

All Around Town

CURRENT EVENTS

April 17.—Debate, Williamette and College of Puget Sound.

April 18.—Council meeting, city hall, 7:30 p. m.

April 19.—G. E. Lewis, lecturer, Alaska, Y. M. C. A.

April 21.—Business Men's luncheon, Commercial club.

April 22.—Regular meeting, Business Men's League, Commercial club, 8 p. m.

April 21.—Williamette Glee club concert.

April 22.—Howard E. Wood lecture on "City Beautiful," library auditorium.

April 23.—Debate, Williamette and Pacific University.

April 23.—Blossom Day in Marion county.

April 23.—Elks Scout night, armory, 8 p. m.

April 30.—Pageant, "Awakening of Spring," opera house.

May 1.—Benefit Dance, Company M. Armory.

Court House News

Circuit Court.

August Kehrberger vs. Lizzie Uppen... Order confirming sale.

Bibley Buck vs. L. A. Thompson et al. Order confirming sale.

Fred M. Raymond vs. L. D. Kelly et al. Answer.

John W. Gibson et ux vs. Milton L. Myers et al. Reply to supplemental answer of A. A. Lee and Linnie M. Lee.

Larson O. Hadley vs. Carrie A. Morgan et al. Verdict.

Larson O. Hadley vs. Carrie A. Morgan et al. Order of default.

John W. Gibson et ux vs. Milton L. Myers et al. Reply to answer of Milton L. Myers and Ellen Edson Meyers.

Larson O. Hadley vs. Carrie A. Morgan et al. Affidavit.

John W. Gibson et ux vs. Milton L. Myers et al. Reply to answer of Bank of Amity.

Marriage Licenses.

Frank Schalk, 21, of Sheridan, a laborer, to Stella May Hartman, 34, of Oak street, Salem.

Baby chicks, 558 State. Phone 400. 103

Leva, jeweler, watchmaker, Salem.

J. J. Lynett of Portland spent Saturday in Salem.

Baby chicks, all our leading varieties now ready for delivery. C. N. Needham, 558 State. Phone 400. 93

Masquerade dance tonight. Ladies free admission. 93*

OREGON

WM. RUSSELL
IN
"SIX FEET FOUR"
TOMORROW
"HUCKLEBERRY FINN"

NOW

Farm and Stock Ranch for Sale

700,000 acres in Alberta, Canada, for wheat and stock.

Stock and Grain Farm in Oregon. Good buys in fruit tracts.

Howard & Satterlee

Phone 1177
404 Ferry Street Salem, Or.

Do the Dead Come Back?

The Bible Answer This Question Is GOD'S Testimony That Spiritualism Is of the Devil.

Satan's First Lie and the Fruit It Has Borne

Another Great Sermon Study By

EVANGELIST A. R. BELL

TOMORROW EVENING, 7:30. S. D. A. CHURCH, N. Fifth and Gaines Avenue

COME—Intensely Interesting. BRING A FRIEND. Take N. Commercial Car ter Brown and Tige will be in Salem at an early date. Buster and Tige, at the present time are trade marks on a popular line of footwear, but the two famous characters created by Artist Outcault, will be seen in real life by Salem boys and girls. The local company has made special reception plans for the event and promise that the time of Buster Brown's visit will be a gala day for Salem children. Dates and programs are to be made public soon.

"Revelation" music at Moose hall tonight. Ladies free. Dancing. 93*

Mrs. J. E. Ringrose left Salem last week to visit her folks in Minnesota. She will be gone about three months.

For sale, nine setting hens with brood of chicks for each. Now ready for delivery. C. N. Needham, 558 State St. Phone 400. 93*

Dr. G. V. Ellis has returned and has opened offices at 405-406 Bank of Commerce bldg. 93*

D. H. Talmadge is in Gervais for a few days, where he is working in the offices of the newly re-established Gervais Star.

