

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

March 29.—Miss Shelton's pageant, Moose hall, 7:30 p. m.

April 1.—Marion county veterans association meets at Woodburn.

April 2.—North Salem Improvement association meeting, Highland school, 8 p. m.

April 3.—Meeting Marion and Polk county pig club, Commercial club, 2 p. m.

April 4.—Game, Senator vs. Yannigans, Oxford field, 2 p. m.

April 4.—Easter Sunday.

April 6.—American Legion meeting, armory, 7:30.

April 7.—Lecture recital on American music, library, 8:30 p. m.

April 7.—Meeting of Sweet Briar club, home of Miss Nellie Taylor on Wallace road.

April 11.—Blossom day.

April 11.—Game, Salem vs. Moosejaw club.

April 17.—Debate, Williams and College of Puget Sound.

April 21.—Williamette Glee club concert.

April 23.—Debate, Williams and Pacific University.

April 29.—Pageant, "Awakening of Spring," opera house.

April 29.—Debate, Williams and McMinnville College.

Court House News

Circuit Court

Security State Bank of Woodburn vs. Frank Aral et al. Order confirming sale.

J. R. Olmstead et al vs. Joseph Meyer et al. Affidavit and order for publication of summons.

Marriage Licenses.

Glenn H. Foote, 21, of Woodburn, an engineer, to Gladys Lucille Nendel, 25, of Woodburn.

Daily Statistics.

Died.

WARFORD—George F. Warford, 38, taxi driver, while on rip on Jefferson road, last Monday night. Funeral a Saton Thursday 2 p. m.

Love, jeweler, watchmaker, Salem.

Evening up the standing score Gilbert's football players at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium Monday evening won both games of volleyball and finished the game of football with a score of 3-4. A point and three-quarters were gained over Entrees' men before the final whistle. The next game will be played at six o'clock Wednesday evening.

B. P. O. E. dance Wednesday evening, March 31st, for Elks and I. O. O. F.

FOR THE KIDDIES—Easter bunnies, Easter ducklings, Easter chicks. C. N. Needham, 555 State street.

Baby chicks, 555 State. Phone 409, 817.

W. M. Stone, of Oregon City is visiting at the home of his daughter, Mrs. D. H. Mosher, 354 North Winter.

Shrimers attention. There will be a meeting in the Commercial club rooms 8 p. m. Tuesday. Important business relative to June convention. The patrol will drill after the meeting. O. A. Olson, dep. potentate, 774.

The Queen of Hearts will entertain her court at the Moose hall Tuesday March 29, at 8 p. m. Public invited. 774.

Henry J. Keil, has been appointed executor of the Frederick Keil estate in an order issued by Judge W. M. Bushey, Monday. Louis Webert, Albert Kraus and George Fry are named as appraisers of the property. Heirs and devisees are Elizabeth Keil 42, widow, Aurora; Annie White, 51, daughter, Salem, and four sons, David A., 49, Lewis F., 47, Julius, 45, Henry J., all residents of Gervais. The estate consists of real property in Marion county valued at $16,800 and personal property valued at $2,845.

Don't fail to see the wedding party at the Moose hall Tues. Mar. 29 at 8 p. m. Public cordially invited. 774.

Remember the pageant of the Queen's courtiers at the Moose hall Tues. Mar. 30 at 8 p. m. Public cordially invited. 774.

Henry Arthur O'Brien, guardian of Francis Winniford O'Brien and Joseph Walter O'Brien, minors, has been granted an order by the county court naming Albert O'Brien, George O'Brien and Ivan G. Martin as appraisers of a parcel of property included in the guardianship.

An order issued Monday by County Judge W. M. Bushey relieves Mary J. Forcier of further responsibilities as administratrix in the Louis Forcier estate and declares the estate administered. Heirs are Mary J. Forcier, Woodburn; John Forcier, Tacoma; Louis and William Forcier, Gervais; Theodore Forcier, Portland and Thomas Forcier, Wahkiakus, Wash.

Jasper Hill, 24, who Monday morning pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny by bailee, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail this morning by Judge Uruth. Hill confessed to stealing a valuable watch and $2 in coins from Cecil H. Creson, with whom he was rooming in a local hotel.

OREGON

WALLACE REID IN "EXCUSE MY DUST" LAST TIMES TONIGHT!

All the knights and ladies of the royal court will be at the wedding in the Moose hall Tues. at 8 p. m. Public invited. 774.

Easter novelties, rabbits, eggs, chicks, dainty Easter cards. Sale's Variety store. 787.

Eddie Duran, Rodney Smith, Everett Fixley and Robert Mann, four students at the University of Oregon, arrived in Salem Tuesday morning. Duran and Smith continued on to Severton to visit at the former's home during the remaining days of the spring vacation at the university.

