U. S. Protection On Mexican Soil

Seattle, Wash., Apr. 9 .- Resolutions orging the United States government to protect American miners in Mexico and asking congress to repeal excess profits and corporation taxes were adopted by the International Mining convention here today. Among other reclutions passed was one asking the government to foster production of Sidney Norman, Spokane, chairman of the resolution committee, presided at the morning session and introduced the resolutions. Frank A. Vanderlip, New York financier, here on his way to the Orient, will address the convention late today.

A committee of five was named to recommend the 1921 meeting city. Spokane and Portland asked to be named. The new German minister of defense, Herr Gessler, announced yea-terday in an interview that in the event it should become necessary to proclaim a state of exceptional law in any district, special civil commissioners and not military commanders would be invested with executiva
