavens, aged 35, who, previous to moving to Oregon City about a month ago, lived at 1925 North 25th street in this city, died of pneumonia Monday, March 15, at St. Vincent's hospital, according to word received in Salem Wednesday. The funeral will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. from Holman's undertaking parlors, at Third and Salmon streets. Mr. Slavens leaves a widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Slavens, a son, Eldon and daughter Pansy. He has a father, two brothers and a sister in the east.

The meeting of the short story class of the Salem Art League which was to have been held this evening in the public library, has been postponed until Wednesday March 24.

"I. W. Wilson vs Common Sense" will be the topic of the lecture by William Galvani at the public library this evening. Mr. Galvani is recognized as one of the ablest lecturers on the coast, and his lecture this evening is being looked forward to by local persons who are interested in social conditions of the day.

A small bay mare, belonging to Chas. Verman, 761 Mill street, was stolen some time Tuesday night, according to a report made to police by Mr. Verman. The thief also took a saddle and bridle. The horse is described as having a half moon on her forehead, and is lame in the right front foot.

Found acting strangely in a vacant house at the corner of Liberty and Hickory street Tuesday night, a man who gave his name as James Toland, was arrested by Traffic Officer Moffitt and placed in the city jail during the night. He was released today on assurance that he would leave the city. His presence in the house was reported by W. E. Hazen, 2395 North Fourth street.

A permit was issued Tuesday to Edgar M. Rowland, 1391 Waller street to erect a one story dwelling, at a cost of $300, by Deputy City Recorder Mark Poulsen.

George Thorpe, 14 and Franklin Snyder, 15, who left their homes in Portland several days ago and wandered as far as Salem, were returned to that city Tuesday night by Mrs. Henry Hansen, mother of Franklin, who came to this city to return them.

Charged with larceny of lumber, Mrs. A. Benham, residing on North Commercial street, was arrested Tuesday afternoon by Constable Walter DeLong. She pleaded not guilty to the charge. Date of the hearing is not set because of the rush of business before the grand jury of Prosecuting Attorney Max Gehlar. This complaint was sworn to by R. T. Develinger, who alleges that Mrs. Benham took lumber that was torn from an old house.

Evidencing the growth of Capital Assembly 84, United Artisans, a class of 20 members will be initiated at the meeting of the lodge in Odd Fellows hall Thursday evening. The meeting begins at eight o'clock. Entertainment will follow the business session and initiation.

An auto belonging to G. B. Powers, 766 Marion street, was badly damaged in an accident at the corner of Capitol and Court streets at midnight Tuesday night. The auto was driven by L. N. Rupert, who was going east on Court street. According to his version of the accident he was forced to the curb by another auto being driven in a reckless manner. After the oncoming auto struck Powers' machine he declined to stop to see if assistance could be rendered. No one was hurt.

The funeral for Tillman H. Simmons, former resident for many years near Turner, who died in Seattle Sunday, will be held at Turner at 1 p. m. Thursday. Burial will be in Odd Fellows cemetery at Turner under the direction of Webb & Clough, of this city.

Reverend J. N. Hoover, for the past eleven years pastor at Lindsay, California, has accepted a call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church of this city, and will take up the work here early in April.

Mrs. G. A. Nye left Salem Tuesday morning for Tacoma, where she will visit her daughter, Mrs. Frederick W. Schwab.

According to word received by Postmaster August Huckenstein recently, the surplus property division is offering for sale a quantity of surplus drugs, medicines and hospital equipment, to the general buying public, at fixed prices. Previously, these supplies have been sold exclusively to state and municipal hospitals. Included in the list are standard drugs in large quantities, surgical instruments, rubber aprons, operating tables, litters and bandages of crepe paper. No narcotics will be sold unless the buyer is licensed to handle them in compliance with the Harrison narcotic law. Proof of this right must accompany any narcotic order. The present offer is in effect from March 5 to April 5, 1920. No deposit is necessary on amounts less than $1000, but orders exceeding that sum must be accompanied by a deposit of 10 per cent of the total order. Further information may be received by writing to the Zone Supply Officer, Ft. Mason, San Francisco, Cal.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret A. Frances, who died near Salem, Tuesday, will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the parlors of Rigdon and Company.