Big dance, April fool hard time dress dance, Hurst hall Thurs. eve. Good clothes and jewelry subject of small fine, given by Knights and Ladies of Security. Refreshments served. 734.

Attention, G. A. R. and associated orders, meeting of Marion County Veterans association at Woodburn on Thursday, April first. Meet at Electric depot for 9:45 train. James Lisko, president of association. 777.

A series of revival meetings will be opened at the Salvation army hall, 241 State street, Tuesday evening. Colonel S. L. Brengle, international evangelist, conducting them. The meetings will continue until Sunday night. A special shop meeting will be held Wednesday noon for the employees of the Charles K. Spaulding Logging company, and Sunday morning Colonel Brengle will conduct services for the prisoners at the state penitentiary.

Easter cards and novelties, candy eggs, chicks, rabbits, etc. Sale's Variety store. 787.

For good "eats" go to the W. R. C. cooked food sale, Sat. Apr. 5, at Farmers Hardware Co. 777.

New officers for the ensuing year were elected Monday at a meeting of the ministerial association. Dr. W. C. Kammner, pastor of the First Congregational church, succeeds Rev. G. L. Lovell, as president. Rev. Leland W. Porter, of the First Christian church is vice president; Rev. H. N. Aldrich of the Leslie Methodist church, was re-elected secretary. Rev. H. C. Stover, of the Central Congregational church was appointed chairman of the program committee.

"Talk of the Town," Dorothy Phillips at the Bligh tomorrow. 774.

Dorothy Phillips in "The Talk of the Town" at the Bligh tomorrow and Thursday. 774.

George A. Smith, executor of the George Weirich estate has filed final account with the Marion county court and May 10, has been designated as the time for final hearing. After disbursements in settling various expenses of the estate, $5,784.98 remains for distribution in accordance with the terms of the will, which was filed some time ago.

County Judge W. M. Bushey has appointed William J. Linfoot, as executor of the Elizabeth J. Linfoot estate. Robin D. Day, Max Gehlar and Hazle Gearhart are named as appraisers. The estate consists of real and personal property valued at $8,000. Heirs and devisees of the will are: William J. Linfoot, William J. Linfoot, Jr., 13, Wilfred J. Linfoot, 12, and Alice M. Linfoot, aged 9 years, all residents of Salem.

E. R. Lockhart, Y. M. C. A. over-seas worker, former city editor of the Morning Statesman, and for the past few months pastor of the Methodist church at North Bend, will leave in the near future for Warsaw, Poland, where he will engage in Y. M. C. A. work. Mrs. Lockhart, who has spent most of her life in the Capital City and who is prominent in church circles here, will remain in Salem while her husband is away. At present Mr. Lockhart is winding up his business affairs, preparatory to leaving.

The Ladies Aid society of the Presbyterian church will sponsor a bazaar and cafeteria supper Wednesday April 14, at the church parlors. All friends of the church are invited to attend.

The Tuesday Musical club will meet at the studio of Miss Lena Belle Taylor, Wednesday evening at 8:45. Important business will be discussed.

Pearl P. Hassler, of the Turner Tribune, and Charles S. Clarke of the Stayton Mail, were in Salem Tuesday on business and political matters. 774.

Judge George G. Bingham and Judge Percy R. Kelly, sitting in joint session in department No. 1, overruled the demurrer entered by Marion county through District Attorney Max Gehlar, in the suit recently instituted by Ed Jory. Mr. Jory's suit is in substance a protest against any tax advance over the six per cent limitation established several years ago. As a result the first action taken by the court, it is expected that an early order will decide the first stages in the plaintiff's efforts to enjoin Sheriff Needham from further collection of tax excess.

J. L. McAmulty of Oregon City visited friends in Salem Tuesday morning.

G. L. Plove of Corvallis was a Salem visitor Tuesday.

W. H. Stovely of Stayton attended to business affairs in Salem, Monday afternoon.

Senator Thomas of Medford, was a state house visitor Tuesday morning.

Judge George G. Bingham was called to Portland, Tuesday, by the sudden death of a cousin, Mrs. Newell.

The crops for the years 1920, 1921 and 1922 from a 14-acre yard to be planted near Silverton this spring is affected by contracts filed Tuesday by the Hiram company of London, England. The company contracts in 1920

State and Commercial streets while the car was discharging and accepting passengers, was fined $5 by Police Judge Race this morning.

State Senator C. M. Thomas of Medford, is a capital visitor today in consultation with State Engineer Cupper relative to irrigation matters. Thomas who has been actively identified with the interest of the sportsmen of southern Oregon in their fight on the floor of the upper house of the state legislature during the past several sessions declares that the recent agreement between the MacLay interests and the sportsmen of the upper Rogue River country has definitely taken the long standing Rogue River fish fight out of the legislature.

