Woodburn Bank Will Move Into Larger Quarters

Woodburn, Or., Apr. 14.—Believing in Woodburn and its future, the officers of the Bank of Woodburn have purchased the association building, now occupied by the Klatskop pool room and Goettel's Variety Store and will remodel it, making first class banking quarters. The building now occupied by the bank is becoming too small for the amount of business transacted and it also is not in the center of the business district like the new place will be. Work cannot be started yet as the present tenants have leases not expiring for several months. According to present plans the progressive men directing the affairs of the bank will make it one of the most up-to-date institutions in the valley, and a credit to Woodburn and vicinity.

Perry Seely had a slight operation performed on his nose at Salem Friday. Fourteen signers have been secured on a petition to pave South Front street, which is a disgrace to the city. In winter it is almost impassable and when summer comes those residing on it are almost smothered by the dust. Sunday a machine drove all the way from Cornelius to this city without the engine stopping, but on trying to navigate South Front street the machine stopped—stuck in the mud.

Sergeant George Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Adams of this city, returned last week from Texas where he was discharged from the 11th balloon company. Sergeant Adams was in the 4th balloon squadron in France.

The United Artisans will give a dance at the armory Saturday evening, April 17. The member of the Klatskop and their husbands were entertained at cards Thursday evening last by Mrs. Eugene Courtney. Mrs. J. F. Steelhammer and Henry D. Miller carried off first prizes and Mr. Steelhammer the consolation. The contest was assisted in serving refreshment by Mrs. Keith Powell, Mrs. T. K. Sanderson and Mr. Courtney.

Miss Lillian Conaway, until lately manager of the CC store in this city, was married in Portland, April 7th to Frank Herman of that city. The bride made many friends during her residence here who wish her much joy and happiness.

Rev. Coleman is moving his plumbing shop from South Front street to the room opposite the S. P. depot, formerly occupied by the Oregon cafe. Dallas Pittenger of Kerry, Or., visited his mother, Mrs. Laura Pittenger, Sunday.

The Willamette university glee club gave a concert in W. H. S. auditorium Saturday evening. The room was comfortably filled and all seemed to enjoy the affair. Quite a number attended from out of town.

Stayton Bank To Become National Institution Soon

Stayton, April 14.—The Farmers & Merchants bank of Stayton will soon be converted into the First National bank of Stayton, permission for the change having been granted by the controller of the currency. Since consolidation with the Stayton State bank the business of this bank has grown constantly, and as there seemed to be a need for a national bank here, permission for its establishment was asked. Work will begin soon on the building to be occupied by the new bank which when completed will be modern and convenient. The Farmers & Merchants recently took over the stock of D. B. Hill in the bank at Mill City, Mr. Hill having moved to Portland to reside.

Mrs. Wm. Nendel is home from Portland, where she went to meet Mrs. Roy Nendel, who is here for a visit.

Frank Lesley of the Stayton hotel, is now driving a new Liberty Six.

Miss Mabel Montgomery, who has been sick for several months, but was considerably better, had a slight relapse last week, but is now reported improving.

Frank Kerber has purchased and now occupies the house recently owned by Paul Fehlin, on Water street.

Mrs. Geo. Boedighamer and baby are now living in town, her husband still being employed on the Toole farm.

The Santiam Wagon Mills company has leased the double store room owned by the Odd Fellows, in which they will store the manufactured goods from the mill as they are turned out. The mill company is adding almost daily to its force of employees, and expect soon to have the mill running to capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilbur, who have been in Portland the past two months, are home for a few weeks stay.

The postoffice at Mehama, which was discontinued about a year ago, will be reestablished soon, with Mr. Bough, a merchant there, as postmaster. The post office at Kingston will be discontinued after April 15. Mail for that place will be handled on a rural route from Stayton.

Considerable excitement was created Sunday when a horse which was picking grass in the yard of its owner, Howard Montgomery, broke thru into an old boarded up cess pool. The hind legs of the animal were in the hole which was quite deep, and the fore legs out, and the horse was unable to extricate himself from the place, nor could the number of men which gathered get him out. A large truck was brought into use and the animal pulled out, not much worse for his experience.

Mrs. E. B. Watters of Idanha, spent Sunday at the Capt. Watters home. T. C. Crabtree is now employed by the Lilly Hardware Co. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Kramer visited Salem Tuesday.

J. B. Miller, who has been quite sick the past weeks from the flu, is now much improved and will soon be able to be out.

Geo. H. Zell has moved into the Mrs. Korinek house, which he recently purchased.

Revival Services At Marion To Be Held Entire Week

Marion, Or., Apr. 14.—Starting Sunday, April 18, and continuing for a week, revival services will be held in the Friends church here, under the direction of Reverend Lee, of the Highland Friends church of Salem. Special services will be held and a good musical program is promised for each evening.