P. X. Johnson of the Huffman Sales company was in Portland on business Friday.

Moose hall tonight for dancing. The "Revelation." Ladies free. 93*

Get our special one-man top proposition for Ford cars. Hull's Top Shop. Tops of quality. 93*

Call 317, Williamette university, and have a Glee club man deliver your tickets for the concert, Wed., April 21. 93*

A. J. Rice, of Cambridge, Nebraska, was a Salem visitor, Friday.

C. A. Noren, representative of fruit distribution at Grand View, Washington, visited friends in this city Saturday.

Police were asked today by R. W. Gregg, 1216 Court street, to aid in the capture of two boys who, Mr. Gregg claims, made it a practice of using his boat whenever they wish, then leave it in a dilapidated condition. Mr. Gregg leaves his boat at the foot of River street.

Report of the loss of two black horses weighing about 950 pounds each, was made to police last night. The team strayed from the place of William McDerby.

Nothing was found missing in the Lot L. Pearce store, 236 North Commercial street, although the door of entrance in the rear was found open early this morning by Officers W. J. White and Victor. Mr. Pearce was summoned and a search made in the premises.

SEE Woodry's Stock

of Furniture, Ranges, Heaters, Rugs, Tools, etc., before you buy

270 N. Com'l St. Phones 510 or 511

ASSURANCE

In giving you your work you can always have the assurance that it will be properly taken care of. We let nothing hinder us from serving to our utmost those who come to us.

WEBB & CLOUGH CO. FUNERAL DIRECTORS
499 COURT STREET, SALEM, ORE.

GREATEST VALUES EVER GIVEN IN MILLINERY

We have made it possible for everyone to have a hat. Why pay $15 to $25 for a hat when you can get the same quality and style hat for

$2.75 TO $8.50

STOP

At the front of our store. See the price and the hats in the window. Then we know you will come in and purchase. Don't pay extra money for the fashion shop. Get the same quality and style from us for less.

Children's Hats

98c TO $3.50

THE SALEM VARIETY STORE

152 North Commercial Street

Plumbing permits were issued today by the city recorder to The Salem Bank of Commerce and to T. A. Baker, 239 North Commercial street. Each permit was for the installation of a sink.

The body of Nick Draudera, 50, a native of Italy, who died at a hospital here Thursday, was sent to Portland for funeral and burial by the Webb & Clough company.

George E. Halvorsen, candidate for mayor and Ralph Thompson, candidate for councilman from ward 7, today filed their completed petitions with City Recorder Race.

The Commercial club publicity booklet on Marion county, containing 48 pages of solid reading matter, is on the press and will be off and ready for distribution in about 19 days. It was announced at the Commercial Club this morning. There will be 30,000 booklets published, and they are to be distributed to all parts of the world.

Bernard Brown, 22, who has been held in the county jail for about 10 days pending his trial on a charge of forgery, was released this morning by Judge Unruh on motion of Prosecuting Attorney Max Gehlar that evidence in the case was sufficient on which to convict.

A. M. Clough, filed petitions Friday in his candidacy for re-election to the office of county coroner. As filed with Clerk U. G. Boyer, the petitions contained 263 names although only 140 signatures are required in this county. Mr. Clough has held office for 29 years and reports ready response to his recent decision to remain in the running.