A horse belonging to Harry Loomis 1234 North 18th street, was found astray in the streets Monday afternoon, and was captured by Officer Rowe. The horse was later delivered to its owner.

A permit to erect a stable on his property on Shipping street, between Fourth and Broadway, was issued today by the city recorder to Fred Bush. Costs of the barn will total $360. Another permit to alter and repair her dwelling at 1504 Broadway was issued to Mrs. F. N. Mulkey. This work will cost $300, according to the permit records.

C. E. Webb, of the firm of Webb & Clough, undertakers is expected to return tonight from Portland, where he has been since Sunday attending to business matters.

The Cherian band, under the direction of Oscar Steudhammer, held their first rehearsal of the season last night in the city hall. The band is composed of 24 pieces, and will hold rehearsals each Monday night, preparatory to the usual summer evening concerts in the city parks. John Graber is manager of the band, and promises better entertainment.

Theft of about 100 pounds of scrap brass from the company's shops on North Church street some time yesterday afternoon, was reported to police by John Harbison, of the Valley Motor company. Details of the theft were lacking in the report made to police.

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Talmadge, Jr., went to Corvallis Monday for a several days visit with relatives and friends.

There will be an open meeting of the Foreresters of America in their hall on North Commercial street Tuesday evening. All friends and relatives of Foreresters are invited to attend. There will be social entertainment features during the evening.

Charles Pilette, former proprietor of the Central Cigar Store, who for the past three or four months has been sojourning in southern California, returned to Salem Sunday.

Mrs. Ralph White, will entertain the members of the senior dancing class at Cotillion Hall, Wednesday evening, with a dancing party, following their lesson hour, at 8 p. m.

Attorney F. A. Turner, with offices in the Bank of Commerce building, who underwent a surgical operation at a local hospital recently was well enough to be taken to his home Saturday.

Beryl Good, an attorney of Stayton was a business visitor in Salem Monday.

Three naturalizations have been filed at the county clerk's office during the past few days. Nicholas Krebs, 49, farmer, Woodburn, was born in Achen, France, emigrated in the United States in April, 1872. John Alexander McDonald, 31, 576 North 26th street, Salem, was born at Apple Hill, Glenora, Canada, and emigrated to the U. S. February 13, 1919. John Bosard, 21, Lyons, laborer, born in Kothkin, Aaragau, Switzerland, arrived in the U. S. September 17, 1919. Mr. Bosard states that his young niece, who upon her arrival in the United States had no knowledge of the English language, has during her 7 months residence in the United States attained the sixth grade.

Miss Detonia Byra went to Portland Monday afternoon to attend the funeral of her cousin August Schade who died in his home Sunday morning 499 Tillamook street.

Sickness instead of drunkenness was pleaded by L. E. Davis, 742 North Commercial street, Sunday evening, when confronted by Traffic Officer Moffitt. Police headquarters was notified that an auto, bearing two drunken men, was seen. Officer Moffitt investigated and found the auto belonged to Mr. Davis.

Mrs. Merl L. Prunk, of Eugene, is visiting for a few days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Moffitt, 505 North High street. While here she will also be the guest of Mr. Prunk's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Prunk, 555 North Church street.

Ed Viesko, arrested by police on a warrant charging him with driving past a street car at the corner of Service. Our earnest endeavor to give satisfaction and superior service, is evidenced, by the courtesy of our staff the efficiency of our management. The satisfaction of our clients and the quality of service rendered, quality, Courtesy, Efficiency.

RELIABLE

WEBB & CLOUGH CO. FUNERAL DIRECTORS 499 COMMERCIAL ST. SALEM

Auto In Which Convicts Escaped Recovered Monday

The automobile belonging to P. M. Varney state parole officer, used by Robert Grant and Jack Price, in making their escape from the state prison Saturday morning, was located in Portland Monday afternoon and returned to Salem last night. The car had not been damaged. No trace has been found of the two escapes.

Portland Cannot Purchase Tracks, Attorney Claims

Portland, Or., Mar. 30.—The city's purchase of the tracks of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company would not be constitutional according to an opinion given to the city council today by City Attorney W. P. LaRoche.

Such an act would be an unreasonable exercise of power because it would be lending public aid and credit to a private concern formed on the basis of the city attorney's decision.

Liquor Interests Delay Suffrage Declares Bryan

Denver, Colo., Mar. 30.—William J. Bryan told Denver democrats in a noon meeting here today that the "outlawed institution of the saloon with its whisky" would not be championed by the democratic party at the San Francisco convention in June if he could prevent it.

Snow Situation In Oregon Is Good

Portland, Or., Mar. 30.—The snow situation in the mountains of Oregon is more favorable today than it was at the close of February, according to the local office of the federal weather bureau. Considerable new snow accumulated in the higher mountains since February 29, the weather bureau reports, and irrigation prospects are much brighter than they were at that time.

