480 ACRE wheat ranch 4 miles west of Heppner, plenty of live water, 300 acres enclosed with hogtight fence. Old farmers have said. "On this farm they have seen the best wheat that they ever saw grow." From spring plowed and seeded the 20th of April I have threshed 27 bushels to the acre. Strange as it may seem, I can show men who have said. "If you would spend $25 each day as long as you live you cannot spend one half of the money you have:" and I have said. would make a covenant with some of these Salem women to live with e ma hundred years; I want to say that all the money I have I made it on this farm. It seems expedient for me to say, if my lady has been moved to decide that she would rather be my wife for one day than the wife of any other man until death do them part, or any mon that he would work a little if he cauld get rich quick. I would be delighted to hear from them. W. S. McKimmey, Salem, Or. $2 Mckimmey, Salem, Or.