The suit of E. L. Buchanan against G. F. Booth is being heard before a

Lumber Shippers And Rail Agents Discuss Rates

Portland, Or., Mar. 17.—Representative of lumber shippers and of the transcontinental railroads met here today in an effort to reach a more equitable basis of a minimum carload of lumber. The conference is at the suggestion of the interstate commerce commission, which recently held that the present cubic capacity minimum was indefensible and should be changed.

That a flat minimum based on the length of the car should be substituted was the consensus of opinion expressed by lumber men at the conference today. The matter was taken under advisement by the railroad representatives.

Merritt To Head Hoover Campaign Over California

San Francisco, Mar. 17.—The resignation of Ralph P. Merritt as secretary of the board of regents of the University of California and controller for Herbert C. Hoover as a candidate for president of the United States was presented to the regents here today.

Merritt was federal food administrator for California and for the last three years has been an associate of Hoover.

Merritt's resignation followed closely on the formation of the Hoover republican club of California here and the selection by that club of a list of prospective delegates to the republican national convention.

State House Notes.

A total of 1239 accidents, of which seven were fatal, were reported to the state industrial accident commission for the month of February, according to the monthly report just out. Receipts for the month aggregated $228,856.32 with disbursements of $154,777.03, according to the report. Of the disbursements $138,216.24 were paid out to beneficiaries under the compensation act and $16,560.79 represents the overhead expense incident to the administration of the fund.

The Sunrise Telephone company has filed with the public service commission an application for permission to discontinue its switching service at Arlie, Polk county. Inadequate revenues is said to be responsible for the request.

The initiative petition of the Oregon Taxpayers league proposing a divided session of the state legislature was filed with Sam A. Korer, deputy secretary of state, Wednesday and has been forwarded to Attorney General Brown for a ballot (the preliminary) to the circulation of petitions to place the measure on the November ballot.

When Deschutes county was organized Bend was made the temporary county seat. A measure will be placed on the November ballot to locate it there permanently.

The artists of Seattle, Washington, are engaged upon a painting of a Red Cross nurse as a gift to the Red Cross.

Hazel Green

Hazel Green, Mar. 17.—Miss Rosie Zeilinski went to Portland this week to work.

Mr. and Mrs. Win. Hudson of Hubbard spent Saturday and Sunday at J. Collins'.

School reopened March 15th.

Miss Clara Moser, who is attending the Monmouth normal, spent the week end with Prof. and Mrs. F. W. Jones.

George Daunigan is working in Salem for the Valley Motor Co.

Will Bechtel took a trip to Monmouth recently.

Mildred Williamson is working in Salem while her sister, Hilda, is staying at home on account of her health.

Mrs. Fannie Herron has rented her place at Middlegrove to Mr. Saucel and gone to Salem to live with her sister.

Miss Margery Parmenter went to Kings Valley Tuesday to work for Mr. and Mrs. Christenson.

Former Students Of Oregon U Form Association Here

With a personnel of approximately 60 members, the Salem Branch of the University of Oregon alumni association was organized Tuesday evening at a meeting in Y. W. C. A. rooms on North Liberty street.

Millar E. McGilchrist, assistant to Attorney General George M. Brown, was elected president, Mrs. Frank Spears was chosen for secretary, and Carl Nelson was appointed treasurer. Miss Marie Churchill was elected chairman of the social committee, other members of which are Miss Jennie Huggins, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer and Miss Grace Bean.

The first matter upon which the association will concentrate its energies will be for the support of the millage tax bill, for the support of the state institutions of higher learning. A committee was appointed to get in touch with the Salem branch of the Oregon Agricultural college alumni, so that the two organizations may work in unison toward the common goal.

The first treaty ever written among the tribes of Albania has recently been signed. The only foreign nation named in America. The only foreign institution the treaty swears to "protect and support" is the American Red Cross.

Chehalis School Students Win In Strike Over Dance

Tacoma, Wash., Mar. 17.—The 150 striking students of the high school at Chehalis this afternoon won their contention and will return to school tomorrow morning.

