The Hall of Fame

Should the nation erect a Hall of Fame to honor business achievement, every one would agree that prominent places should be given the Steam Equine, the Steam Boat, the Telephone, the Banking System and the Want Ad.

These great contributions to commerce are familiar to all, with the exception of the Want Ad. Being last to come, its powers are least known. Want Ads in this newspaper are a Business Force. With them you can buy, sell, rent or exchange property or services more quickly and economically than by any other method.