Miss Marian Ramage has returned home to Portland after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Colgan and family.

Rev. Blain Bronner was a Portland visitor the first of the week.

Mrs. Cummins and son, John, who have been assisting with the work on the Pickard Bros' dairy ranch, have gone to Portland in response to a message telling of the illness of Mrs. Cummins' daughter. They will make their home there for the present.

Mr. Gray and family have moved on Mr. Hubb's place. They came from near Jefferson.

Miss Harriett Colgan attended the Sunday school convention held in Salem last Friday and Saturday. She was a delegate from the Presbyterians Sunday school from here.

Mrs. Beckman, who has been ill in a Salem hospital, is better and will soon be home.

Rev. Ogden will arrive soon to become the resident pastor of the Presbyterian church at this place.

Mrs. Hunt of Albany is visiting her sister, Miss Sophronia Farnham.

Les Doerfler returned home last Saturday for a short visit with his family here. He has finished substituting as telegraph operator at Banks and will soon fill some other place for the company. He is much pleased with the work.

The many friends of J. V. Dencer will be glad to know that he was able to leave the hospital last Thursday, and is getting along nicely.

Gladys Barber, Mary Barker and Guy Dolse all from Salem were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Barber last Sunday.

Mildred Kaylor of Salem was the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Conklin last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gehrey of Jefferson spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Ensey.

W. M. Davis and family expect to move soon to his place near West Stayton.

John and Roy Winn began working with the S. P. section men last Saturday.

Thelma Bonas spent last Saturday and Sunday visiting her grand parents in Salem.

Excelsior Mill At Stayton Closes

Stayton, April 14.—After another week, the excelsior mill of Stayton will be a thing of the past. Several months ago Gardner & Stayton sold the machinery of the plant to Eugene parties, reserving the use of it until the supply of timber on hand was manufactured. In a few days this will be completed and the machinery moved.

This institution has been a great deal of benefit to Stayton, giving employment to a number of men in the plant as well as to a number in the timber cutting wood, and Stayton people are sorry to see it go, but the supply of balsam timber is practically exhausted and other kinds fit for excelsior are not available, so the owners decided to close the plant.

Work on Dallas Salem Road To Be Started Soon

Dallas, Or., Apr. 14.—With the Dallas-Salem road nearly impassable as a result of the rains of the past ten days, traffic between the two cities and many intermediate points has been at the lowest ebb in several years and the only ray of sunshine for those who have to travel the stretch is that its improvement awaits only the arrival of settled weather.

Everything is in readiness for the resumption of the paving operations that were called off when the rains of last fall made the laying of pavement impossible. The big "hot stuff" plant of the Oscar Huber company, near Eola, is ready to start its wheels in motion as soon as the weather man hangs out the "spring is here" sign and a camp with accommodation for around 200 men has been established at this point.

The grading for the road is practically all done and small crews are putting some of the grades which were badly cut up and otherwise damaged during the winter into condition to receive the crushed rock and surfacing. At Rickreall the gravel dredged from Hickreall creek is piled mountain high awaiting the time when the trucks can move it.

It is probable that the paving operations will be resumed where the work was abandoned last year and that a few weeks of work will see the hard surface laid as far west from Salem as Brunk's corner. The entire distance between Dallas and Salem will be paved before the summer is over.

Just to keep it in circulation, here's a want ad from a Philadelphia paper: "Wanted—Experienced girl to do boxing in men's underwear. Must be quick." "Jazz" is a pimped impurity in the musical system.—The Hammer.

Third Quarter Attendance At Normal Is Good

Monmouth, April 14.—The new quarter at the Normal opened auspiciously Monday with registration. Several new students have entered a sufficient number to fill all the vacant places left by those who graduated last Friday.

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Miss Buna McCoy, an alumna of the Normal, to Leslie G. Hunter on Sunday, March 14, at Yamhill.

An entertaining program was given in the normal chapel last Thursday evening by the pupils of the seventh and eighth grades of the Monmouth training school.

President Ackerman was a guest of the Civic club of Portland last Saturday at luncheon, and gave a talk there. The members of the club were enthusiastic in their endorsement of the millage bill.

J. O. Andrus, who has been the efficient fireman at the heating plant for several years, has resigned his place. He will be greatly missed as his excellent service has been much appreciated.

Group two of the social divisions of the student body enjoyed a party at Mr. Butler's residence Tuesday evening of this week. The members of the entire student body are enthusiastic in their praise of Mr. Butler's generosity in lending his home to them as a place of entertainment.

The Vesperettes gave a good program in the chapel last Friday evening. The farce "Too Much Bobbs" was especially well staged and acted.

The registrar reports many inquiries and a most favorable outlook for a successful summer session, beginning June 21.