The school authorities, after a conference with the strikers and their parents, agreed that school activities, including athletics, publication of the school paper, and giving a school play, should be resumed as before the strike.

The strike began Tuesday when school activities were suspended because 18 students had engaged in a dance in the high school building following rehearsal for a play.

The Evangelical Lutheran church of the Redeemer, Portland, filed articles of association with the corporation department here. The trustees of the association are G. R. Magdons, Wm. Moore and J. L. Ellington.

Other articles were filed today as follows:

Wm. H. Hildebrandt & Co., Portland, $20,000; N. A. Ely, J. H. Lejona and W. H. Hildebrandt.

The Oregon Scenic Trips company, Portland, $10,000; H. E. Warren, L. C. Peck and John P. Hannan.

Butler-Motor corporation, Portland, $50,000; R. E. Bondurant, Howard Butler and Thad Robinson.

A Z Motor Car company, La Grand, $40,000; John E. Anderson, A. Zundel and R. J. Green.

Diamond Coal company, Portland, $10,000; J. A. Coon, W. M. Daniels and A. J. Ridell.

Resolutions of dissolution were filed by the Fields Motor Car company, Florence Investment company and the Sinclair Mercantile company, all of Portland.

Grain Corporation Probe Nearing End

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—L. H. Humphreys, United States district attorney for Oregon, was here today completing an investigation of the activities of the United States Grain corporation in the Pacific northwest.

The investigation was ordered by Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer recently, when a Spokane grand jury declared Max H. Houser, Portland, former head of the corporation, profited by the corporation's price manipulations.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

The Hall of Fame

Should the nation erect a Hall of Fame to honor business achievement, every one would agree that prominent places should be given the Steam Engine, the Steam Boat, the Telephone, the Banking System and the Want Ad.

These great contributions to commerce are familiar to all, with the exception of the Want Ad. Being last to come, its powers are least known. Want Ads in this newspaper are a Business Force. With them you can buy, sell, rent or exchange property or services more quickly and economically than by any other method.

Cover the Ground Quickly Like This

FOR SALE—Modern 6-7, midsize, 1919, with motor, built 1918, 500 H.P. 1000 lbs. Ave. in 10125. Large front porch, open fireplace, sleeping porch, no. parlor, large garden. Price $7,500. Call on, balance in payment. ADDRESS.

WANTED—Home in attractive residential part of city. Must be strictly modern, 8 or 9 rooms, good sized lot. Will pay full value in cash for place that suits. ADDRESS.

You transact business best when you employ the business machinery men have built for the common good. This machinery includes Banks, Courts, Streets, Want Ads, etc.

Read and Use the Want Ads in (Put your paper's name here like this.)

THE DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL

KEEP YOUR MONEY IN THE CIRCLE

Scotts Mills. Monitor. McAngel. Silverton. Mehama. Pratum. Stayton. Gervais. Macleay. Brooks. Aumsville. Marion. Donald. St. Paul. Turner. Salem.

MARION COUNTY

Former Students Of Oregon U Form Association Here

With a personnel of approximately 60 members, the Salem Branch of the University of Oregon alumni association was organized Tuesday evening at a meeting in Y. W. C. A. rooms on North Liberty street.

Millar E. McGilchrist, assistant to Attorney General George M. Brown, was elected president, Mrs. Frank Spears was chosen for secretary, and Carl Nelson was appointed treasurer. Miss Marie Churchill was elected chairman of the social committee, other members of which are Miss Jennie Huggins, Mrs. W. Connell Dyer and Miss Grace Bean.

The first matter upon which the association will concentrate its energies will be for the support of the millage tax bill, for the support of the state institutions of higher learning. A committee was appointed to get in touch with the Salem branch of the Oregon Agricultural college alumni, so that the two organizations may work in unison toward the common goal.

The first treaty ever written among the tribes of Albania has recently been signed. The only foreign nation named in America. The only foreign institution the treaty swears to "protect and support" is the American Red Cross.