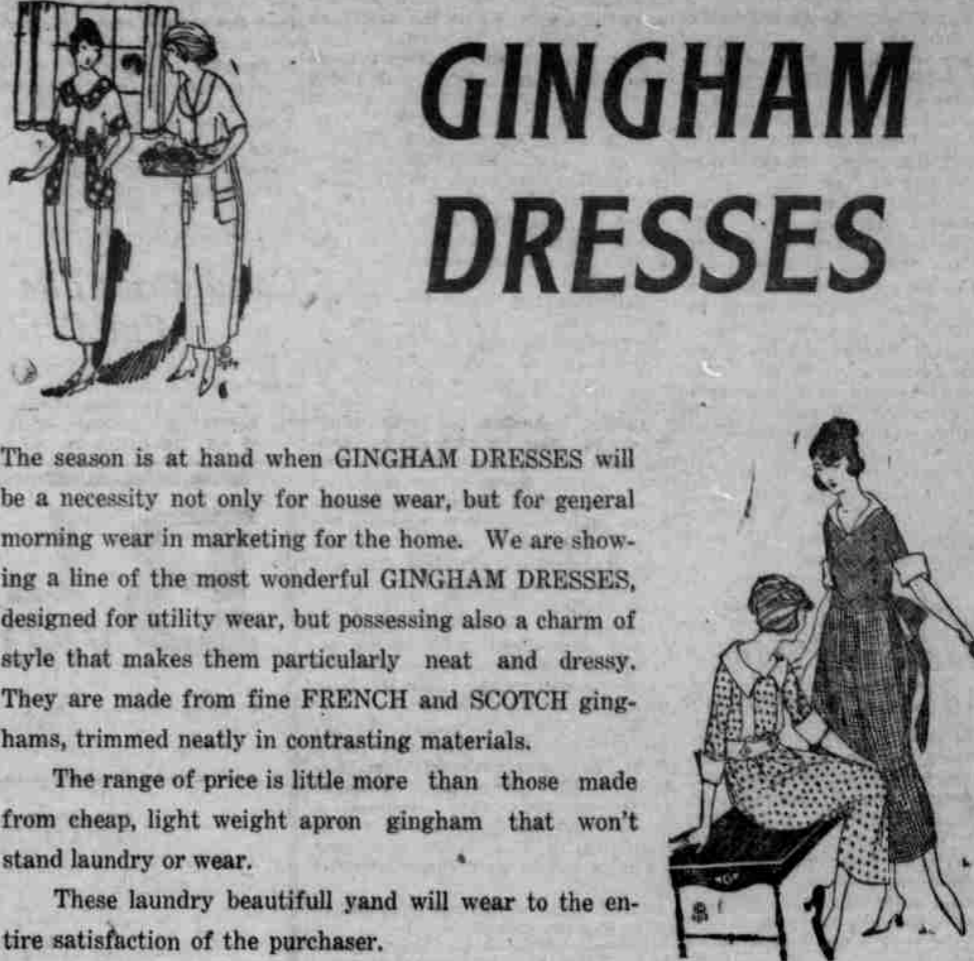

An auto stolen here last night from Pascal L. Traglio, 1370 Marion street, was found abandoned this morning about a mile east of the city on the Turner road. Both front tires and the tools had been removed and taken by the thieves.

An army store, at which will be soon shoes, hats, wool coats and pants, overcoats, rain coats, blankets, gloves and other cantonment goods will be opened next Wednesday at 187 South High street. Some of the goods have already arrived, and arrangements were being made in the store room today for accommodation of the customers. Managers of the store claim that the goods will be sold at about one-third of the regular cost on store goods.

En route to Chicago, where he has signed a contract with the Proctor Amusement company, Charles H. Merrey, who impersonated General Lee in the D. W. Griffith production "The Birth of a Nation" was a Salem visitor the first of the week. Mr. Merrey, whose home is in Eugene, was the guest of Octavia A. Hoppes, while in the Capitol city.

Meet Me at Miller's

GINGHAM DRESSES

The season is at hand when GINGHAM DRESSES will be a necessity not only for house wear, but for general morning wear in marketing for the home. We are showing a line of the most wonderful GINGHAM DRESSES, designed for utility wear, but possessing also a charm of style that makes them particularly neat and dressy. They are made from fine FRENCH and SCOTCH gingham, trimmed neatly in contrasting materials.

The range of price is little more than those made from cheap, light weight apron gingham that won't stand laundry or wear.

These laundry beautiful yard will wear to the entire satisfaction of the purchaser.

Quality and Service MILLER'S Quality and Service
Good Goods.

HERE IT IS!

You Can Always Find at

MOORE'S

"Just What You Were Looking For"

Our stock is so large, so complete that you can select furnishings for your entire home, from basement to attic, under our one roof. Why run around town choosing a piece of furniture here and a piece there and a piece somewhere else, when you could come to Moore's, make your selection and have it all over with in a few minutes.

See our beautiful selection of overstuffed furniture in our window. We handle the Victor exclusively. There is only ONE BEST—that's why we carry no substitutes.

W. W. Moore's FURNITURE STORE