The bureau reports the depth of snow at various parts of the state as encouraging, although the fall in the eastern part of the state is lighter than it was a year ago.

Edmond Dupuis, one of the owners of residents of Gervais, is dead at the age of 79 years.

Berkeley Opens Municipal Market

Berkeley, Cal., Mar. 30.—The Berkeley city council by ordinance today established a municipal market which it is proposed at once to put into operation. All sorts of footstuffs will be handled by the market. It will be under the control of a market director and answerable to the department of finance of the city administration.

MELVILLE MARX DEAD.

San Francisco, Mar. 30.—Melville Marx, 35, known throughout the country as a partner in the theatrical firm of Gottlob and Marx, died here today. He is survived by a widow and two children.

CLOSE ELECTION RESULT MAY RESULT IN CONTEST

Sioux City, Iowa, March 30.—Mayor Short's apparent lead of twenty-five votes in the election and hard-fought political battle in Sioux City's history will be contested if the official count today sustains that lead. It was announced at the headquarters of J. A. Tiedeman opposing candidate for mayor.

SUSPECT IS HELD

Portland, Or., March 30.—W. G. Loamers, who the police say is wanted by the San Francisco authorities for holding up J. M. Miller and robbing him of $1,000 in that city during February, was arrested here last night by Detectives Howell and Morak. He will be held until a San Francisco detective arrives.

DAYLIGHT LAW UPHOLD

Albany, N. Y., Mar. 30.—The Forcier bill, designed to repeal the daylight saving law, failed of passage in the assembly late today. The vote was 25 to 44, one less than required. The same bill was adopted by a 26 to 25 vote in the senate last night.

LIBERTY BONDS

New York, Mar. 30.—Final prices of liberty bonds today were: 3 1/2's, 97.04; first 4's, 96.50; second 4's, 89.44; third 4's, 90.60; second 4 1/2's, 89.84; third 4 1/2's, 92.35; fourth 4 1/2's, 89.97; victory 3 3/4's, 97.52; victory 4 3/4's, 97.44.

Stockton, Cal., Mar. 30.—Albert Coutts and Jack Dymond, both former L. W. W. members, were in court today as prosecution witnesses in the case of R. V. Lewis, charged with criminal syndicalism.

Coutts testified concerning I. W. W. meetings he had attended in many cities, naming Kansas City, Great Falls, Spokane and California towns.

Speaking of I. W. W. activities in Sacramento, Coutts told how a committee had been appointed there to interest the American Federation of Labor in the Ford and Sühr case. Later, he said, sabotage was suggested as a means of revenge for the arrest of Ford and Sühr, and the sowing of John son grass and the "dropping of matches" were discussed.

Lumbago Backache

Heart cases pain, reduces the inflammation and soothes congestion, halfway remedies what do. You've got to draw the inflammation right out. Big's Mustarine made with true yellow mustard and other pain relievers penetrates quickly and cannot blister.

Apply tonight over that sore, aching back and cover with a cloth. In the morning you'll wonder where your backache has gone. Why you never thought of Mustarine before. It's simply great. 30 cents. All druggists. E. C. Wells & Co., LeRoy, N. W.

BEY'S MUSTARINE
IN THE YELLOW BOX

Meet Me At Meyers

EASTER APPAREL

Suits--Dresses--Coats

It would be impossible to describe the showing we are making of strictly HIGH GRADE READY-TO-WEAR. Three elements were considered in making the selection: STYLE, INDIVIDUALITY and SERVICEABILITY. We invite you to visit us and see these beautiful and wonderful creations—whether a purchaser or not.

Women desirous of the best, will appreciate and appraise the Style, Quality, Workmanship of our READY-TO-WEAR.

Don't delay your Easter shopping

DON'T MISS OUR WINDOW DISPLAY, EVERY WINDOW GIVEN TO EASTER APPAREL, AND IS THE FINEST SHOWING WE HAVE EVER MADE

Silk Hose for Easter
Pure Silk and Fibre Hose

Lace Boot Hose in blue, black, mouse and brown $1.75

Novelty Lace Hose in blue, green, black and brown $2.25

High Quality Pure Silk Thread Hose
The leading makes of America, Knot Knit, Niagara, Monitor and Kayser

These Hose come in all the season's desired shades, in plain colors, clocked and dropped stitch.

Neckwear for Easter
It is that little touch of Dainty Neckwear that gives the suit a completeness that satisfies. We show not only those light, airy "lace effects," but also the more conventional collar and cuff sets.

Easter Millinery
A metropolitan showing at prices surprisingly low.

You Can Always Do Better At Meyers
GOOD GOODS
Who Always Do Better By You