

Registrars are Busy as Voters Qualify to Vote

Reports from various parts of Marion county indicate that general interest in being taken in registration for the May primaries. Registrars who are posted regarding past records assert that the 1920 vote will show a 25 per cent increase on any previous ballot cast in this county.

During the last few days many citizens of Salem and vicinity have appeared at the county clerk's office, but records show that many more are tardy in validating their right to ballot during this presidential year.

County Clerk U. D. Boyer asks voters of this vicinity who have allowed their registration to lapse, to register as soon as possible, as this will aid in eliminating delays occasioned by congestion when the books are closed April 29. Failure to vote during the past two years or removal from precinct of original registry, cancels the voting privilege.

The list of registrars for precincts outside of Salem and vicinity follows: Norris Ames, Silverton; W. C. Anderson, Astoria; J. P. Applewell, Brooks; M. A. Barber, Marion; Geo. H. Bell, Sublimity; John E. Theo, B. Brentano, St. Paul; A. M. Cone, Aurora; H. L. Earl, Turner; C. A. Epley, Jefferson; C. J. Esby, Donald; P. C. Foster, Stayton; Matthew Gibson, Silverton; Charles C. Giebler, Detroit; Mrs. Ella May Gilbert, West Stayton; J. B. Grier, Stayton; S. H. Helzel, Stayton; R. G. Henderson, Channah, C. R. Hickey, Silverton; Dora T. Humphrey, Jefferson; G. W. Humphreys, Jefferson; W. P. MacShasters, Detroit; V. L. Masten, Macleus; H. D. Mars, Gervais; George May, Mt. Angel; Blain McCord, Woodburn; M. J. McCormick, West Woodburn; J. C. McFarlane, Salem; L. C. McShane, Hubbard; Albert E. C. Miller, Monitor; G. J. Morgan, Gervais; E. P. Morsom, Woodburn; Wm. F. Mulkey, Stayton; Gracia L. Osmat, Salem; R. F. Osborne, Aurora; E. T. Pierce, Astoria; John S. ### Says Democrats Afflicted With U.S. Office-itis

Declaring for the nationalization of the initiative, referendum and the ratification of the taking of all annual land values for public purposes, Alfred D. Crigge, Portland newspaperman, Wednesday filed with the secretary of state's office here his nominating petition as a candidate for delegate to the democratic national convention from the second congressional district.

Crigge, in his platform declares that the Oregon democratic party is "afflicted with federal office-itis" while nationally it is afflicted with "bourgeoisism." He agrees to support plank of a "progressive, constructive nature and endeavor to secure declarations in platform demanding national initiative, referendum, recall, election of federal judges; single transferable, effective ballot for election of congressmen; nationalization of railroads; taking all annual land values for public purposes; declaring tariffs on import manifest; abolition of petty federal taxation on localities; League of Nations proposed by President Wilson; full restoration of all constitutional rights; and will oppose all pro-boycott planks."

Other candidates filing Wednesday were: John E. Nickelson, Hood River, candidate for republican nomination for state senator from the sixteenth senatorial district.

J. M. Blank, Canyon City, candidate for republican nomination for district attorney for Grant county.

H. J. McManis, Albany, candidate for republican nomination for representative from second representative district.

G. E. Woodson, Hopper, candidate for republican nomination for representative from twenty-second representative district.

Fishing Journey Leads To Divorce

When Jess Smith took his fishing tackle and lunch February 25, 1917, and announced that he was going fishing, on the waters of Puget Sound, Mrs. Smith did not mind, but when he failed to return to their Seattle residence, that day or any time since, she grew suspicious and then aware of marital life under such a circumstance. On the day of his disappearance, Smith's lunch and fishing gear were found in a boat which he had rented. Believing that her husband has deserted her, Viola Bertha Smith, now a resident of Marion county, has filed proceedings to dissolve the marital bonds. The couple were married at Portland, Oregon, December 29, 1911. There are three children, of whom Mrs. Smith asks the custody.

Coast Leaguers To Open Season Tuesday, Apr. 9

San Francisco, April 1.—The Pacific Coast Baseball league, continuing with the eight clubs of the 1919 season unchanged, will open its 1920 season April 6 with these series: Portland at Salt Lake; Seattle at Sacramento; Vernon at San Francisco; Oakland at Los Angeles.

The season's play will end October 17 at the same cities wherein it begins.

An innovation this year is the scheduling of 14 Sunday morning games at Stockton, about 40 miles south of Sacramento. These games will be transferred from the capital city to Stockton on the final day of each series that the Sacramento team plays at home.

Los Angeles will see its first coast league baseball April 13 when a series between the two home clubs, the Angeles and the Vernon Tigers, opens. For that week San Francisco is scheduled to play at Oakland, Seattle at Salt Lake and Portland at Sacramento.

The first games in the northern cities are played April 29, Los Angeles at Portland and San Francisco at Seattle.

As to holidays, the first Memorial day, May 30, will fall when Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles are playing at home, Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and Los Angeles will have July 4th at home, September 8 Labor day and September 8 California Admission day, fall with games at Salt Lake, Sacramento, Oakland and Los Angeles.