The Greater O. N. S. committee has invited the similar committees from the University and Agricultural college to meet with them on Saturday, April 17. The purpose of the meeting is to consider further the joint plans

Dallas Plants To Care For Entire Yield Of Fruits

Dallas, April 14.—With two packing plants and a cannery to be in operation here in time for the berry and fruit season local growers are expressing little concern as to what they are going to do with their crops this year.

Besides the California Packing corporation's plant, which has been in operation for the past five years and which during the winter, Mason-Ehrman touches on a $50,000 packing plant and local men are backing the construction of a cannery to handle this year's crop of the Dallas section.

Indications of good yields from the orchards and berry patches are driving even the most pessimistic "freeze up" howlers to cover and the growers are highly optimistic concerning crops. Careful surveys have shown the rumored frost damage to be trifling and confined entirely to the lowlands.

Community Club At Woodburn To Meet Thursday

Woodburn, April 14.—A community club was organized here, or steps taken toward its organization, last Thursday evening. E. P. Marcom called the meeting to order. Speeches were made by Walter Denton, Luther J. Chapin and T. E. McCroskey of Salem. Salem musicians helped entertain. Committees were appointed and will report at the next meeting, Thursday evening, April 15.

Keith Powell attended the meeting at the Portland chamber of com-

Work On Mt. Angel School Delayed By Bad Weather

Mt. Angel, April 14.—Plans for the immediate construction of the new St. Mary's school are being carried forward rapidly. With a view toward beginning operations at once, Frank Lansing, the contractor for brick and will begin work as soon as the

Yahmill County Road Bond Bill To Pass, Claim

Dallas, Or., Apr. 14.—Prediction that the $200,000 road bond issue proposed for Yamhill county, which is to be voted on at the time of the May primary election, will pass is made by Otto H. Heider of Sheridan, who was in Dallas Tuesday attending court and looking after other legal business.

The money from the bond issue, if voted, is to be used principally in improving the highway between Newberg and Willamina, according to Mr. Heider, and the remainder will go into the construction of lateral roads.

Mr. Heider has announced his candidacy for nomination for the office of district attorney of Yamhill county.

GRADING BIDS ASKED

Bids on the grading of 5.3 miles of the Corvallis-Newport highway between Toledo and Newport will be received by the state highway commission for consideration at its next meeting in Portland, April 27. Bids are also being received by the department for the surfacing of 1.82 miles on the Barlow-Aurora section of the Pacific highway.

It is not wise to name an insipid scion of wealth after a noted man. Think of the insult to Grover Cleveland, when slacker Bergdoll was given that name.

Once You Try Mazola You Will Never Go Back to Lard or Butter for Cooking—or Olive Oil for Dressings

OF interest to every wide-awake housewife are these important facts about the general use, the quality and the unusual economy of Mazola.

Deep Frying

No fat excels Mazola for deep frying. It is far better and a great deal more economical than lard or compounds. Mazola is 100% pure vegetable fat. It contains no moisture. Butter and Lard contain moisture. The same lot of Mazola can be used over and over again—even after frying fish and onions. Merely straining makes it perfectly fresh for use as a shortening. It carries no odors or flavors from the foods cooked in it and does not smoke up your kitchen.

Shortening

The purity and richness of Mazola best demonstrates itself in the fact that 1/4 to 1/2 less Mazola is required than that of butter or lard. This means that your cakes and pie crust will not only be light, rich and easily digested but will cost you less to prepare. Being an oil, the tiresome "creaming-in process" is eliminated. Mazola is always ready for instant use.

Salad Dressings

Thousands of Italians, who certainly know olive oil, use Mazola. Not only because it costs about half that of the best olive oil, but because of its richness, quality and purity. For French Dressing, Mazola blends readily—and mayonnaise made with Mazola will keep for weeks without separating.

Important to Housewives

One of the most severe comparative tests ever used on a cooking fat gives unqualified FIRST HONORS to Mazola.

Understand the remarkable economy and high quality of Mazola by these figures.

FRENCH FRIED POTATOES

2 lbs. of Mazola	fried	26 lbs. Potatoes
2 lbs. of Lard	"	8 " "
2 lbs. of Compound	"	11 1/2 " "

Note: Mazola goes over three times as far as lard; is twice as economical as compound.

FISH

2 lbs. of Mazola	fried	25 lbs. Fish
2 lbs. of Lard	"	15 " "
2 lbs. of Compound	"	20 " "

Note: Compare the figures yourself. Even with frying fish Mazola does not smoke up your kitchen.

DOUGHNUTS

2 lbs. of Mazola	fried	216 Doughnuts
2 lbs. of Lard	"	144 " "
2 lbs. of Compound	"	168 " "

Note: All doughnuts were the same size. Mazola-made doughnuts are more easily digested.

P. S. Reasons for these remarkable figures are explained in column to the left. Read it.