Chehalis School Students Win In Strike Over Dance

Tacoma, Wash., Mar. 17.—The 150 striking students of the high school at Chehalis this afternoon won their contention and will return to school tomorrow morning.

The school authorities, after a conference with the strikers and their parents, agreed that school activities, including athletics, publication of the school paper, and giving a school play, should be resumed as before the strike.

The strike began Tuesday when school activities were suspended because 18 students had engaged in a dance in the high school building following rehearsal for a play.

The Evangelical Lutheran church of the Redeemer, Portland, filed articles of association with the corporation department here. The trustees of the association are G. R. Magdons, Wm. Moore and J. L. Ellington.

Other articles were filed today as follows:

Wm. H. Hildebrandt & Co., Portland, $20,000; N. A. Ely, J. H. Lejona and W. H. Hildebrandt.

The Oregon Scenic Trips company, Portland, $10,000; H. E. Warren, L. C. Peck and John P. Hannan.

Butler-Motor corporation, Portland, $50,000; R. E. Bondurant, Howard Butler and Thad Robinson.

A Z Motor Car company, La Grand, $40,000; John E. Anderson, A. Zundel and R. J. Green.

Diamond Coal company, Portland, $10,000; J. A. Coon, W. M. Daniels and A. J. Ridell.

Resolutions of dissolution were filed by the Fields Motor Car company, Florence Investment company and the Sinclair Mercantile company, all of Portland.

Grain Corporation Probe Nearing End

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—L. H. Humphreys, United States district attorney for Oregon, was here today completing an investigation of the activities of the United States Grain corporation in the Pacific northwest.

The investigation was ordered by Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer recently, when a Spokane grand jury declared Max H. Houser, Portland, former head of the corporation, profited by the corporation's price manipulations.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.

Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

Dr. C.B. O'Neill
OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN
Laidg & Dash Bank Building
100 State Street
Salem, Ore.
Commercial Optician

YALE HAND LAUNDRY CLEANING AND PRESSING
184 S. 12th. Phone 3
Thurs.-Fri.-Sat.

Twenty-three servants in the house and every one a relative of her's. And to make matters worse, she had told Hubby that her uncle was the Duke of Tumbuctoo, when in reality, was butler in her own home. Did she keep it strictly confidential? She tried to, but—

Madge Kennedy
Greatest Picture Star

Madge Kennedy
in "STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL"
A little Fib—And a lot of Trouble
THURSDAY Liberty

TODAY ONLY—
HALE HAMILTON
in
AFTER HIS OWN HEART
JOURNAL WANT ADS BRING 'EM
JOURNAL WANT ADS BRING 'EM

PEARL OIL (KEROSENE) is refined and re-refined by a special process, making it a clean-burning fuel for home use. Ask your dealer for PEARL OIL.
STANDARD OIL COMPANY (CALIFORNIA)

SEATTLE CUTS FORCE.
Seattle, Wash., Mar. 17.—Abolition of fourteen positions in the management of the Seattle municipal railway system was announced here today by Mayor Hugh M. Caldwell. Mayor Caldwell also asked City Comptroller Harry W. Carroll for a statement telling the complete financial story of the operation of the system. The mayor said there are discrepancies in reports he has received unofficially regarding the operation of the system.

The Chinese Red Cross has 25,000 members.

Meet Me At Meyers

The Labor Unions have not only endorsed the Hospital, but are out working for the $100,000 fund necessary to build it. Let every one do the same—work and donate.

SPRING ARRIVALS SUITS, DRESSES, COATS
Every garment is of the HIGHEST QUALITY and SUPERIOR WORKMANSHIP.

The CORRECTNESS OF STYLE is assured, every garment being selected on the basis of Correctness, Practicability and Serviceability

Why not make a shopping tour and inspect this complete showing of the NEW and CORRECT "THINGS FOR SPRING?"

You Can Always Do Better At
MeYers
Voile Smocks
The new things for Spring and Summer wear. All reasonably priced.
Who Always Does Better By You

OREGON
ROBERT WARWICK IN THE TREE OF KNOWLEDGE HAWLEY PLAYS "IRISH AIRS" NOW