Bakers First to Move in Danish General Strike

Copenhagen, Mar. 31.—The firm move toward putting into effect the general strike ordered by the Danish trades unions in protest against the refusal of King Christian to reinstate the dismissed Zahle ministry appears to have been made by the bakers of Copenhagen. A number quit work this evening, stating they did not intend to return Thursday. The strikers on four Danish steamers also struck.

Steps have been taken, however, to open negotiations looking toward a settlement. The Zahle party has requested all the parties to hold meetings Sunday for the purpose of coming to an agreement on the question of an electoral bill.

It is believed in many quarters that if the government consents to the convocation of the parliament and the immediate passage of the electoral bill the trades unions will be satisfied.

Million Dollar Warrant Issued For Auto Fund

The largest state warrant ever drawn in the history of Oregon calling for the payment of $1,144,645.987 from the general fund to the credit of the state highway department—was issued by Sam A. Kozor, deputy secretary of state, last Friday. The amount specified in this warrant represents three-fourths of the motor vehicle registration department for 1920 licenses up to March 15 on which date the distribution of the receipts is to be made according to the state law, one-fourth to be divided among counties of the state in proportion to their contribution to the fund and three-fourths going to the credit of the state highway department for the improvement and maintenance of highways.

Previous to this warrant the high mark in the warrant department of the secretary of state's office was reached in a warrant for $298,000 drawn in favor of the United States government on May 2, 1912, in partial payment on the Oregon City locks. On October 2, 1912, a warrant for $190,000 was drawn by the department in favor of the United States government on the same account.

During the years 1917-18 a total of $12,648,285.60 was disbursed by the secretary of state office in 116,982 warrants. This amount will be materially

Denver Plasterers Given Pay Increase

Denver, Apr. 1.—Plasterers were granted a wage increase in Denver last night to $10 a day, effective this morning. Carpenters were denied an increase to $9 a day and declared a strike effective this morning. Approximately 200 men are affected. In the instance of building contracts now under way the old scale of $8 per day continues for plasterers. The new scale starts with new contracts.

Lewis Turns Hand To Wage Schedule For Other Workers

New York, Apr. 1.—The new wage agreement of the bituminous mine workers disposed of John L. Lewis, international president of the United Mine Workers, today turned his attention to the negotiation of a new contract for the anthracite miners. He declared that steps would be taken to bring about a "satisfactory" adjustment in the hard coal industry without further delay.

More than 400,000 mine workers will receive the 27 per cent wage increase in the new contract signed yesterday which goes into effect today and continues for two years.

T. L. Lewis, secretary of the New River Coal association, of West Virginia, said despite the new wage agreement there would be little increase in production until operators were as an "adequate car supply."

Organized Labor Favors Stringent Packer Control

Washington, April 1.—Organized labor put itself on record today in favor of stringent federal regulation of the packing industry. Jackson R. Ralston, counsel for the American Federation of Labor, presented a bill to the house agricultural committee, which he said was specifically designed to separate the packers from stock yard ownership and to prevent them from selling other products than meats.

"This republic cannot continue if large aggregations of capital such as these are permitted to exist and grow within it," Henry Sterling, representative of the federation's legislative committee, told the congressmen.

The committee will hear tomorrow Attorney General Palmer, who is expected to explain the terms of the consent decree put into effect against the packers recently.

Lease Executed On Camp Ground

The "Alberts tract," owned by Joseph H. Alberts, lying in the district surrounded by Church, Winter and near Oak streets, has been leased for the Auto Camp Ground. It was definitely announced at the Commercial Club today. Terms of the lease, other than it contained option for long time renewal, were not made known.

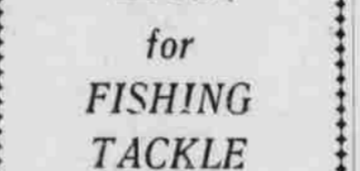

Receipt of letters by the Commercial Club indicating that tourists are already headed this way is giving impetus to the final campaign to complete the club's $10,000 special fund, and it is expected that the remaining deficit of $2,000 will be raised by the end of this week. It was announced that as soon as the fund is completed actual work on the camp ground will be commenced.

New York Harbor Strike Extended

New York, Apr. 1.—A general strike order effective immediately on railroad boats except ferries, was issued by the marine workers affiliation this afternoon. Workers on ferry boats of railroad companies were ordered to quit work at 3 o'clock tonight.

There's No Picture Like the Picture of Health

The greatest masterpiece in the Art Gallery of Life is Nature's "Picture of Health". It is a marvellous portrayal of the human body at its best. One beholds in its composite detail a true symbol of strength. It presents a figure of striking appearance in its erect carriage, clear skin, sparkling eyes, strong limbs, steady nerves and firm muscles, fairly vibrating in animation—keen, alert, fresh, and sprightly; with an air of unbounded confidence and a face radiant in color and illuminated with a glow of hope and cheerfulness.

Japanese socialists will participate in the demonstration.

JOURNAL CLASS ADS SELL IT

Could Nature have taken you for her model? Suppose you study yourself in the mirror of the present and compare your look, your feelings and your condition with the general characteristics of this picture of the human body in perfect working order; all parts of which are sound, well organized and disposed, performing their functions freely, naturally. If you fall in any single point of resemblance, you are not the picture of health. It's imperative, then, that you look to a means to rebuild your strength, energy and vigor—to bring your body up to a normal state of efficiency in all of its parts.
